

U. S. Business Group Demands Full Repeal of Wage-Hour Act

House Gets Over 30 Proposals for Various Exemptions

NEARING VOTE

New Deal Leaders No Longer Trying to Prevent Final Ballot

Washington—(AP)—Demands for complete repeal of the wage-hour act came from a national business group today during the final hours of prolonged house controversy over expanding the law's exemptions.

In its sixteenth consecutive day of debate, the house was confronted with more than thirty separate proposals for exempting various groups of agricultural processing workers from the wage-hour law.

Among these one by Representative Buck (D-Calif.), already tentatively accepted, seemed destined to provoke further argument since members disagreed over what it meant. Buck claimed it would exempt about 200,000 workers in small farm cooperatives. Opponents said it might be much broader in effect than that.

The demands for repeal of the law were presented to the United States Chamber of Commerce, meeting here, by its resolutions committee, which also proposed a resolution calling for fundamental revision of the Wagner labor relations act at this session of congress.

In the wage-hour controversy administration house members encouraged at repeated votes against sweeping exemptions, expressed belief they would have a good chance of defeating far-reaching proposals to revise the Wagner act.

Five days of wage-hour arguments, it was learned, have caused them to soft pedal their campaign to prevent the Wagner act controversy from coming before the house.

Although Democratic leaders have not yet placed Wagner act amendments on the calendar, it was considered likely that the subject would come up the week of May 13.

The chief issue before the house as wage-hour debate was resumed today was an amendment which Representative Buck (D-Calif.) temporarily wrote in yesterday attempting to clarify the present exemption for employees "engaged in agriculture." There have been arguments over the extent of that provision.

Would Affect 200,000

Buck said that his proposal would exempt an additional 200,000 workers, mostly in small farm cooperatives which wash, dry, pack and store fruits and vegetables.

Representative Wadsworth (R-N.Y.), one of Buck's supporters, argued that an exemption was just as necessary for the washing of navy beans, for example, as for growing them.

But few members appeared to understand what Buck wanted to do, and there was doubt that his proposal would remain in the bill on a final vote, despite the fact it was approved originally 149 to 56.

Representative Keefe (R-Wis.), who at first opposed Buck's amendment and then voted for it interpreted it as not exempting those.

Milk Dumped On Highways During Strike

Efforts Still Being Made to Arbitrate Issues

Chicago—(AP)—Market bound milk was dumped in highway ditches today in the midst of a strike of dairy workers that has cut off the supply to most consumers.

As the strike continued into its second day state and federal commissioners endeavored to arbitrate the issues and work out some plan whereby consumers might receive milk during arbitration.

Joseph Green, counsel for the Independent Milk Dealers association, said 20 per cent of the group's trucks had been halted on the highways since yesterday morning and most of their loads dumped.

He said the association supplied about 20 per cent of Chicago's milk dealers and that its members were not involved in the strike. Green said association dairies were receiving about 80 per cent of their normal supplies.

A private vendor of milk reported to police six men seized his truck while he was making deliveries. The truck was found several blocks away, undamaged but with 20 cases of milk smashed in the street.

Harry W. Scheck, a federal labor department conciliator stationed there, conferred briefly today with representatives of the associated milk dealers, and after the conference Ernest S. Ballard, chief counsel for the dealers, reported the only difference between the dealers.

Eagles Vote to Construct New $125,000 Hall

Auditorium, 16 Bowling Alleys Included in Plans

START IN SUMMER

124 E. Washington St. Site of Stone or Brick Structure

The Appleton Eagles association last night voted to erect a stone or brick building at 124 E. Washington street costing from $125,000 to $150,000 and containing an auditorium, 16 bowling alleys, lodge rooms and offices, small gymnasium and showers, cocktail room, and kitchen.

The building, 121 feet square, will occupy the property east of the Briggs hotel to Morrison street. The building now occupied by the Auto Sales company at 124 E. Washington will be torn down. The remainder of the property is at present a used car lot.

Architects will be notified immediately of the association's action, a member of the building committee said today, so that the committee can begin soon the study of proposed plans.

The association plans to have the 16 bowling alleys, which will be built in the basement, operating by Oct. 1.

The basement also will house a large kitchen, checkroom, facilities for the serving of refreshments, and a room for pin boys.

The main floor will contain the auditorium, 60 by 80 feet, cocktail room, men's and women's lodge rooms, the gymnasium or training room, showers, and offices for the secretary of the Appleton aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the manager of the building. There will be a "social room" for the women.

The present Eagles hall is at 119 E. Washington street, across the street from the site of the new structure.

Al G. Koch is general chairman for the building project. The committee will meet at the Eagles hall Tuesday night to discuss the project.

Erb park was the recommendation of the special pool committee, appointed by Mayor Goodland to select the site. Voting for Erb park were Aldermen Bogan, Feavel, Thompson, Rehfeldt, Keller, Wein, Kauf, Franke, Doerfler, Kittner, DeLand, Wichmann and McGillan. Voting against Erb park as a site were Aldermen Brautigam, Douglas, Knut, Lutz, Roemer and Vanderheyden.

When the recommendation was read, Alderman Douglas wanted to know just what were the recreational facilities at Erb park mentioned in the resolution.

Alderman Bogan, chairman of the special committee, told the council that Erb park is big enough "to put anything in the way of recreation."

"We looked at all of the possible sites in the city," he said. "Some were more centrally located but

British Abandon Southern Drive Against Trondheim

THIS HAPPENED IN APPLETON MAY 2, 1940
Inhabitants of the city today were deriding the little saying, "April showers bring May flowers." Any flower that might have thrived up through the ground this morning would have got a petal full of snow, as the above picture taken just after breakfast will attest. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Nazis Move Back; Guard Supply Lines

Stockholm—(AP)—Norwegian troops strengthened by foreign volunteers, were reported today moving west from the Swedish frontier and south through the Glomma river valley as German forces fell back from their advance posts to protect their supply lines in central Norway.

The Norwegians' occupation of Roros, point of the nazis' furthest advance in the Glomma river valley, and Tynset, 25 miles south of Roros, after the Germans had withdrawn apparently has prevented the Germans from linking their northern and southern forces, at least temporarily, along this route.

Roros is 195 miles north of Oslo.

Norwegians were noncommittal as to the nationality of the foreign volunteers aiding them, but reports have told of numerous Swedes crossing the border to fight the Germans.

New Sea Drive

While the guerrilla tactics of re-organized Norwegian forces were harassing the sketchy Nazi line, a new British sea and air offensive to halt the flow of German troops into Norway appeared to be taking shape.

Latest reports indicated that the Germans still held Kviteseid, west of the Glomma valley and northeast of Dombas, where allied forces still are said to be struggling to check the German drive.

Dombas controls an important railroad junction in the Budrands valley, another route of the German effort to establish a land connection between Nazi forces at Oslo and Trondheim.

Observers on Sweden's west coast said British warships, reinforced by bombing planes, invaded the Kattegat.

Chamberlain Says All Troops Quit Andalsnes Area

Reveals Allied Battle Fleets on Way to Alexandria, Egypt

BULLETIN

Paris—(AP)—The French tonight announced officially the loss of one warship and serious damage to another in a North sea naval battle.

A communique added, however, that a French submarine had torpedoed a German U-boat.

The names of the lost ship, a patrol boat, and the destroyer which was damaged were not disclosed.

The fighting was understood to have taken place within the last 48 hours.

Berlin—(AP)—The German high command announced tonight that Nazi forces have entered Andalsnes, allied debarkation point on Norway's west coast which the British have abandoned.

The announcement said the port, which was a base for Britain's attempt to capture German-held Trondheim, 100 miles to the north, was occupied at 3 p. m. (7 a. m. C. S. T.).

London—(AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons today the British government was withdrawing troops from the Andalsnes area and abandoning any idea of taking the German-held port of Trondheim from the south.

Andalsnes is 100 miles south of Trondheim.

"We decided last week that we must abandon any idea of taking Trondheim from the south," Chamberlain said, "and must withdraw our troops and transfer them elsewhere."

"We have now withdrawn the whole of our forces from Andalsnes without losing a single man."

"Casualties have not been heavy in proportion to the operation," he said.

Chamberlain's disclosure came in the course of an interim report on the Norwegian campaign.

Early in his report to an anxious and critical house, the prime minister asserted Germany had forestalled Britain in Norway by "long planning and carefully elaborated treachery."

Prepared for Invasion

He disclosed that allied forces had been gathered originally to help Poland but that they were dispersed when Norway and Sweden refused to allow transit of the troops.

About a month ago, however, he said, it was decided to keep ready "certain small forces" to occupy western ports of Norway at short notice in case of invasion by Germany of the northern kingdom.

At the same time he told the house of commons that the British and French battle fleets were in the eastern basin of the Mediterranean on their way to Alexandria, Egypt.

Chamberlain said that "German local air superiority" had made it impossible to land "the artillery and tanks which would be necessary to enable our troops to withstand the enemy drive from the south."

Norway Not "Side Show"

Chamberlain assured the house Britain has "no intention of allowing Norway to become merely a side show."

Though it has not been possible to capture Trondheim, Chamberlain said he was satisfied "that the balance of the advantage lies up to the present with the allied forces."

"Norway is not conquered," he stated "after three weeks of war in which heavy losses have been sustained by the enemy on the sea, on land and in the air."

The naval movement to Alexandria, he said, was to effect "more normal distribution" of ships through release of some from the North sea.

He said he could not give details of casualties in Norway but believed they were not proportionately heavy.

Chamberlain gave German naval losses as two capital ships damaged.

Senate Overrides Veto On Travel, Food Funds

Washington—(AP)—The senate overrode President Roosevelt on a veto today by a vote of 76 to 3 and wrote into law legislation to grant travel pay and food allowances for officers and men held in service in the Philippines after the war with Spain. The house previously had overridden the president, 274 to 82.

The legislation has been passed three times by the president, the first two times—in 1935 and 1938—were sustained by congress. A two-thirds vote is necessary to override a veto.

Senator Burke (D-Neb.), urging that the latest veto be overridden, told the senate the legislation involved between 7,000 and 8,000 claims totaling about $3,200,000.

Drag Lake for 4 Missing Youths

Crude Boat Found Partly Submerged; CCC Joins in Search

Hayward, Wis.—(AP)—Search was abandoned today for four CCC youths missing since Sunday, as Sheriff George Seehuetter conceded that they were drowned when their crude rowboat capsized.

Hayward, Wis.—(AP)—Drugging operations on Moose lake, 32 miles east of here, for four CCC employees, missing since Sunday, were intensified today as fellow CCC youths augmented the searching parties headed by county authorities.

Believed drowned are Harris Matheson, Chicago; Robert Brumitt, Bradley, Ill.; Edward J. Milton, Waupun, Wis., and Marshall Schoewe, Milwaukee. The boys, between the ages of 17 and 23, members of the Sawyer CCC camp, were last seen by William Metcalf, resort owner, as they paddled on the lake Sunday in a crude rowboat, fished from a mortar box and a raft.

After they failed to report back to camp Sawyer, searchers sent out discovered the partly submerged mortar box drifting on the lake and a sweater believed to have been worn by one of the youths lying on the shore.

The resort owner told Capt. M. F. Amen, camp Sawyer commanding officer, that he did not investigate when he heard shouts because he believed the boys merely were yelling in exuberance and fun.

Canadian Vessel Lost in Superior

Captain Goes Down With Ship but Rest of Crew Is Rescued

Sault Ste. Marie—(AP)—The 244-foot Canadian steamer Arlington sank at 9 a. m. Wednesday in Lake Superior carrying to death Captain Fred Burke, who refused to leave his ship.

Sixteen members of the crew were taken off by the steamer Collingwood, another Canadian vessel which was following the Arlington through the lake when a severe wind and snow storm came up Wednesday.

The Arlington was without wireless equipment. First word of the wreck came with the arrival here of the Collingwood with the survivors.

Captain J. T. Carson of the Collingwood said he knew of no reason for "Captain Burke's death except the tradition of the sea."

The Collingwood proceeded at once to Midland, Ont., with the surviving crew members of the Arlington.

The Arlington was built in 1913. It was owned by the Burke Towing and Salvage company, Ltd. of Midland. Captain Burke was a brother of George and Dave Burke, the proprietors. The skipper was 59 years old.

Council Approves Pool Site; Fixes Park Rental

Of Manslaughter In Traffic Deaths

Another step towards construction of a municipal swimming pool in Appleton was completed last night when the city council voted 12 to 6 to select Erb park as the site for the pool.

Erb park was the recommendation of the special pool committee, appointed by Mayor Goodland to select the site. Voting for Erb park were Aldermen Bogan, Feavel, Thompson, Rehfeldt, Keller, Wein, Kauf, Franke, Doerfler, Kittner, DeLand, Wichmann and McGillan. Voting against Erb park as a site were Aldermen Brautigam, Douglas, Knut, Lutz, Roemer and Vanderheyden.

The corporation offered the city 10 per cent of the net receipts on concessions and after a long discussion, Aldermen referred part of the proposal back to the recreation committee with instructions to advertise for bids.

Amateur Teams

Amateur teams in the Fox Valley and Outagamie county baseball leagues will pay the city $1 for afternoon games and a minimum of $15 and 10 per cent over $150 to gate receipts for night games.

Alderman McGillan introduced the resolution to take administration of the golf course from the park board and put the course in the hands of a golf commission, to be composed of nine men, directly controlled by the council.

The commission, as proposed in the resolution would be elected by the council and would work in cooperation with the Municipal Golf club, recently organized.

Alderman Keller moved to table the resolution because, he said, "we referred the golf course problems to the park board and asked them to report. A move to take jurisdiction away from the board at this time is premature."

"We asked for action on the options to the land needed to enlarge the course," he said.

Indiana Slayer to Get Life Sentence

Jury Finds Golf Course Laborer Guilty of First Degree Murder

Crawfordsville, Ind.—(AP)—Thomas Allen Bors, 28-year-old Altona golf course laborer, was convicted of first degree murder today in the sex-slaying of 11-year-old Elizabeth DeBruicker, Fountain county farm girl, and his sentence was fixed by the jury at life imprisonment.

The jury deliberated nearly 24 hours before reaching its verdict. It received the case at 12:10 p. m. yesterday and reported the verdict at 11:31 a. m. today.

Judge Edgar Rice said the life sentence would be imposed Monday morning.

James Wallace, one of Bors' attorneys, said there would be no appeal.

"No, I'm not satisfied with the verdict," said Bors to newsmen. "I don't want to spend the rest of my life in prison. I'd rather they'd have given me the electric chair."

The court room was crowded with spectators when the jury reported but relatives of Bors and of the slain girl were absent although they had attended some court sessions.

Bad Weather Fails to Curb Enthusiasm as Women Flock To Cooking School Program

BY VIOLA HELLERMANN

"Jingle Bells" opened the orchestra program at the third session of the nineteenth annual Post-Crescent cooking school this morning at the Rio theater as Tom Temple and his men paid tribute to the snowstorm which failed to keep women away from the school.

Women from places as far away as Brillion and Black Creek were included in the audience which filled every seat in the theater.

Tickets for the closing session Friday morning are on sale only at the Appleton Post-Crescent office and the Rio theater. Since there is only a limited number left, women who plan to attend tomorrow had better get their tickets "this afternoon or evening so that they will not be disappointed tomorrow morning."

For Power Cause of War, Pontiff States

Vatican City—(AP)—Pope Pius XII blamed "excessive human covetousness and thirst for power" for the war raging in Europe in speaking briefly at St. Peter's today at the canonization of two saints.

Men, blinded by these passions, have "repudiated the laws of God" in losing the horrors of war, he said.

In approving the canonization of the two saints, the pope appealed to them to intercede with God on behalf of mankind for the restoration of unity, concord and "the counsels of peace."

A French nun and a humble Italian girl—the first persons to be canonized by Pope Pius XII—attended sainthood today at solemn ceremonies in St. Peter's.

The sainted women were Marie Euphrasia Pelletier, who founded the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, and Gemma Galgani, who was noted for her reported stigmata, or marks corresponding to the wounds that Christ received when crucified.

Try to Win Release of 2 American Students

Lausanne, Switzerland—(AP)—Two American medical students at Lausanne university said dejectedly today in a French military prison while Swiss and United States officials tried to obtain their release.

The students, Paul Lustwig and Anthony Aragon, 23-year-old New Yorkers, went rowing Sunday on Lake Lemans. They were blown to the southern shore by a storm and blundered through the underbrush until French bayonets halted them. They had landed on a stretch famed as a "trap" by which German agents attempt to reach France.

The United States consulate in Geneva said a military magistrate sentenced the Americans, who had no identification, to a month in prison for trying to enter France illegally. The officials said they "hoped" the French would release the pair "within a few days."

A Close-Up Of the Horizon

A new television device that enables sailors to see beyond the horizon is now in use in the British navy, to help them carry on the war.

Good idea. But why restrict it to sailors? We're all at sea about the war, and in business matters there isn't a single neutral who wouldn't love to be able to look a wee bit beyond the horizon. Of course, everybody's vision is lengthened by use of the Post-Crescent classified want-ads. The results brought by this one helped:

'No Whitewash' in Probe of Conservation Department, Chief Executive Asserts

Madison—(AP)—Governor Heil said today there would be "no whitewash" in his administration's investigation of the conservation department.

He said he had not decided whether to have public hearings, but that the press would be invited if they were held.

Explaining that "people are trying to build up propaganda against the investigation," he said:

"You know I have received letters and a lot of mouth to ear stuff asking me why I should investigate such a nice department as the conservation department."

"But there won't be any whitewash. If there are any guilty parties in any department they will be punished."

"I told the people when I was elected there would not be any department which would not be investigated from top to bottom. I can be courageous in this thing because I don't owe anyone anything. We want to clean up all the errors."

Investigation of the conservation department, under way for several months, was brought into the open Tuesday when August Frey, director of the division of departmental research, requested a conference May 6 with Conservation Director H. W. MacKenzie and two subordinates, F. G. Wilson and C. L. Harrington.

"When a hearing takes place at which the men are under oath," he told reporters, "you men will be invited. But while I am getting the information, the press must be courteous and give Heil a chance to get the facts."

The governor refused to answer any questions concerning his political plans. Asked whether he would run for governor if the Republican convention at Green Bay May 31 June 1 endorsed Robert K. Henry of Jefferson, he said:

"I am not talking politics or elections today."

Daughters Hear Crash Fatal to Their Father

Milwaukee—(AP)—The crash of an automobile-truck collision fatal to Walter Lee Carden, 47, was heard by his daughters, Betty, 10, and Wanda, 8, as they worked on their lessons yesterday at the New Road school in the town of Lake.

Carden, a North Western road switchman, was driving his automobile to work. His car and a WPA truck collided. Joseph Malkowski, the truck driver, was injured as it overturned. Carden was thrown to a stop light post.

The two girls were not informed of the accident until several hours later. Mrs. Carden and a young son also survive.

See of Force Release Of $4,000 by Treasurer

Madison—(AP)—The Disabled American Veterans Convention corporation of Green Bay launched an action today to compel State Treasurer John M. Smith to release $4,000 of the $10,000 appropriated to it by the 1939 legislature.

Papers were served on Smith ordering him to appear before the supreme court May 10 to show cause why the corporation should not be granted permission to start an action to compel the release of the funds.

More Cooperation Is Asked by NYA Chief

Manitowish—(AP)—A plea for more cooperation by the public and school officials with the national youth administration in Wisconsin was voiced here today by John Lasher of Milwaukee, state NYA director.

Lasher spoke before directors of Wisconsin vocational schools, holding their annual spring conference in conjunction with the Wisconsin Association for Vocational and Adult Education which opens its program tomorrow.

Indiana Is Adjourned Until Monday Morning

Plymouth, Ind.—(AP)—Circuit Judge John W. Kitch adjourned the trial of John A. Marks, 36, Michigan City labor leader, today until 9:30 Monday morning, after two state witnesses had testified to damage done in bombings of Indiana and Michigan Electric company property.

Marks is charged with conspiracy to commit a felony in the dynamiting of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL). The state contends he engineered the bombings to bring the company to terms.

Special Prosecutor George Beamer of South Bend said Parrish E. Freeman, 31, of Joliet, Ill., the state's star witness, would testify Monday.

Wheeler, Pittman Ask Endorsement Plank in Platform

Want Principles of Roosevelt Administration Approved

Washington—(AP)—Two Democratic senators—Wheeler of Montana and Pittman of Nevada—called today for endorsement of President Roosevelt's administration in the party platform.

"Any other course would be political suicide," said a statement by Wheeler, a candidate for the presidential nomination if Mr. Roosevelt does not run.

Pittman told reporters that the platform to be adopted at the national convention "must endorse the principles of the Roosevelt administration," and added that this "does not mean the endorsement of every piece of legislation sent to congress."

Wheeler forecast that the platform would pledge the party to keep out of war, try to bring farm prices to a parity with industry, try to reduce unemployment, and "denounce totalitarianism in all forms."

Dedicate Minnesota U. Journalism Building

Minneapolis—(AP)—Arthur T. Robb, editor of Editor and Publisher, declared in an interview today that the biggest problem of newspapers today is to "stay alive" in the face of "big increases in taxes and wages together with natural rising costs."

"Although the principle of social security is a fine thing," he added, "at present it is operating to curb employment, although many editors believe they should have larger staffs."

Howard Blakeslee, Associated Press science editor, said that the new interest of the press in science and medicine was protecting the public from falling for many quack cures.

Robb and Blakeslee were among newspapermen here for the dedication tonight of the new journalism building at the University of Minnesota. The building is named for the late William J. Murphy of the Minneapolis who contributed part of the fund to build it.

Ousted Employees Win Tilt in Their Battle for Jobs

Judge Denies State's Motion to Quash Alternative Mandamus Writ

Madison—(AP)—Fourteen former employees of the state department of taxation, discharged in a reorganization move in March, have won a preliminary skirmish in their fight for reinstatement.

Circuit Judge A. C. Hopmann denied yesterday the state's motion to quash an alternative writ of mandamus, requested by the employees, to compel Tax Commissioner Elmer Barlow to reinstate them.

Deputy Attorney General J. Ward Rector said he believed the case would be appealed directly to the state supreme court because further lower court action would be useless.

"The facts in this case are not in dispute," the judge said. "The law can be settled by the supreme court on the basis of the trial judge's order from which I believe we will appeal," Rector said.

Barlow dismissed 57 employees in all, among them 33 married women. Four resigned.

In the trial court arguments, A. J. Biebert of Madison, counsel for 13 of the employees, and Attorney Carl H. Jurgens of Milwaukee, representing Mrs. Minnie Klumb, who was dropped from the Milwaukee income tax office, contended Barlow violated civil service regulations because he ignored seniority rights and stated no cause for the dismissals.

Rector said the bill reorganizing the old tax commission, passed by the 1939 legislature, specifically empowered the new department to select its personnel from the commission staff or in whole or in part from the selective civil service list, and that "this was a case of civil service laws not applying."

Declares Mistrial in Circuit Court Actions

Circuit Judge Joseph R. McCarthy Tuesday declared a mistrial in the two damage actions in which Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester F. Yanggen, 720 Sixth street, Menasha, ask a total of $12,500 from the Wisconsin-Michigan Power company; Roland R. Arndt, Appleton; Mrs. Helen Nooyen, 302 River street, Neenah; and the Workmen's Mutual Casualty company.

The mistrial was declared when Mrs. Yanggen became prostrated during a recess. The defendant attorneys asked that a mistrial be declared because jury members might be prejudiced.

The case which opened Tuesday morning, resulted from a collision of a power company passenger bus and a car driven by Mrs. Nooyen on Aug. 12, 1938. Mrs. Yanggen was a passenger in the bus. She asked $10,000, and her husband $2,500 for her injuries.

Milk Dumped on Highways; Strike Bars Deliveries and the union was that "they want to hold the stake."

He referred to the differential of $2.01 a week between the wages now received by the wagon drivers and the amount the dairies propose to pay under a new contract.

"We're willing to negotiate or arbitrate the scale," Ballard said. "But we've gotten into a silly deadlock over the question of procedure. If that one thing—who's going to hold the money—were settled, milk would be rolling today."

Ballard said the dealers wanted a third party to hold the stake pending settlement of the wage scale, and that they would agree to have it deposited, for instance, in a labor bank.

He said he understood the union chiefs were afraid it would prejudice their case if they accepted the new scale and worked while a contract was being negotiated. The attorney estimated that about $35,000 a week would be placed in a fund for a future division if the union accepted the agreement.

As the situation now stands, there will be no further conferences unless the union has something new to offer, Ballard said. In that event, he said, the dealers would meet with union representatives "promptly."

Council Approves Erb Park as Site Of Swimming Pool

none of them, except Pierce park, has enough ground to provide recreational facilities.

"Erb park has the right atmosphere for a swimming pool; it's a place where families can go for an outing while the children swim. The children can play baseball, horse-shoe, use the swings and make a day of it with their mothers," he said.

Alderman Bogan commended the committee which he said, did not "jump at conclusions but considered all of the possible sites carefully and picked Erb park because of its natural advantages."

After Alderman Bogan's explanation, the council authorized the mayor to appoint a committee to select the type of pool to be built and to find out about costs.

Alderman Franzke asked where the money would come from and Alderman Bogan asked him: "Did you forget the $15,000 we set aside last November for the swimming pool? We can borrow the rest and it won't make any difference in the tax rate."

Alderman Franzke said: "Sure, we can borrow more than that. Our credit is good but the question is, do we want to borrow?"

The council, tired after a long evening of routine, decided to settle that question later.

Cut Down on Outlets Milk Deliveries Continued to Hospitals, Orphanages and Similar Institutions but Virtually All Home Deliveries Have Stopped. Milk Distribution by Union Drivers to Retail Outlets Likewise Has Been Heavily Curtailed

The Chicago Restaurant association said cafes probably had sufficient supplies for a day or two. Milk drivers want a renewal of their old wage scale of $48 per week, plus commissions, while the dealers association insists on a contract of $30 per week, plus commissions.

The Pure Milk association said its 14,500 farmer members in the Chicago milk shed were losing from $50,000 to $60,000 daily because of the strike. It appealed to President Roosevelt, Secretary Perkins, Sec. of War, and state officials for union representatives "promptly."

Battle of Norway Appears To be Going Against Allies But They May Have Last Word

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
New York—(AP)—The battle of Norway which blew up in our faces without warning is still showing sufficient vitality so that it wouldn't be safe to bet a lot that the Anglo-French allies can't put fresh life into it—if they want to know a bit more about what's in the minds of the allied command (and the political leaders) before writing an epitaph for this engagement.

The view this morning remained pretty foggy. Stockholm reported that a new British sea and air offensive appeared to be boiling up to stop German reinforcements from reaching Norway. Norwegian quarters also averred that German withdrawals in the Glomma valley indicated the Nazi communication between Oslo and Trondheim, of which Herr Hitler made so much, had been severed.

Be that as may, one of the things we can see is that the allies have received enough of a knock so that it would seem they must adopt one of two courses immediately. They will have to put on a really big show and try to blast the Hitlerites out of southern and central Norway, or must call it a day and withdraw from that part of the country.

Would Maintain Force
In the latter case they presumably would still maintain an expeditionary force in the Narvik region, way up within the Arctic circle. You know Narvik as the now famous port through which has been passing most of the Swedish iron ore that has gone to keep the German armament factories running.

That's the stuff which found its way into a junk yard. If the allies can cut down the supply of this ore it will greatly lessen the enemy's resistance.

Should the allies adopt the course of continuing to try to oust the Nazis, the logical strategy would seem to be to lay siege to the great port and railroad of Trondheim. That is the key to central and southern Norway.

Obviously with the Germans holding Trondheim and backed by their air force, such an allied assault would be a major operation. It also would be a risky adventure, for it would involve the employment of a large naval and air force.

But you can't play absolutely safe all the time and win wars. The allies will have to risk a lot of lives and valuable equipment if they leave possession of Norway in worth it.

Use Discretion
The martial tradition of England and France is not to quit. But there are times when discretion is the better part of valor. The allies may decide that, since the Germans are so well installed, it would be unsound militarily to try to dislodge them, no matter how great the political and sentimental urge.

I saw a lot of fine fellows die on the battle field in the World War for sentiment. Scores of thousands, for instance, gave their lives to keep the Germans out of the ancient city of Ypres when the place was in utter ruins and had no strategic value.

The allies felt that the moral effect of the loss of Ypres would be bad. Maybe it would have been, but I doubt it. Anyway human life is worth more than was paid for it at hell's fire corner in those days.

Of course Norway isn't Ypres, and there is no doubt that the moral effect of an allied withdrawal would be disastrous. Main concern undoubtedly revolves about Italy. Signor Mussolini talked with American Ambassador Phillips yesterday and was understood to have given the impression that Italy would not make any war move within the next 10 days at least. After that Mussolini's position apparently will depend on the course of events.

Hitler Has Hands Full
If Duce is a smart man, and it's my guess he isn't satisfied that any decisive victory has been won in Norway thus far. Whether an allied withdrawal would convince him that Germany is on the road to winning the war is problematical, but he certainly knows that the war will not be either won or lost in the battle of Norway.

Actually Herr Hitler is likely to pay a fairly heavy price for the advantages which may accrue to him from his Norwegian victory—if that's what it proves to be. He has greatly extended his military commitments at a time when he wishes to conserve his resources to meet the drain of the economic blockade.

He is burning up reserves, especially gasoline which is worth more to him than liquid gold because of its scarcity. He soon will have to feed his army. Norway, just as he will have to care for Denmark, while that blockade keeps on squeezing and squeezing.

The point is that every ounce of power which Germany burns up now, is a contribution to the allied plan of economic strangulation. So maybe the allied command is smarter than they have been given credit for being. Anyway, the allies can console themselves with the thought that it's an ill wind, etc., etc.

Norwegians Gain As Nazis Guard Supplies Sources

tegat yesterday and fought a two-hour battle with German naval vessels during which one Nazi ship was sunk and another set afire.

Word of the naval engagement coincided with Norwegian dispatches asserting that the Germans, unable to maintain their thinly drawn lines of communication in the strategically important Glomma river valley, had withdrawn southward some 35 miles, presumably to await reinforcements.

A Norwegian communiqué also declared the Germans had suffered a defeat at Otta in the parallel Gudbrands valley 20 miles south of the Dombas railway junction and had fallen back with "heavy losses."

Norwegian accounts of the German withdrawal in the Glomma valley indicated a severance of communications between Oslo and Trondheim, establishment of which Berlin announced earlier in the week after reports of sweeping successes.

Yield Key Point
The Germans were said to have surrounded the key point of Roros, at the northern end of the Glomma valley, and to have retired to a position below Tynset, 25 miles further south.

A captured Nazi officer was quoted as saying that the withdrawal was necessitated by a lack of supplies and adequate reinforcements.

Norwegian military authorities said bands of guerrilla fighters composed partly of "foreign volunteers" had been harassing the German supply lines in the valley. It was hinted that the "foreign volunteers" might have included some Swedes, but the Norwegians did not commit themselves on this point.

There apparently was little change in the situation on the Steinkjer front, 50 miles north of Trondheim, or at Narvik, the Arctic port where the allies were reported to have a German force surrounded.

Germany's 'War Chest' Is Estimated at $200,000,000

BY LLOYD LEHRBAS
Washington—(AP)—Germany's secret "war chest," fortified by acquisition of convertible assets in Denmark and Norway, now totals more than $200,000,000, on the basis of estimates by American officials charting the economics of the European war.

The federal reserve bank's figures credit the third reich with only $29,000,000 in gold, but that total has not varied since December, 1937, and officials do not doubt the existence of far greater unreported reserves.

The exact amount of gold and convertible assets Germany may have gained in Denmark and Norway is not yet known to American economists. At the time of Hitler's lightning thrust into Scandinavia, Norway reported $51,000,000 in gold reserves, and Denmark had $53,000,000.

Shipped Gold
Financial authorities pointed out, however, that both nations reputedly had sent large consignments of gold to London for safe-keeping just prior to the German invasion. Norway also shipped $33,000,000 of the metal to the United States during January and February.

President Roosevelt's executive order, meanwhile, has "frozen" Danish and Norwegian assets in this country, preventing their transfer to Copenhagen or Oslo where they might fall into German hands. Preliminary estimates place Norwegian holdings here at $88,000,000 and Danish at $51,000,000.

A large part of Germany's gold resources is believed to have come from seizures made when German troops took over Austria and her $46,000,000 in gold reserves, and Czechoslovakia, which reported $67,000,000 in gold shortly before the end of the campaign.

The Poles managed to spirit their gold stores out of the country barely in time to cheat the conquerors.

Meet Commitments
Although Germany has shipped only $1,318 in gold to the United States since the war started, the reich's commercial commitments are reported to have been met promptly. Officials assume that some German

Miller Is President Of New Phalanx Club

Russell Miller has been elected president of the newly organized Phalanx club at the Appleton Y. M. C. A., it was reported today.

Other officers of the club, composed of former Hi-Y club members who have graduated from high school, are Roland Tracey, vice president; Elmer Laetke, secretary-treasurer; and James Van Ryzin, sergeant-at-arms.

Robert Forsler and Robert Volkman were appointed to the program committee for next week and George Acker, Laetke, and Miller to the initiation committee. The club has 18 members.

Waupaca Man Licensed As Funeral Director

The state board of health announced today it had granted funeral director licenses to 32 of 40 candidates who took the April examination. Among them is A. W. Mueller, Waupaca.

The board said embalmer licenses were issued to 18 of 19 applicants, and that funeral director licenses also were granted to four of five candidates applying under reciprocal agreements with other states.

NEW CITY CLERK TAKES OFFICE

Appleton's new city clerk, Edward E. Sager, is shown above as he sat at his desk on his first day in office, yesterday. Sager replaced Carl J. Becker, who retired to go into accounting work. Sager is not entirely new in city work, however, for he was city treasurer under the commission form of government from 1911 to 1918 and served as secretary of the First Trust company of Appleton and was in the investment and insurance business before his election to his new post. Lloyd M. Schindler, who also started a 2-year term as a city official yesterday, declined to pose for a picture. Schindler replaced Alfred W. Wickesberg. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Report Shows How Money Was Spent in Parks

Improvements Costing $16,000 Were Effectuated in 1939

The annual report of the Appleton Park board showing operating expenses of $18,226.50 and improvements totaling $16,389.50 for 1939 was submitted to the city council last night.

Among the improvements were listed the Pierce park WPA program including the construction of a park building, $10,161.21; Telulah park WPA program, $4,747.83; Lutz park WPA program, $3,544.47; Pierce park pavilion dance floor, $1,075.95; and Pierce park concession stand, $50.24.

The tax levy for regular park operations was $18,000 of which $3,350 was deducted for Pierce park bonds and interest. In addition the council appropriated $11,000 for the WPA program and $500 towards the tennis courts in City park, a total of $20,500. The remaining financing was accomplished by receipts of $4,795.50 from the municipal golf course, concession fees, tree surgery service to private owners, interest on investments and economics effected in operation.

Pierce Park
Major improvements in Pierce park included a 3-story concrete and stone building used for a garage for motor equipment, workshop, storage of equipment and materials, office of the park superintendent and a recreational hall; a stone fireplace, stone drinking fountain a shelter for the well-landscaped, moving and rebuilding the Zuehlke garage for a park concession booth in the pavilion. Telulah park was converted into a first class park last summer. A log cabin, used for a tool house and lavatories, five stone drinking fountains, three stone fireplaces with shelters over each, were built. A pavilion with stone pillars log and shingle roof construction, stone floor and concrete porch also was erected. Fifteen acres of the park were graded, seeded and landscaped. A stone drinking fountain was built at Erb park.

Built Stone Wall
In Lutz park the board built a stone wall and beach on the river front, filled in the land, planted 130 trees, built shelters over the wells and graded, seeded and landscaped the park. A stone drinking fountain was built at Erb park.

Improvements at the golf course included repainting and remodeling of the shelter house and construction of two stone fountains. Several items of playground equipment were added in the parks and a new tractor-mower enabled the board to relieve the park crew of considerable work so more attention could be given to upkeep of the properties.

Gets Permit to Build Home Addition, Garage

George Karnitz, 1914 S. Bouten street, yesterday was given a permit by the city building inspector to build a garage and 14 by 10 foot addition to his house. The garage will be 12 by 20 feet in size. The improvements will cost approximately $800.

A permit to build an addition, 41 feet by 81 feet in size, to his house was given to Harold Hamilton, 18 Winona court. Cost of the improvement is estimated at $275.

Miss Clara Fredericks, 508 N. Durkee street, received a permit to build a garage, 20 by 20 feet in size. The cost is estimated at $100.

Junior Chamber of Commerce To Sponsor 'Clean-Up' Week

The Appleton Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a "paint-up, clean-up, and fix-up" campaign in the city May 13-18, Parker Schultz, chairman, said today.

Other members of the committee are Charles Shannon, Richard Nelson, Ralph Bohl, William Elias, and Thomas Long, Jr.

The Wisconsin State Employment service, schools, radio station, theater and the city administration will cooperate with the junior chamber in the 6-day campaign, aimed at brightening up the city by encouraging residents to do just a bit more than the ordinary amount of spring cleaning and renovating.

About 6,500 "report sheets" will be passed out among school children, who will fill them out jointly with their parents. The sheets carry listings of various kinds of "paint-up, clean-up and fix-up" work that can be done. Residents will designate on the sheets the work that they have done or had done.

F. R. Gehrke, manager of the state employment service, through telephone calls and letters, will remind residents of the campaign and of the fact that the employment office has workers available. About 9,000 stickers have been disseminated in the city, 26 bus posters have been ordered, and four billboard posters will be erected.

New Industry, Locker Plant Storage of Foods, Is Having Rapid Growth in Fox Valley

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—The Fox valley and upper lake shore counties of Wisconsin constitute the center of a new and growing food locker industry, representatives of that business were told here yesterday at a state conference by state government experts.

Rapid and extensive growth in the last few years—from six plants in 1935 to more than 250 today—was cited at the second annual conference of the frozen food locker operators' conference in the college of agriculture campus.

More than 100 plants were constructed during the last 12 months and more are being planned now. Other established plants are expanding their facilities. It was reported that 100 plants have been built in 48 of the 71 counties, and depend chiefly upon rural patronage, renting lockers to farm families for the freezing, storing and preserving of family meat and other supplies.

Large Concentration
According to Martin A. Schaefer, of the university department of agricultural economics, "the largest concentration is found in the upper Fox river valley section and the northern lake shore counties. Here, in six counties, are found 115 plants or 47 per cent of the total. One county, Brown, has 40 plants, a large portion of which are operated as side-lines to cheese factories and other businesses."

Schaefer reported that about one third of the present plants can be classified as complete service plants having locker, sharp-freezer, chill and processing rooms, with a meat cutter in charge, and two thirds are limited service plants which do not retain a meat cutter.

If a conservative estimate is made of the average investment in limited service plants at $12,000, then a total investment exceeding $1,500,000 in all plants in the state is obtained. This large investment value has added considerably to the taxable wealth of the state," the expert pointed out.

There are now about 43,000 separate lockers in the 250 plants, and at the height of the rental season, about 24,000 are in use. The height of the rental season, and last January there was a vacancy ratio of only 10 per cent, according to a recent survey.

Need 300 Lockers
The complete service plants normally have capacities of 300 to 400 lockers. Others, run as unassociated units, have capacities up to 1,000 lockers, it was reported. The typical service plant varies from 300 lockers to 1,000. A capacity of 300 is provided by experts as the minimum for feasible and profitable operation.

Rural patronage is the backbone of the new industry, according to the survey. Only about one fifth of all patronage is represented in persons not living on farms, and about 30,000 of the state's 200,000 farm families, or about 15 per cent, are now renting lockers at plants in their neighborhoods.

Schaefer asserted, however, that "it appears that urban people, especially in the smaller cities, are professing an increasing interest in locker plant storage of foods. However, instead of attracting the patronage of very low income people, patronage consists chiefly of persons of moderate and high incomes. There appear to be several reasons for this. Poor people do not have sufficient funds to pay for a quarter of beef or side of pork at one time and hence are precluded from making wholesale purchases.

"If added to such wholesale purchase cost, the annual locker rental must be paid in advance, then it becomes even more difficult for poor people to use a locker."

Typical annual rental charge for a locker is about $12.00 a year, it was explained.

The locker plants are regulated by state departments for sanitary requirements, and are licensed and inspected by the state department of agriculture and markets. An increasing number of the plants are installing auxiliary processing services, including curing, smoking of meats, rendering lard, making sausage, packing and freezing vegetables and fruits, and slaughter cattle and hogs on farms.

Johns Says State One Of Worst Offenders in Creating Trade Rifts

Post-Crescent Washington Bureau
Washington—Congressman Joseph L. Johns, Algonquin, Republican, as a member of the trade barriers subcommittee of the house conference on unemployment, has just submitted a report to the full committee in which he calls the state of Wisconsin "one of the worst offenders" in building up trade barriers.

"In 1935, Wisconsin was at peace with the south, and for that matter with the rest of the world," he declares. "It is a great dairy state, and a considerable oleomargarine was being shipped into the state, which for some purposes took the place of butter. As a result a bill was introduced to tax oleomargarine sold in the state 6 cents per pound. The south did not object seriously to this and business proceeded as usual, and the tax was paid."

"It was however, a good political issue," Johns continues, "and in 1937 the tax was raised to 15 cents per pound. But few retailers paid the tax. As a result in a very short time small merchants all over the state were owing the state thousands of dollars in taxes."

The net result, Johns states was that "the south began dairying in their own states and quit buying cheese and butter from Wisconsin. Industrialists have told me," he says, "that contracts for goods were cancelled by the south and jobbers refused to buy more goods because of this tax."

The Wisconsin congressman cites many court decisions enacted in various states which have "discriminated" against persons of other states, and stresses "the absolute necessity of something being done about these trade barriers if the states are going to live in peace and harmony with each other."

Specific recommendations by the subcommittee include a demand for uniform motor vehicle laws which, at present, Johns says involve so many "barriers to interstate trade that it would require a volume in itself to cover the different restrictions which are being required by different states through which trucks and motor vehicles are passing." The subcommittee asks, further, that "upon the request of governors of two or more states, the department of state shall offer its services toward assisting such states" to eliminate threatened or existing barriers.

County Teachers Will

The committee in charge of the meeting includes Carmen Kroner, Edith Sievert and Emily Van Zoeland.

Self-Restraint Would Make 2-Term Tradition Permanent

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER

Washington—At last the division, which in the 1938 purge campaign threatened to rend the Democratic party, is ended. Third-term friends of President Roosevelt and the managers of Vice-President Garner's presidential campaign have made a peace agreement, with the consent of the principals, and there is to be no fight over Texas.

Clapper

Both sides will be represented on the Texas delegation to the Chicago convention. The Texas state convention will adopt a resounding pledge of endorsement for the "Roosevelt-Garner" administration. The delegates will go to Garner. It is stipulated in the bond that the Garner candidacy is not to constitute a stop-Roosevelt movement. That is a renunciation of the only meaning the Garner candidacy ever had.

Each side is claiming a victory and that perhaps is the best indication that the agreement is a successful face-saving achievement all around. But, for all practical purposes, it means that the resistance to a third term is ended within the party, and that Cactus Jack is heading for his last roundup under a gentleman's agreement that his six-gun will be loaded with nothing more deadly than blank cartridges.

Mr. Garner remains a candidate, but that is all—a candidate in name rather than in fact. He will have his own state delegation and will get it without being subjected to the noisy third-term agitation in the state convention. On the other hand, the third-termers were heading for defeat in Texas and were destined to have only a nuisance value at best. So they get on the delegation, have the privilege of saying that Mr. Garner is not participating in a stop-Roosevelt movement, and know that in the national convention he can not cause them serious difficulty. The agreement would seem to mean, although that is not explicit in the terms, that Mr. Garner and his Texas delegation have bound themselves not to make a scene at Chicago against a third term.

But He Isn't Talking

Thus only National Chairman Farley is left and he isn't talking very much out loud now. He is practically isolated and is unable any longer to rely upon the vice president as a fighting ally. Mr. Garner has become a "non-belligerent." Very likely this means the end of any significant convention resistance to Mr. Roosevelt — if he wants to run.

As to that number one question, the answer is shrouded in as much ignorance and controversy as ever. Washington fluctuates between thinking Mr. Roosevelt will run and thinking that Mr. Roosevelt won't run. This is he isn't going to run week. There is no more information than before.

I still don't think he will run, although it has been some time since I have had any encouraging evidence. In fact the one earlier obstacle has now disappeared. That was the prospect of a convention fight against a third term, a losing fight to be sure, but one that would be bitter and determined if Mr. Roosevelt pressed the issue.

Only one thing now stands between Mr. Roosevelt and a third term nomination and that is the Sphinx himself. He has demonstrated so very decisively that a good politician in the White House has within his hands the power to perpetuate himself as the party's candidate regardless of tradition, and that the only check against it is the self-restraint of the president. It means that within the party in power, other potential leaders may not aspire to the nomination, or at least have no incentive to work toward it. They are at the mercy of the sitting president. That always has been true at the end of a first term. Now it is seen to be a rule during a second term, and no doubt during a third or fourth term and so on.

Could Entrench 2-Term Idea By Self-Denial

And that situation offers in itself one of the strongest arguments against a third term, one of the strongest reasons why Mr. Roosevelt, even if the European situation is serious, could now strike a most telling blow for preservation of the democratic idea. By a self-denying act, now he would entrench the tradition against a third term so firmly that no future leader, or demagogue, could resurrect it and thereby endanger our democratic process.

Mr. Roosevelt can do much in this hour to rehabilitate the idea that free government rests not upon grabbing and clinging to power but in self-restraint. Self-restraint is an essence of the democratic principle. This is a day when the world desperately needs a shining example of it.

Parents Blamed for Troubles Affecting American Children

Milwaukee—(P)—Miss Fannie A. Smith, one of the three surviving charter members of the Association for Childhood Education, said Wednesday that "teen age American children lacked fear of 'God, man or the devil'."

Miss Smith, who has operated a private school and teacher training institution at Bridgeport, Conn., for 55 years, is attending the association's 47th annual convention.

"The whole trouble with American children," she said, "is that their parents need training."

"American young people are independent in their behavior and mind. They lack responsibility and want to be waited upon. They lack home training in obedience. Schools are giving countless children the only training they get."

Miss Smith said modern parents preferred social life to home and parental responsibilities and asserted that parents' disinterest in their children has left the nation with a disobedient and irresponsible generation.

"Children come to them, but are unwanted," she added. "Parents have little time for them."

Miss Smith said that she has started ed a class in her school for the training of parents.

She expressed doubt that "much could be done" for the present generation of young parents and children but declared "the hope of the world is in the development of children of the future."

Wisconsin Health

BY DR. C. A. HARPER

State Health Officer

To some extent diabetes is preventable just as Wisconsin's 899 deaths from this cause last year form the highest toll in state records.

Last year, for the first time, there were more deaths from diabetes in Wisconsin than there were from tuberculosis. It is high time, then, that we pay heed to the nature of diabetes and to the measures that can be used against its further inroads into the state health.

There are a number of factors which bring about diabetes, but the two leading factors are heredity and obesity. Of course, we cannot choose our heredity. We can remember, however, that it is counting disaster for a diabetic to marry a diabetic, for such mating gives the hereditary characteristic of diabetes altogether too strong a hand.

The control of one's weight is the factor which offers the greatest preventive means against diabetes. Most diabetics are fleshy, and excessive overweight, especially in families with a history of diabetes, should be avoided at all costs.

Insulin, a discovery which has eased the lot of our diabetics, neither cures nor prevents the disease. It can only make it possible for diabetics to live normal lives under certain mild restrictions.

Periodic physical examinations form another important factor in the prevention of diabetes and numerous other organic ailments, and those with a family history of diabetes, or whose weight is excessive, have a special reason for adding this procedure to their list of "musts."

Diabetics and those with a family history of diabetes need to avoid excessive indulgence in sweets, and in addition to dieting this group should exercise and keep mentally relaxed. It should be remembered, too, that diabetes is more prevalent among females than among males.

County Teachers Get Annual Report Blanks

Information and directions regarding final examinations in the rural schools and for the closing of the work for the year along with annual report blanks were sent to county teachers yesterday by Henry J. Van Straten, Outagamie county superintendent of schools.

Examination papers for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be delivered to the plan centers Monday, May 20, and students will write their examinations the following forenoon. Examinations for grades below the sixth will be prepared and given teachers sometime during the final week of school.

The annual reports will include enrollment and attendance records.

British Abandon Southern Drive to Seize Trondheim

aged, three or four cruisers sunk, eleven destroyers sunk, five submarines sunk, and thirty transports and storehouses sunk, scuttled or set on fire with the loss of several thousand lives. In addition, he said, ten probably were sunk.

The losses of the German navy, he said, "were so substantial as to alter the entire balance of naval power" and permitted "an important redistribution of the main allied fleets."

British losses at the same time, he said, were four destroyers, three submarines, one sloop and five trawlers sunk and "five other warships" damaged by air attack. One store ship had been sunk by torpedoing, he said.

Raid On Airframes

While a political storm brewed, British sea and air forces hammered at Germany's routes for reinforcing her army in Norway.

The air ministry said that Norway's largest airport at German-held Stavanger "was bombed twice during daylight hours of yesterday and this airframe, together with other aircraft at Aalborg and Fornebu, was heavily bombed during last night."

Fornebu is Oslo's chief airport and Aalborg is the Danish starting point for German aerial transports. The ministry's communique said the British had suffered no casualties in these forays and had shot down one German plane in an encounter at sea near the Island of Norderney, off the German north coast.

British warships supported by bombing planes were reported in Stockholm to have penetrated the Kattegat yesterday. Shore observers said they had sunk one Nazi transport and set another afire in a two-hour battle with Nazi vessels guarding a convoy.

BERLIN REPORT

Berlin — (AP) — Germany today reported British forces in Norway in a "head over heels" withdrawal in the strategic Ansbach region and the capture of 3,500 Norwegian officers and men by German columns which succeeded in establishing an unbroken line from Bergen to Oslo in southern Norway.

The high command said German vanguards had driven to about 25 miles southeast of Andalsnes, British base 100 miles south of Trondheim, capturing 500 Norwegian troops in the operation as well as "enormous quantities of British supplies" at Dombas, railway junction in the interior southeast of Trondheim.

DNE, official German news agency, in a report from the front later said that fights around Andalsnes "no longer offer a difficult military problem" and a thrust on that base now appears to be one of the main German objectives.

Say Resistance Broken

The agency, which earlier had said the British left Dombas in "headlong flight," asserted the German troops now are breaking the "last vestiges of enemy resistance in the region."

"The opponents' effort to halt the advance of the German troops definitely has failed," DNE said. It asserted that "resistance" was being encountered in isolated spots.

DNE reported that "enemy troops" which last night were about 30 miles northwest of Dombas, near Klevan, were overwhelmed and 300 Norwegians, among the forces covering the British withdrawal, taken prisoner.

In the war on the allied sea power, er, the high command announced the sinking of one British merchant ship, the severe damaging of six others and a hit on the after deck of a cruiser.

Planes Push Attacks

In the air war, it said German warplanes "continued successfully on schedule disturbing and destructive air attacks against enemy landing places" and the shooting down of six British planes.

The high command said the troops which advanced east from Bergen and those from Oslo had joined on the Bergen-Oslo rail line, giving the Germans control of communications over the breadth of southern Norway.

DNE said that northeast of Bergen and northwest of Oslo German forces, which advanced from Oslo had reached Soenne fjord with 300 officers and 3,200 men 200 horses, three mountain guns and 35 machine-guns from the Fourth Norwegian division falling to the Germans.

The capture of 300 additional Norwegians in the Andalsnes region was explained by DNE as a German success after Norwegian forces there had been ordered to cease resistance but continued to fight.

Fred Frank Rehearses Band In Musical Comeback Attempt

Undersheriff Fred Frank, who a few years ago was said to wield "a tuncful baton," will attempt a musical comeback when his band of the Fox River Valley Power Boat association hold their annual meeting and banquet at Castle hall May 14.

Rehearsals were started this week by a number of members of Fred's former orchestra, and he says all the rusty spots in their playing will be gone when the orchestra appears as one of the feature attractions on the boatmen's entertainment program.

Fred admits that his job as undersheriff has caused him to neglect his baton, but adds that he has been practicing diligently the last few weeks on some solo numbers that will send the boatmen home humming the tunes.

The musical undersheriff, who also plays the fiddle, claims he is one of the few orchestra leaders who can play a cornet and at the same

Says War Strain Will Kill Many Americans

Milwaukee — (AP) — Mental and emotional strain and worry over the war abroad undoubtedly will cause an increase in the death of Americans from heart disease, the Wisconsin Osteopathic association heard yesterday.

Dr. Arthur D. Becker, of Des Moines, Ia., told the convention that "millions of Americans fear that we will be drawn into the European conflict, and additionally, the outbreak of the war has increased hatreds, many Americans have against one side or the other."

"Hate and fear have extreme physiological effects," he said. "Tension caused by these powerful emotions causes the heart to beat faster, the minute muscles in the blood vessel walls to contract and the internal organs to labor under pressure."

The Wisconsin osteopath's auxiliary, yesterday elected Mrs. J. I. Young of Beloit, as its president. Mrs. S. P. Stevenson of Milwaukee, vice president, Mrs. L. A. Dennis of Watertown, secretary, and Mrs. L. D. Thompson of Manitowish, treasurer.

Extend Time Limit for Bridge Construction

Washington — (AP) — President Roosevelt approved yesterday ten bills granting authority to five private and public bodies to build bridges across navigable streams and extending the time limit on construction of five other spans.

Time extensions on bridges already authorized were granted on the following:

Across the Mississippi river at or near Dubuque, Iowa, by the Dubuque bridge commission, time for completing extended to July 18, 1943.

Across the Mississippi river at or near Duluth, Minn., by Duluth, time for completing extended to Aug. 7, 1943.

State Acquires Rights to Huge Area From U.S.

Immense Tract Will Become Public Hunting Ground

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — An immense potential public hunting ground in central Wisconsin today is under the control of the state conservation department as the result of a treaty between the state and federal governments recently signed by Governor Julius P. Heil.

The agreement between Madison and Washington transfers to the jurisdiction of the state department about 100,000 acres known as the central nesting area. The land has been in the hands of the federal government as the result of earlier purchases from local residents by the old "resettlement administration."

The tract lies in four counties: Monroe, Jackson, Juneau and Wood, and includes all that formerly held by the resettlement administration with the exception of 40,000 acres near Necedah which the president last year ordered transferred to the federal biological survey as a migratory bird refuge.

Withhold Details

Details of the department's plans in the administration of the huge new tract of public land have not been revealed, but it is known that it will ultimately be designated as a public hunting ground, and developed for that purpose as funds become available. It has been reported, however, that a biologist will be named to supervise game management in the area, and that wardens will be dispatched to protect wildlife and enforce conservation laws.

State acquisition of the big central Wisconsin area has long been advocated by various sportsmen's groups, and recently was recommended by the Wisconsin Conservation congress voluntary advisory auxiliary of the conservation department.

Control by the state of the area marks the conclusion of a long and technical legal dispute between the state and federal governments over the latter's right to control game management within the boundaries

TIRED, NERVOUS PEOPLE May Have SIMPLE ANEMIA

Simple Anemia (deficient quality of the blood) develops so gradually, in many people, that they realize what is the matter only when they are too weak to do their usual work. Without enough hemoglobin to carry a plentiful supply of oxygen and other essential materials, your blood slowly starves your body into an anemic state. The physical resistance of such a body is lowered making you more susceptible to disease.

Lot of Youth Today Is Most Difficult, Demands Patience

BY ANGELO PATRI

There is always friction between the older and younger generations but at present there seems to be more than usual. Conditions of living are unusual, work is scarce, money is hard to get and of less value than it used to be. Heads of families are worried beyond anything known in our experience as a nation. There seems to be more of difficulty than of ease ahead for the young people and that alone would account for the anxiety of their elders and their irritation, so incomprehensible to their children.

Youth lacks experience and age has it. Experience tends to give the elders certain sets of mind and in their anxiety for the safety of the youth they try to impress those sets on their minds and actions. They push hard to help them and because the response is grudging or missing, begin scolding and threatening and nagging.

Why don't you study? If you set your mind on something worth while instead of this nonsense about going here and going there you'd get somewhere. You ought to take a course instead of bothering with fiddling jobs that have no future. Go look for a job intelligently, why don't you? Think somebody is coming up to hand you one? When I was your age I was supporting a family. So on and so on, not meaning to be harsh and irritating but meaning to be helpful.

One must be patient with young people, more patient than ever before because their lot is more difficult. And one ought to be less certain of the suggestions and orders given young people for their guidance. The experience of the past may have benefited the one who had it and it might, if put to use, benefit another, but the hard fact remains that youth must find its own way, make its own way always. The experience that helps inform the mind and discipline the character must be personal. The young people must experiment, fail and succeed and experiment again and again until some way is discovered that leads to success and we must know that success is individual and is not handed down from father to son, from teacher to pupil.

What the young people need and can take from his elders is encouragement for the efforts they make. Too often they meet with criticism instead. Why did you go in for art? Don't you know artists are starving? Maybe he was so full of the idea of art that he could do nothing else. What business have you with chemicals? You don't know anything about chemicals? Where do you expect to get? He doesn't expect to get to any particular place just now. He is feeling his way toward some goal that is hidden from him—and from you—and he is following the inner voice of his being, a much wiser course than following the voice of some loud-spoken well-wisher outside. Praise every effort. Withhold advice and direction until you are asked for it.

Immediate earning is a necessity for most young people today and they are often forced to take work that they dislike. Encourage them. Teach them that no experience in real work is ever lost. It adds its weight of power to the mind and the skill of the worker, and in time, a worker reaches the place of his choosing if he has chosen his own work.

We are not to be troubled by the fact that young people often think of work in terms of dreams. Comfort them when they are shocked by reality and keep before them, and before ourselves, the truth that reality will not harm any of us, especially young people, as long as it is met with understanding and the will to overcome.

Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, enclosing a three-cent stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

New Dealers are Frank in Opposing Walter-Logan Bill

Want to Retain Unrestricted Power in Commissions, Lawrence Says

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington—There is one thing about the young New Dealers who are fighting vehemently to keep the Walter-Logan bill from being passed by the senate and that is their absolute frankness. They want to retain unrestricted power in the commissions, boards and bureaus and they do not hesitate to say so.

For this reason it is interesting to examine perhaps the most forthright explanation that has yet come from the radicals to the methods they use in exercising power under the broad grants of administrative law given them by careless-minded congresses of previous years. The expression in question happens to be written by Abe Fortas, who served for a time as one of the attorneys under the Securities and Exchange commission and later became general counsel for the bituminous coal division of the department of the interior. Mr. Fortas is being prominently mentioned as the probable nominee for the SEC to take the place of George C. Matthews who resigned.

The vacancy is supposed by law to go to a Republican, but since Mr. Fortas is general counsel for the coal division which is presided over by Secretary Ickes, who once upon a time was a Republican, this presumably makes Mr. Fortas a Republican, too. Anyway, the candor which Mr. Fortas revealed when he wrote an article in April 1937 for the Duke University Law Journal may win him at least a recess appointment when congress adjourns. Mr. Fortas described the inside workings of the SEC as follows:

"Wise administrators may, by discussion and analysis, use the requirement of disclosure to educate the registrant's attorneys. Questions and discussion, directed to the accuracy of statements, may raise the possibility that the propriety of a practice is subject to challenge. Subtle appeals to a higher self may cause slight changes in practices. But the limitations of such possibilities are indeed strict. Perhaps the impermissible effect of an agency with high standards may in time permeate the practices of men; but skepticism concerning this possibility is indicated."

"Unless the administrator has effective bargaining power, little can be expected. It must have sanctions or desired favors which it can trade for changes in practices. Once in a while under the Securities act, the administrator will have something to trade. It may have a choice as to whether a particular statement will be considered accurate and complete, or deficient. It may be asked to exercise its discretion, for example, to accelerate the effective date of registration. Then, if the need of the registrant is sufficiently urgent, a trade may be consummated. In return for the favor of the administrator, the registrant may amend its practices in accordance with the administrator's conception of equity and justice."

Delegation of Power

The foregoing may come as a surprise to members of congress who have innocently believed that delegation of power to commissions and bureaus meant an explicit authorization and did not involve trading or bargaining in public rights in accordance with an administrative commission might arbitrarily decide. But the revelation that bargaining is a part of the reform process and that commissions can capitulate to the demands of the powerful is a decision which is or is not "accurate" or "complete" in a registration statement involving the flotation of securities will not come as a surprise to persons who have been up against government bureaus in recent years.

The theory that the end justifies the means and that so long as the objective is a benevolent one almost any liberties may be taken with statutory law represents an entirely different concept of public administration than has been considered morally sound heretofore. The Walter-Logan bill passed the house by a 3 to 1 vote as a protest against the excesses of administrative commissions and while it is true that there are some defects in the house bill they can be corrected without difficulty by senators who really desire to see some measure passed which will really curb abuses in the exercise of public power.

GETS PENSION AID

Miss Marie Ziegenhagen, Outagamie county treasurer, has received a check for $514.73 from the state pension department as reimbursement for administration costs. The total includes $13 for blind pensions, $289.51 for old age assistance and $212.22 aid to dependent children.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful aches people blame on colds or strains are really caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking waste and poisons out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste material stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging headaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show that there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

SHOWING AT RIO THEATER

"Dr. Kildare's Strange Case," worthy successor to the previous films of this romantic series, started a 5-day engagement at the Rio theater today. Lionel Barrymore, Lew Ayres, and Lorraine Day have the leading roles. "Too Many Husbands," a hilarious comedy, is the co-feature on the same big program. Jean Arthur, Melvyn Douglas, and Fred MacMurray are starred in the film which is an adaptation of the famous play by W. Somerset Maugham.

Dinner Party Is Given At Bear Creek Dwelling

Bear Creek—Dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marx and son, Raymond, and Miss Dorothy Walsh of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rank of Manitowoc, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Girmscheid and children and Mrs. Mary Matusczak of Clintonville, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Werner and daughter Mildred of Appleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Suprise have moved to a farm in the town of Deer Creek, which was vacated by the Iverson family.

Banns of marriage were announced Sunday at St. Mary's church by Rev. J. G. De Vries for Miss Josephine Balthazor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Balthazor and Earl Lorge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorge, residents of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller have moved to rooms in the Melvina Malliet home in this village.

The next meeting of the Band Booster club will be held at the high school Tuesday evening.

Members of the Bear Creek Holy Name society of St. Mary's church are planning to attend a deanery Holy Name rally at Waupaca Sunday.

Bolos Shouldn't Complain About Boring From Within

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York—Tom Stokes, the Scripps-Howard Washington reporter, writes from Anderson, S. C., that the Ku Klux Klan is planting its members in unions of the C.I.O. with the purpose of spying on those organizations, gaining control and converting them into company unions.

Well, isn't that the way it was bound to go? The C.I.O. permitted the communists to sneak into their unions under orders from Moscow and with the purpose of gaining control and converting them into communist fronts. Many of those communists are spies who pretend not to be communists but always flock with the communists and follow the party orders as received from Moscow. They are anti-Americans no less than the members of the anti-American bund established here under the auspices of the nazi government's department of foreign organizations. They spy on the business firms which employ them, spy on their fellow-workers, harass and terrorize genuine Americans in the membership of their unions and, by cunning manipulation of voting systems and tireless devotion to Stalin, put American citizens unwillingly and helplessly in the position of endorsing anti-American communist interests by resolutions.

Members of the American Newspaper Guild who intimately observed the operations of this Stalinist organization in New York and in California have seen the communists at work. In New York the communists controlled the elections and the money and savagely abused Americans who dissented from their purposes. They permitted the communists newspaper, the Daily Worker, to impose conditions on its men which would have called for picket lines around the plant of any loyal American publication. In California last fall, the state C.I.O. under communist control, voted to support the so-called ham 'n' eggs plan, which was both idiotic and extremely dangerous not because the communists believed in ham 'n' eggs but because they figured that if it won at the polls and then failed in practice the disappointment of the eligibles and their lazy dependents below the age of 50 would touch off riots up and down the state.

Now Use Threat Of Job Loss Or Fines

Riots breed revolution. That is why the California C. I. O., including the Newspaper Guild, endorsed ham 'n' eggs, even though this measure forbade labor to strike and even though it was a cruel racket whereby a band of political adventurers, some of them with police records, chiseled an enormous graft out of the poverty of hundreds of thousands of gullible Americans in a penny a day plus occasional special assessments of a dime. The Newspaper Guild did not repudiate this endorsement of ham 'n' eggs.

For a long time, in California, the communists of the C. I. O. operated their terror through goons or sluggers, but they now seem to have abandoned such methods in favor of a less spectacular but even more effective terrorism. Now they hold over the Americans the fear of expulsion from their unions, which would mean exclusion from work and, of course, privation for their families. Or they fine them heavily for offenses against the discipline dictated by the communists. Suffering and injustice leave them cold.

So it was bound to come, this use of the communist method of boring from within against the communists, and they should be the last to protest against such methods, although, of course, they will be among the first. Possibly they will counter-attack by planting their members in the Ku Klux Klan, although that seems unlikely, because, with all that the communist and the kluxer have in common, they nevertheless are totally unlike. The communist will talk communism and the kluxer will talk nonsense, and neither can pretend to be the other, although both can belong to a third organization such as a union and fight it out there.

Oddly, there are communists or fellow-travelers in the C. I. O. who wrote with courage and fire against the atrocities of the Ku Klux Klan and its silent, bloodless persecutions back in the '20s, who, in the rise of the communist movement in the C. I. O., advocated or condoned the same methods. The fact that the sufferers would be not so-called corporations only but little, individual, helpless Americans did not abate their enthusiasm for the party line.

There is nothing to choose between the communists and fellow-travelers and the Ku Klux Klan. They both employ the same methods, so neither one provides a refuge from the other. But as between the company union and the union controlled from Moscow there is a choice. The company union is American and wants to live and, living, must provide jobs. The Moscow union is Russian and the mortal enemy of the company and the jobs.

Mrs. Gallaher Heads Town, Gown Club

Mrs. David M. Gallaher was elected president of Town and Gown club at a meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Towle, E. Washington street. Mrs. G. C. East was named vice president and Mrs. Thomas S. Kepler secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Arthur Weston read selections from Alice Stone Blackwell's "South American Poetry" and reviewed "Fray Marro" by H. Douglas Irvine and Don Segundo Sombra by Ricardo Güiraldes. The next meeting will be May 15 with Mrs. Guy W. Carlson and Mrs. W. L. Crow will give the program.

Professor Says Appleton Needs Social Workers

THE absence of trained psychologists, medical and social workers in Appleton was termed by Dr. George Douglas, assistant professor of sociology at Lawrence college, as a vital lack in this community in a lecture on "The Youth of Appleton and Their Needs" before the Appleton branch of the American Association of University Women Wednesday night at Russell Sage hall.

Dr. Douglas recently conducted an investigation of the problem of juvenile delinquency in Appleton with the assistance of several advanced students in sociology, among them three Appleton girls, Miss Rosemary Mull, Miss Jean Kofend and Miss Alyce Jane De Long. The Appleton Rotary club suggested the investigation.

A study of juvenile court records, Prof. Douglas said, showed two periods of an exceptional amount of delinquency. The first was in 1930 and 1931 and the second in 1937 and 1938. Dividing the cases by wards showed that six wards, the Sixteenth, Twelfth, Fifth, Eighth, Thirteenth and Eighteenth, accounted for almost 50 per cent of the local delinquency since 1925. During the same period the wards with the least delinquency were the Second, Seventeenth, Fifteenth, Eleventh, Ninth and Fourth.

The causes of juvenile delinquency seem to fall into two groups, Dr. Douglas continued. "First, there appears an almost universal opinion that the parents are not assuming their responsibility in teaching their children the proper social attitudes and social behavior," he said. "One grocer indicated he could do little with the problem children who came to his store because the parents were his best customers. Another explained that he had called the attention of the parents to their child's petty thievery in his store and was told the child would receive a spanking. However, there was no diminution of the problem."

A second source of juvenile delinquency is to be found in certain community situations, the speaker went on. He charged that in some sections of Appleton and the vicinity between 12 and 20 per cent of the mothers of school children were working and that those children had therefore virtually no parental supervision. Dr. Douglas suggested that Appleton would be money ahead if it had trained probation workers helping the delinquent or potential delinquent to go straight, and that it might be a saving to the taxpayers in Appleton, as it has been in other cities, to introduce a public supervised play program.

Phi Beta Kappa Will Initiate New Members

The five Lawrence students recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa will be initiated at a banquet at 645 Friday evening in Ormsby hall at which Dr. Richard O. Cummings, assistant professor of history, will be the principal speaker.

The new Lawrence members of Phi Beta Kappa are Dorothy Young and Fred Swamer, Appleton; Sheldon Spencer, Williams Bay; Howard Darling, Sheboygan; and Warren Howland, Chicago.

Convention highlights will be a talk by Mrs. A. L. Blackstone, Waukesha, dean of General Federation directors, entitled "Contagious Royalty," an address by Jens Jensen, famous landscape architect, on 400 in Procession At Rally of C.Y.O.

Seven hundred persons witnessed the coronation of the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary by Miss Margaret Alesch, May queen of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, at a May day service and Catholic Youth Organization rally for Outagamie deanery last night at St. Joseph's church. Nearly 400 young people took part in the procession from the parish hall to the church preceding the service. Assisting Miss Alesch were her attendants, Jeanne Milhaupt, Gloria Strover, Betty Dougherty and Anna Schaefer and Germaine Quella as flower girl.

New members were received into the sodality and the Junior Holy Name society, and benediction followed.

The young people adjourned to the parish hall where a program of tap dances by Miss Marie Zapp and her pupils was given, and a burlesque radio show entitled "Murder in Rhyme" was presented by Miss Cole Speel, Miss Mary Clare Vandenberg, Miss Genevieve Schaefer, Robert Otto and Robert Feuerstein. Dancing followed.

Former Students at Lawrence to be Wed

Variety of Original Acts Make Up Senior Vaudeville

SENIORS of Appleton High school—more than 150 of them—put their best talents forward Wednesday afternoon and presented one of the most original of a long series of senior "vodvils." About 1,000 students and 100 adults saw the show. Miss Ruth McKennan, head of the speech department, directed the acts with the assistance of Miss Kathryn Fralish, speech instructor, and Jack Burroughs, art instructor.

Tom Nolan as the master of ceremonies was genial and urbane in his "fish and tails." He did a competent piece of work in tying the varied acts together. Down in the pit Bob Sager directed what is reputed to be the best "vodvil" band in the history of the show. His players were Bob Wilch, George Dear, Morris Bleick, Fred Trezise, Vernon Hoffman, James Graham, David Bliss, John Bergstrom and Edward Du Sett. General manager was John Hammer. Margaret Albrecht, Betty Schneider, Lashell Atcherson and Gloria Gill took over the work of costumes and properties. James Kosi did an effective bit of stooping for Nolan.

Minuet Opens Show

The show opened with a graceful number, "Minuet Moderne." In the dance were Helen Jane Melby, Helen Lutz, Ethel Rademacher, Alice McCarter, Betty Roemer, Amy O'Neil, Jean Heolzer, Mary Kay O'Keefe, Nathalie Schmidt, Lillian Melz, Bunny Becker, Betty Schneider, Marjorie Henry and Marion Morrow. Miss Melby directed. Donald Bohl and Bertha Smyrnes, driving on the stage in a small automobile, enacted a "Starlight Rendezvous."

Coach William Pickett directed some fancy dumbbell swinging. The boys who flashed the iridescent bells were Kenneth Gertsch, Al Sager, Robert Ertl, Tom Reider and Robert Dettman. Don Heinrich and Robert and blond wig did a Dutch clog with William Stach. They were directed by Miss Eileen Hammerberg, physical education instructor. An exotic harem scene was "Allah, Allah!" Cole Speel did an original dance and her singing background consisted of Mary Vandenberg, Marion Rehlander, Rosemary Plusher, Beryl Chad, Marian Runce, Ruth Goodrick, Elmyra Bohneke, Ramona Yohr, Mildred Stach, Elaine Smith, Fern Barth, Benice Brouillard, Margaret Ertl, Irene Schleutwiler, Elsie Tkachuk and Ellen Van Rooy, instructor.

A tap dance routine, "School Days," was presented by Joan Foxgrover and Helen Jane Melby. Jeanne Ruhling coached an original drama, "The Way of Wun Wey." In the cast were Rene Utischig, Mary Pat Schulz, Ralph Kampas, Ardise Peters, Walter Utischig, Orville Brockman, Kenneth Eichow, Curtis Schoof, Robert Kettnerhofen, and Robert Tauson. Mabel Simon, Pat McGiligan, Betty Strobl, Betty Rindal, Doris Rehmer, Joyce Nutting, Jane Simon and Jerry Cumber did a "Dead End" scene. They were coached by Bohl. "Night and Day" was Howard Mass' solo. Mary Jane Veitwey was the pretty recipient of his song and Ruth Gust was his accompanist.

The Lone Ranger story designed to end all Lone Ranger stories was presented by Chuck Rollins, Olin Mead, William Mullen, Robert Kessler, Robert Scherzinger, Tom Reider, Robert Jynne, Ray Brash, Mary Vandenberg, Ted Heid Constance Vaughn, Patricia Connelly, Donald Smith and Naomi Negebauer. John Hammer and Nolan directed and wrote the dialog. Some "Synecopated Saps" in gay noddies garb were Mary Jane Thomas, Miss Ruhling, Miss Atcherson, Elizabeth Wood, Genevieve Schaefer, Geraldine Man-

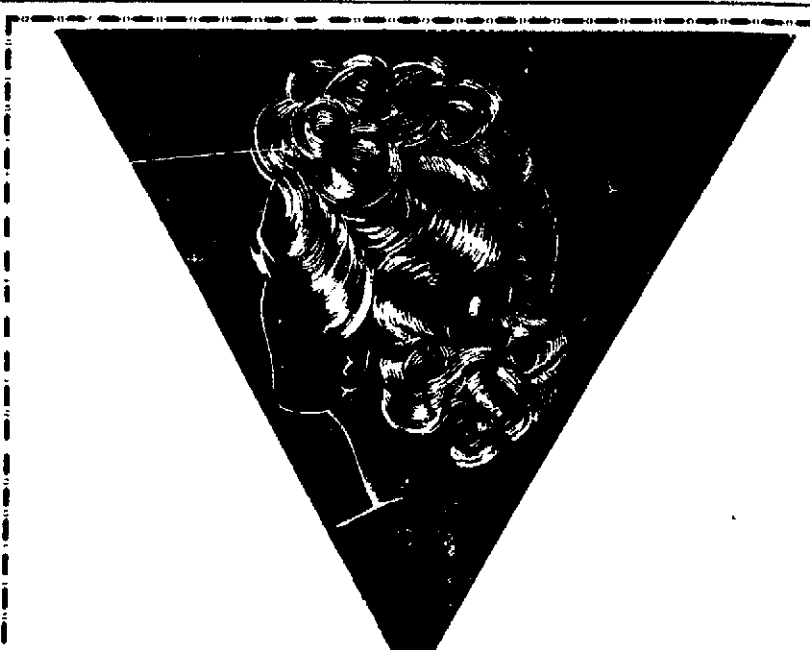

Wives of Chorus Men Will be Entertained At Tea During Parley

Ladies who accompany members of the Wisconsin Association of Male Chorus in Appleton Sunday for the annual state "sing" will be entertained at tea at the Elks club in the afternoon while the men are holding a rehearsal for the evening concert at Lawrence Memorial chapel.

On the committee for the tea are the following wives of Appleton MacDowell Male chorus members: Mrs. Armin Albrecht, chairman; Mrs. Ben H. Russell; Mrs. Wilmer Speel; Mrs. Karrol Rimond; Mrs. Melvin Knoke; Mrs. A. W. Wickesberg and Mrs. A. H. Falk. Miss Otto-Tank is general chairman of the ladies' reception committee. About 100 out-of-town women are expected to be guests.

Appleton MacDowell Male chorus is acting as host to the fifth annual state concert in which eight choruses will participate.

Instead of the conventional muller in the throat of her suit, Cecilia Parker wraps a muller in gay brown and white around her neck and ties it in a huge bow in front. The actress wears this scarf with a beige herringbone tweed suit.

Newly elected officers will conduct the meeting and act as a committee for the social hour. They are Alvin H. Falk, president; James D. Reeder, vice president; Mrs. Reno Doerfler, secretary-treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Schneider, membership committee; and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Spindler, directors.

St. Agnes Guild of All Saints Episcopal church will sponsor a dessert-bridge at 2:30 next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. S. Powell, 508 N. Vine street, for members and their guests. Mrs. R. K. Wolter will take reservations.

Mrs. George Lausman, 721 W. Harris street, will be hostess to Women's Christian Temperance Union at 2:30 Friday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Dallas Jansen, Mrs. John Stecker and Mrs. Hillard Weiss won prizes at games at the social meeting of Zion Lutheran Mission society Wednesday afternoon in the parish school auditorium.

Mrs. Charles Bohl spoke on her recent trip to California at the meeting of Mt. Olive Ladies Aid society Wednesday afternoon at the church. About 155 women were present including members of the Ladies Aid societies of Mt. Calvary Lutheran church, Kimberly, and Trinity Lutheran church, Kaukauna.

The Rev. Paul T. Oehlert, pastor of the Kaukauna church, spoke briefly as did Mrs. Otto Tritton, president of the Kaukauna Ladies Aid, and Mrs. M. Freiler, president of the Kimberly society.

Helen Jeanne Babb Will be June Bride

The approaching marriage of Miss Helen Jeanne Babb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Babb, 1103 N. Harrison street, to Braxton Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Calhoun, Oshkosh, was announced at a dinner-bridge party last night at the home of Mrs. Babb. The wedding will take place June 15. Twenty-eight guests were present.

Prizes at auction bridge were won by Miss Evelyn Wunderlich and Miss Grace Bitter, in contact by Miss Bonnie Fletcher and Miss End Bro and at Chinese checkers by Miss Anne Kerkhoff, Kimberly. Other out-of-town guests were Miss Katherine Van Leshout, Kimberly; Mrs. Herbert Meyer, Mrs. Blanche Kitzinger, Neenah; and Mrs. Heloise Whitman, Kaukauna.

Confirmation Will be Held at St. Matthew's

Sixteen children of St. Matthew Lutheran church will be confirmed at a service at 8:30 Sunday morning at the church. They are Violet Spreeman, Bernadine Behm, Phyllis Schulz, Verna Ruckert, Lois Bergmann, Anita Bachmann, Marjorie Huth, Leland Johnson, Maylin Bergmann, Darrall Betke, Edward Meyer, Melvin Kuschel, Howard LaBresch, Harold Haak, James Lopez and Bert Guenther.

The cantor choir will sing "Be Thou Faithful" by Leutz.

IRISH BLARNEY

Butte, Mont. — (U. S. —) Defendants O'Callaghan and O'Keefe were charged with vagrancy and "Guilty, yer honor," said O'Callaghan with Dublin accent. "I'm a bum by trade and I've roamed the world and never a better town than Butte have I seen. It's the finest in the land and the people are the finest outside of Ireland. Your Honor, sir."

"It looks like you're trying to talk yourself into staying here about 30 or 60 days," said Judge Louis Buckley, scratching his chin.

"No, Judge, Your Honor," said O'Callaghan. "I've had my fun and I'll be on my way. Let somebody else enjoy this fine town."

O'Keefe said the same sentiments were his, too.

Defendants O'Callaghan and O'Keefe went their way.

Paul Eastwoods, Leaving to Make Home at Niagara Falls, Honored at Farewell Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Eastwood, 1528 N. Division street, who will make their future home in Niagara Falls, N. Y., have been honored at a number of farewell parties during the last week. Mr. Eastwood, a chemist at Kimberly-Clark corporation at Kimberly for the last 10 years, has been transferred to the Niagara Falls plant of the corporation. He will leave Friday to begin his new duties, and Mrs. Eastwood will leave that day for a visit with her sister in Antigo before joining her husband in the east.

Last night Mr. Eastwood was honored at a stag party at the Kimberly clubhouse given by about 50 of his fellow workers and Mrs. J. Glenn Strieby, 618 E. Currie street, gave an evening party for Mrs. Eastwood. Eight guests were present at the latter party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wollwage, 533 N. Division street, were host and hostess at dinner Tuesday evening at their home for the Eastwoods, eight guests being present. Bridge was played during the evening. The preceding Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fleck, 211 N. D'ew street, entertained 12 guests at dinner and bridge in honor of the couple.

Mrs. Walter Roehr, 112 N. Superior street, is entertaining at a luncheon today for Mrs. Eastwood.

Eight tables of contract bridge were in play at the Knights of Columbus tournament last night at Catholic home. North and south winners were Dr. and Mrs. William G. Keller, first and Mrs. Sophia Douglas and Mrs. Thomas Long, second, while the winners for east and west were Mr. and Mrs. William Goenen, first and Mrs. Fred Slip and John N. Schneider, second. There will be another tournament next Wednesday night at Catholic home.

The fifth of a series of card parties will be sponsored by the Catholic Mothers society of St. Mary church at 2:30 Friday afternoon at Columbia hall. Winners at the fourth party last week were Mrs. John Burke and Mrs. William Vernachek at bridge and Mrs. Ed Glasnap and Mrs. C. Kaufman at schafkopf. Mrs. Matt Crowe received the special prize.

Mrs. Walter Bell won the grand prize at bridge and Mrs. Steve Uttschig at schafkopf at the last of a series of card parties sponsored by Christian Mothers society of St. Theresa church Wednesday afternoon at the parish hall. Prizes for the day were won at bridge by Mrs. Frank Schubert and Mrs. William Schultz and at schafkopf by Mrs. John Brock and Mrs. Joseph Kohl. Tom Hayes won the special prize. A new series will begin next Wednesday with Mrs. A. Thibodeau and Mrs. John Brock in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mace, Neenah, were co-chairmen of the May day dance of the Menasha club last night in the club rooms at Menasha. About 50 couples attended. Others on the committee were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. John Studley, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Canavan, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Williams, Neenah; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilkinson, Appleton; and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb, Kimberly.

Twelve tables of cards were in play at the vintage day party of Ladies Auxiliary of Eagles Wednesday afternoon at Eagle hall. Schafkopf prizes were won by Mrs. Roy Austin, Mrs. Ferdinand Jacobs and Mrs. Julius Lenz, bridge prizes by Mrs. August Haeberle and Mrs. Blanche Grush and dice awards by Mrs. W. S. Hillman and Mrs. Henry Wegner.

About 250 young people will attend the formal dance that a group of 25 girls from the sophomore class at Appleton High school will give Friday night at Castle hall. Hostesses at the party will be the Misses Regina Scholtz, Peg Rohan, Betty Stevens, Ruby Loose, Marce Sylvester, Dolores Herrie, Shirley Fox, Marjorie Rogers, Pat Thwing, Alice Campbell, Rita Lutz, Florence Schaefer, Mary Trezise, Pat Carroll, Jane Rand, Betty Greb, Rosemary Scholtz, Virginia Schuh, Lois Schaefer, Nancy Balhet, Rita Moraw, Jane Fumal, Joan Green, Joyce Kessler, and Mary Lou Collins. The hostesses and their dates will have a punch party at Mrs. Pat Carroll's home on W. Prospect avenue before the dance.

Eight Teams Left in Debating Tournament

Terre Haute, Ind. — (U. S. —) Eight teams meet here today in the quarter finals of the national high school debating tournament held in connection with the tenth annual convention of the National Forensic League. They are the survivors of three-score that entered the competition Monday.

The quarter final pairings are: Sioux City Ia. versus Chippewa Falls Wis. Muskogee Okla. versus Watertown S. D.; Caldwell, Idaho versus Du Quoin, Ill.; Bristol Okla. versus Benson of Omaha Neb.

A recapitulation of winners showed exactly 50 remaining in the various oratorical contests out of 1200 entered originally.

The national champions will be chosen in semi-finals and finals Thursday and Friday.

U. S. Regulation Of Business Will Continue: Crowley

FDIC Chairman Says Economic System Makes Rules Necessary

Milwaukee — (U. S. —) "Regardless of the administration that happens to be in power, the trend will continue to be toward more extensive government regulation" of business, Leo T. Crowley, chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation, told a Marquette University Commerce club dinner last night.

"One of the most popular past-times is noisy and vigorous opposition to the interest of government in the activities of business," he declared. "It annoys me to see so much valuable energy wasted in tilting at windmills."

"As the whole economy grows and with it individual business becomes larger and more complex—as competition for available purchasing power grows more intense and margins of profit shrink—there occurs a gradual extension of government supervision of the broad policies of management, a growth of government activities designed for the protection of consumers and of labor, a more rigid control of the source of raw material, of the processes of manufacture, and of the presentation of products to the public."

Crowley asserted that "everyone with a knowledge of the business and financial history of the country must admit that every extension of government regulation results from some abuse of their privileges by business men."

The goal of our economic thought and purpose of all of our legislation are promotion of a steadily improving standard of living and the stabilizing of factors that effect the prosperity of business enterprises.

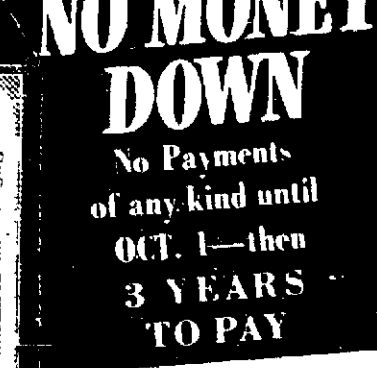

He added that "the wage and the hour standards are the two most important factors in the economic picture."

While the senate continued debate on the bill to stop the treasury's program of buying foreign silver, President Garner predicted that congress would adjourn by June 8.

Democratic leader Barkley said that administration might come before that date, and Republican Leader McNary expressed a similar view. The latter added that Republicans were eager to get away early so that they could gather in Philadelphia in advance of their party's June 24 convention.

U. S., Cherry Industry Officials See Agreement

Washington — (U. S. —) Department of agriculture officials said yesterday that a general agreement was reached with representatives of the red cherry industry looking toward modification of regulations on cherry standards.

Thomas A. Sanderson and Karl Reynolds, both of Surgeon Bay, Wis., assured the department's food and drug administration that the cherry industry would drop a suit it started in the circuit court of appeals at Chicago.

When the cherry standards were originally established, the cherry industry protested but a petition was rejected. It then started its court action to force a change.

New conferences with the department resulted in the "compromise" proposals. The department refused, however, to consider setting new hearings on the proposed modification—principally to permit alternative use of the word "tart" or "sour" in labeling red pitted cherries—until the court action was abandoned.

He circulated among house members a petition to take the bill from the house agricultural committee and send it to the house for action. The petition must be signed by 213 members to be effective.

Hull Wants Action on His House Proposal

Washington — (U. S. —) Representative Hull (Prog.-Wis.) sought today to force house action on his bill to make darning a basic commodity under the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

He circulated among house members a petition to take the bill from the house agricultural committee and send it to the house for action. The petition must be signed by 213 members to be effective.

EDISON PUPILS OBSERVE CHILD HEALTH DAY

A program in observance of National Child Health Day, May 1, was presented by fifth graders of Edison grade school yesterday. The scene above was part of one of the short plays presented and shows a cow, constructed by the pupils, doctors, a nurse and a milkman delivering milk. The children wrote their own plays and planned the program. The teacher is Miss Agnes Jolin. Left to right in the picture are Billy Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Griffith, 910 E. Pacific street, a health officer in the play; Joe Benton, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Benton, 207 N. Drew street, a dentist; Edward Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Barber, 1212 N. Lemniah street, a milkman; Roger Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Krueger, 730 E. Atlantic street, a dentist; and Virginia Deitman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deitman, 516 N. Picture of May: Snowflakes and Slushy Streets

Temperatures Will Rise Friday; 35 Degrees In City Today

Golfers and fishermen of Appleton and vicinity were grumbling today about a system that deprives a fellow of snow on Christmas day and then throws a handful of it in his face May 2.

The snow that began whirling down on the countryside yesterday afternoon was still falling this morning and early afternoon. Its rate of melting was not fast enough to prevent lush from forming shoe deep on streets and sidewalks, and it placed a new carpet of white over lawns and roofs.

It doesn't sound reasonable, but snowflakes trundled out of the Outagamie county highway garage this morning to clear highways of slush and snow. The Green Bay division of the state highway department reported 2-foot drifts at scattered points in Manitowish and Calumet counties.

Weather charts indicated fair and somewhat warmer weather is on the way. In Appleton, the temperature did not match the mid-February appearance of the blizzard. The thermometer atop the Post-Crescent registered 35 at 12:30 this afternoon. Yesterday's high was 42. The minimum was 29 above at midnight.

Estimates on Appleton's snowfall ran around four inches. Robins didn't know what to do with themselves this morning. For the 24-hour period ended at 9 o'clock this morning, the precipitation in moisture was .52 of an inch.

Good For Crops
J. F. Magnus, county agricultural agent, said the snowfall will not harm crops in this area. On the contrary, the moisture is beneficial, he said. About the only inconvenience it will cause is to delay seeding for some of them.

Manitowish reported a snowfall of four inches, an all-time high for the county for May, and several cars were reported stalled after midnight within a 15-mile radius of that city.

Light snow probably will continue falling in this vicinity tonight. The Milwaukee bureau reported snow in Milwaukee, where the minimum temperature was 31, as well as in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. There was rain at Madison.

LaCrosse reported cloudy skies, but the sun was shining a few miles west in Minnesota.

In Milwaukee, the snow started yesterday morning, and continued throughout the night. An inch of snow covered the city this morning, but that which fell later in the day melted as it touched the ground.

$1,500 Damage in Betz Plant Fire

Blaze Starts in Garage Section of Distributing Firm Building

Damage of about $1,500 was caused by a fire in the garage section of the Betz Distributing company building, 108 S. Pierce avenue, last night. The fire was discovered at 10:56 and its cause is unknown. The fire department put out the blaze and was at the plant for about an hour. Damage to the building was estimated at $300 and to stock of groceries and similar merchandise at $1,200.

for a good meringue. Clorox and Chalmers take stuns out of flour sacks, she responded to another question, and the way to get a sponge cake out of a tin without the brown part sticking on the tin, she told another woman, is to turn the pan over and let the cake fall on a rack, rather than to lift the cake out.

Offering valuable suggestions as she made the Banbury tarts, Miss Ferguson said that the pastry should never be wet enough to stick to the mixing bowl and that covering a rolling pin with the leg of a white baby stocking prevents the pastry from sticking to it.

Between visits from representatives of the Riverside Greenhouse with flowers, Johnson's Shoe Rebuilders with a pair of her white shoes, the Badger Pantry with a coat and uniform she had cleaned and Gloumians and Gage company with several inexpensive house dresses, Miss Ferguson showed a cool and refreshing looking molded cucumber salad which she and her assistant had made earlier to demonstrate to the women, and a roast chicken, also made earlier because her time on the stage is limited.

How to taste them with coca-cola to give it a new flavor and a lovely shiny appearance, how to cook a chicken in a shroud of muslin, how to make a nutmeg sauce for the apple pandowdy and even how to wash dishes were included in the morning's program.

An organ program by Mrs. Harold Ferron preceded the opening of school, and at the end of the cooking demonstrations Tom Temple and his orchestra played their daily 1-hour program. Among this morning's selections were "Leaning on the Old Top Rail," "The One Rose," "My Buddy," "If It Wasn't for the Moon," "Somebody Stole My Gal," "Scatterbrain" and "When You Wish Upon a Star." Bob Lee again did the vocals and Ray Weckwerth was the accordion soloist.

Receives Major Gift
To Mrs. Roland R. Arndt, 1926 S. Bouten street, the morning was especially profitable, for she received the day's major gift, a Cooler from the Lutz Ice company.

Other gifts went to Mrs. John Marshall, 1209 N. Division street, who received a case of coca-cola from the Coca-Cola Bottling company, a serving fork from Goodman's Jewelers and five pounds of Betsy Ross flour, ABC Super market; Mrs. John Hannan, 908 W. Fifth street, the muffins Miss Ferguson made; Mrs. Henry Hansen, 512 E. Franklin street, bottle of furniture polish, Appleton Glass and Paint store, serving fork from Goodman's and meat from Hopfensperger Brothers, Inc.; Mrs. Herman Schabo, route 3, Appleton, one complete woman's shoe rebuild, Johnson's Shoe Rebuilders; and meat, Hopfensperger's; Mrs. M. Scholt, 210 E. Fremont street, one gallon ice cream from Gordon Ice Cream company, meat from Hopfensperger's and one-half gallon of Clorox.

Ann Williams, Little Chute, Health-O-Meter scales, Schlafer Hardware company; Mrs. Charles Sporch, 1601 N. Clark street, meat from Hopfensperger's; Mrs. Frank Caffey, Kimbely, meat from Hopfensperger's; Mrs. E. J. Hoffman, 1425 N. Superior street, 49-pound sack of Betsy Ross flour, ABC Super market.

Mrs. Robert Pannan, route 3, Appleton, one gallon ice cream, Gordon Ice Cream company, meat from Hopfensperger's and one-half gallon of Clorox and meat from Meulemans, Little Chute, one-half gallon of Clorox and meat from Hopfensperger's; Mrs. Ted Radtke, 1525 N. Oneida street, one free cleaning, Badger Pantry; Mrs. Clarence Boye, 333 Parkway boulevard, one ton of Clift Coal Block; Anna Goodman, 532 Milwaukee street, Meinke 6-pound can of Spicy and giant box of Rups, Laver Brothers; Mrs. Robert Fumal, 909 N.

Superior street, the chicken Miss Ferguson had prepared; Mrs. L. Koller, 1026 W. Lawrence street, the salad Mrs. Ferguson had prepared; Mrs. Harold Buck, 1124 N. Richmond street, one house dress, Gloumians and Gage company; Martha Sitts, 1340 W. Wisconsin avenue, and Mrs. William Nohr, 215 S. Weimer street, fur stonages at Kretsch's and Gust's.

Bushel baskets filled with food were received by Mrs. Ray Dinesen, Little Chute; Mrs. George Thiel, 561 Racine street, Menasha; Mrs. May Evers, Little Chute; Mrs. O. Luebke, route 3, Appleton; Mrs. P. Zuchke, 1700 N. Appleton street; Mr. John Walter, 128 N. Richmond street; Mrs. M. Kettnerhofen, 803 S. Mrs. John Bule, 608 W. Eighth street, and Mrs. Matt Crowe, 814 S. Mason street, both of whom said they had traded with Hopfensperger Brothers, Inc. for 60 years, received large hams from that concern.

Feeder Mains Not Adequate to Take Care of New Load

Commission Denies Water Service to Buchholz District

The request of the Buchholz Sanitary district for water service was denied by the Appleton Water commission at a meeting yesterday. The commission contends that the feeder mains which feed city water to the south side of the city adjacent to the sanitary district are not adequate to handle the increased load.

The commission's recommendation will be mailed to the city council which will make the final decision. The Buchholz district has sewer service under a contract with the city but has no water except that obtained from wells.

The commission heard a report submitted by W. U. Gallaher, purification plant superintendent, of the American Water Works association convention at Kansas City April 22-25.

A change in the form of commission checks was ordered to cooperate with the city, which in the future will use a check-signing machine. The change is necessary so that all the signatures can be affixed to the check by the machine. Water commission checks carry the signatures of the commission chairman and secretary, the city clerk and the city treasurer.

Car, Trailer Damaged In Collision on 76

A car driven by Howard Wunderlich, 21 route 1, Hortonville, and a trailer being pulled by the car of Arthur Marshall, 65, rural route, Rhineland, sideswiped on Highway 76 a mile north of Greenville during the snowstorm about 7:30 last night. Wunderlich was going south and Marshall north when the collision occurred, according to Ronald Draker, Outagamie county traffic policeman.

Salvation Army's Campaign Fund Is Near $2,000 Mark

Peterson - Murphy Division Still in Lead; Meet Again Tonight

Contributions to the annual appeal of the Appleton chapter of the Salvation Army reported at last night's meeting of leaders and workers in the Y.M.C.A. neared the $2,000 mark.

The four divisions last night turned in cash and pledges amounting to $1,805.05, almost the half-way mark in the drive to raise $4,000 for the Salvation Army's social service, religious, and character-building work.

Adjutant T. A. Rabe reported this morning that the total for last night is nearly $50 more than at the corresponding stage in last year's drive. William L. Crow, general chairman, was a speaker at the evening meeting, attended by about 35 leaders and workers.

Another dinner meeting will be held tonight at the Y at which division heads and workers will again turn in their contributions. The women's division, headed by Mrs. Clara McGowan and Mrs. R. H. Kubitz, moved from fourth to second place in last night's accounting. The division led by R. L. Peterson and Dr. Leo J. Murphy is first. The E. W. Shannon-George Hintz division is third and the Rev. G. H. Blum-Louis Waltman, Jr., division is fourth.

George Werner, director of the campaign, said today that card limit "goes off" Friday morning and from then on workers are free to seek contributions from the general public.

Depositions Mailed For Use in Murder Trial on West Coast

Milwaukee — (P) — Depositions from three witnesses were air-mailed today to Long Beach, Calif., for use in the trial next Wednesday of Theodore R. Girmschied, 27-year-old former Milwaukeean charged with first degree murder in a slaying there last March 21.

Girmschied is accused of the fatal shooting of Harry Dale, night clerk at the Pacific Coast Club of Long Beach.

The witnesses testified before Circuit Judge Roland J. Steinle here yesterday concerning the mental condition of Girmschied following an accident Dec. 28, 1938, in which his motorcycle collided with an automobile. The youth was in a hospital for 11 weeks suffering from a head injury, and a fractured leg and pelvis.

Girmschied's former employer, Raymond B. Lorch of Wauwatosa, told Steinle that Girmschied had been a "very high grade worker" and a capable trustworthy employee during 1938-39, but that he became "irresponsible" after the accident.

Democrats Favorable To Harmony Meeting

Green Bay — (P) — John D. Kehoe, chairman of the Brown county Democratic committee, said today he had received "favorable" response to invitations he sent out to county party chairman inviting them to attend a harmony meeting at Madison on May 11.

STRIKE PARALYZES MILK DELIVERIES

A strike of approximately 6,000 dairy employees halted most home deliveries of milk in the Chicago metropolitan area while organized farmers appealed to President Roosevelt and other officials to bring about a truce. Here Shirley Roe (left) and Frances Byl get gallon jugs of milk in over-the-counter purchases. The strike was called after failure to reach a new wage scale contract.

Ile de France Sails on First Mission Since Opening of War

New York — (P) — A pretty girl, waving a dainty handkerchief from decks loaded with warplanes, put a dash of peacetime gaiety into the sailing of the Ile de France, the great French liner which plowed the Atlantic today toward some belligerent port.

Three thousand well-wishers were stirred to voluble delight at dusk yesterday when a sharply bunnetted in blue appeared on the liner's bridge and waved adieu as the ship departed from its Staten Island pier. Loaded with copper ingots, brass bars, oil and crated airplanes, the "eel" carried two passengers, whose names were not disclosed, but who were described as a member of a French purchasing commission and his 16-year-old daughter.

Capt. Herbert Fontaine, who brought the vessel in to New York last Sept. 8, was in command as the "floating art gallery"—now stripped of her luxurious furnishings—set out on her first mission since the war began. She was manned by a crew of 375.

The ship's destination was veiled in secrecy. Some thought she might sail to Halifax, there to trans-ship her cargo and then head for Australia for troop transport duty. Others speculated on the possibility she might dash straight for Europe with her valuable cargo.

Unlike her British predecessors in war duty, the Queen Mary and Mauritania, the Ile de France was not painted completely gray, but with the French flair for the colorful she sported black funnels and hull and a pastel blue-gray superstructure.

Only the French Normandie and the British superliner, the Queen Elizabeth, of the giant passenger ships which originally sought haven in New York, remain in port.

Raps State for Trade Barriers

Johns Reports Wisconsin Among Worst Offenders in Nation

Washington — (P) — When the Wisconsin delegation of Democratic women arrived last night to join the early comers from all parts of the country for the Democratic National Institute of Government, they found themselves in a predicament. The women from the Badger state were without a host for the congressional breakfast Friday, a highlight of the 3-day institute, which opens today, sponsored by the women's division of the Democratic National committee.

The Democratic senators and representatives have invited the delegations from their home states to have eggs and bacon with them—but Wisconsin has no Democratic senator nor representative.

"Now what do you think of this?" demanded Mrs. George Givan of Milwaukee, Democratic national committeewoman. "Here we are—40 of us—from a state that went Democratic in the 1936 presidential election—and now we haven't a Democratic congressman to take us to breakfast."

"That will arouse the women of Wisconsin—and wake up some of the men. It was the women in Wisconsin that saw to it largely that the state went Democratic in the last presidential campaign."

One of Wisconsin's senators, Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., is a Progressive, and the other, Alexander Wiley, is a Republican. Seven of Wisconsin's nine representatives are Republicans. The other two are Progressives.

Three Injured in Traffic Accident

Automobiles Collide Almost Head-on on Superhighway 41

Three persons were injured in a traffic accident which occurred about 8:15 last night, during the height of the unreasonable snowstorm, on Superhighway 41, two miles northeast of Appleton.

Harold Horfield, 25, Austin, Minn., was driving northeast, and G. J. Schiebe, 67, Evanston, Ill., was going southwest when the machines collided almost head-on, according to Jack Frenz, Outagamie county traffic policeman.

Horfield suffered a cut over the left eye. Schiebe suffered chest injuries. Herman Schiebe, 78, 721 W. Elsie street, suffered a bump on the head and his wife was shaken up. They were riding in the Schiebe car.

Concerns Denied Right to Merge

Commission Also Refuses To Let Firm Issue $100,000 of Bonds

Madison — (P) — The public service commission today denied Central Wisconsin Gas company authority to merge with Southwestern Wisconsin Gas company and also turned down a request that Central be permitted to issue $100,000 of 5 per cent first mortgage bonds.

The Central company, however, was authorized to issue $5,000 of common stock. It distributes bottled gas from headquarters in Waupaca. The Southwestern company provides similar service in rural areas out of Sparta and Tomah.

The order forbidding a merger and issuance of the bonds was signed by Chairman Reuben W. Peterson and Commissioner Robert A. Nixon, Commissioner W. F. Whitney dissented.

Peterson and Nixon ruled the bond issue was not advisable "because the earnings do not show a good coverage of interest on the proposed bonds, particularly when the size of the companies, character of operations and their credit and prospects are considered."

The merger of the companies is related directly to financing involved, particularly as to the bonds, they added. "As we cannot authorize the bonds under the statutes, it appears the merger will not be consummated."

Whitney said the well defined territory covered by the companies, their past business records and balance sheets prompted him to favor the merger and issuance of securities.

Couple Injured In Head-on Crash

Mrs. Mrs. Tom Browne. Waupaca. In Accident Near Fremont

Waupaca — Mr. and Mrs. Tom Browne, Waupaca, are confined to the Waupaca City hospital with back injuries, broken noses and cuts and bruises as a result of a head-on collision of their car and a truck about 7:30 this morning on Highway 10 two miles west of Fremont.

Browne, Waupaca attorney was driving to Waupaca from Oshkosh where they had spent the night. The truck, traveling east, was driven by James Burger, 23, Wausau, according to Roy Myhill, Waupaca traffic policeman. The car was damaged badly.

Italy Will Not Invade Yugoslavia, American Minister Is Assured

Rome — (P) — Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano today assured United States Ambassador William Phillips that Yugoslavia, Italy's neighbor on the Adriatic was safe from Italian invasion, it was reported in usually reliable quarters.

The United States ambassador's talks with Premier Mussolini yesterday and with Ciano today noticeably eased tension in diplomatic circles.

Anxiety had reached an acute point with the announcement that British shipping had been diverted from the Mediterranean as a precaution. It had been reported that Phillips in his talk with Premier Mussolini yesterday had gained the distinct impression Italy would not change her position of non-belligerency within the next 10 days.

After that the Italian course still seemed to depend on the tide of war with many indications that Mussolini might jump in on Adolf Hitler's side if Germany seems to be winning. It was reported that 10 classes of Greek officers were called to the colors effective May 5, a move believed linked with fear that Italy might jump into the war on Hitler's side.

Canada's artificial and natural industry produced goods valued at more than $23,000,000 in 1938.

WINS ELKS AWARD

Fred Trezise, Jr., above, is the winner of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks citizenship award given annually to an Appleton high school senior. He competed in oral and written examinations with 40 classmates. Trezise will have a chance to compete in the state contest for a $300 scholarship. The local award is $100 to be applied against tuition at any Wisconsin college.

Onaway Campers To Hold Reunion

Program Is Planned for Meeting at "Y" Saturday Evening

A reunion of Camp Onaway campers will be held at 6 o'clock Saturday night at the Appleton Y. M. C. A. C. C. Bailey, "Y" boys secretary and director of the camp, reported today.

A program including discussions of this summer's program at the camp, songs, and stories has been planned. Group that camped together on Onaway island last summer will sit together at the meeting.

Clark Cairnes, University of Wisconsin student and an Onaway leader, and Mrs. Marie Dick, Menasha cook at the camp for more than 21 years, will be present. Bailey said. The boys will adjourn to the "Y" pool after the program.

Kaukauna Man Charged With Molesting Women

Howard Luttrell, 21, 1105 Law street, Kaukauna, pleaded guilty of molesting and molesting a person of the opposite sex when he appeared in municipal court this morning before Judge Thomas H. Ryan. Trial was set for 9 o'clock Thursday morning, May 16, and he was released under bond of $500. City police made the arrest.

Committee to Consider Bids on Sale of Bonds

The county executive committee will meet at 10 o'clock Friday morning to consider bids on the sale of bonds for the new court house. The county will float a $153,000 bond issue which with $140,000 now in the building fund will provide for a $293,000 building.

4,000 Student Musicians to Play Saturday

Much of Responsibility Will Fall on Kaukauna Music Instructors

Kaukauna—When over 4,000 high school students arrive in Kaukauna Saturday for the first day of the district music festival, a large measure of responsibility for the tournament lies in the hands of Miss Lucille Austin and Clarence Kriesa, high school music instructors.

Miss Austin has worked for four years to get the band tournament for Kaukauna, for its educational and cultural value.

"I believe it gives these benefits because it provides musical participation and teaches the cultivation of social contacts, including the important elements of giving attention to neatness of dress and politeness toward others."

Miss Austin, a piano player at the age of eight, was in the first Lawrence college a cappella choir, gave two voice recitals and has played a string bass, flute, E flat alto horn and piano. She played string bass in the Lawrence symphony orchestra and is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority.

Tells of Improvement
"Vocal music groups at the high school have improved much over five years ago," Miss Austin said. "I would not be afraid to stand Kaukauna, musically, against any school of any size. We'll try to bring home the bacon in the tournament, and I hope the townspeople will back us."

Clarence Kriesa, band instructor, attended Emporia State Teachers college and Milwaukee State Teachers college, teaching two years at Chilton before coming to Kaukauna. He is adept at all band instruments, but specializes on the cornet. He has organized the junior band, for those not yet in high school.

Under Kriesa's management the band has improved steadily, and this year will compete in the Class B division, whereas last year it entered Class C.

"The tournament is a large undertaking and one which will mean a great deal for Kaukauna," the band instructor stated.

All-Star Squad to Play Crack Teams

Tits With Peshtigo Mills. Green Bay Squires Are Scheduled

Kaukauna—Scheduling of games with two of Wisconsin's best softball teams was announced today by Earl Mollet, manager of Kaukauna Klub All-Stars.

Peshtigo Badger Mills, featuring the pitching of Jimmy McGovern, one of the state's leading hurlers, has accepted terms for a home and home series. The Mills will come here either June 14 or 21, with the Klub playing at Peshtigo June 9 in a night game.

The Green Bay Columbian Squires, another standout squad, will play in Kaukauna Sunday morning, May 26. The Klub opens the home season May 19 against Two Rivers Pioneer Taverns. Oconot will be met there on May 12. Sunday the Klub will play a practice game against Murphy's Corners on the enemy's diamond. In the first game last Sunday the Klub beat Kelly's Tavern of Askeaton, 11 to 1.

Pastor, Personnel Man Talk to Rotary Scouts

Kaukauna — The Rev. John Scheib, pastor of Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, and L. C. Smith, Thimpany Pulp and Paper company personnel director, spoke last night at Rotary scouts held a parents' night and court of honor at Park school. The Rev. Mr. Scheib spoke on the scout law, "A scout is reverent," while Smith described ways in which parents could help the scouts.

Robert Kutto, William Dryer, Ralph Mooney, Glen Miller, Dean Baier, John Wandell, Richard Wandell, James Nagel, William Vette and Raymond Nagel, Jr. received merit badges. John Wandell and James Nagel were awarded first class pins, with Robert Knapp and Duane Heindel getting second class pins. Adam Miller, Victor Lange, Cornelius Hatchell, Dale Mitchell and Donald Krull received tenderfoot pins.

Women Bowlers Will Divide Prizes Tonight
Kaukauna — Ladies bowling league will elect officers and split this season's prize money at the annual bowling banquet at the Paramount in Appleton tonight. The season closed a week ago with Kaukauna Clubs taking first place honors.

Vocational School Will Offer Summer Commercial Classes

Kaukauna — Commercial classes will be sponsored by Kaukauna Vocational school during the summer, according to William T. Sullivan, director. Courses will be offered in shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping and office practice, in both elementary and advanced sections. Sessions will be held in both morning and afternoon, and students may attend either or both periods and may enroll in any or all of the classes, Sullivan said. Only a limited number can be accepted, and those desiring to enroll are to do so now at Sullivan's office in the municipal building.

This is the first time the Kaukauna Vocational school has been able to offer summer classes in commercial work, Sullivan explained, and high school students are particularly invited to enroll for the excellent opportunity of securing additional practice and training.

All vocational school instructors will attend the annual convention of Wisconsin Association for Vocational and Adult Education Friday and Saturday at Manitowish. Members of the vocational school board will attend the convention banquet Friday noon.

12 Students Win Forensic Letters

Performance of Three at Madison Climaxes Successful Season

Kaukauna — Twelve high school students will receive letters for their work in forensics this past season.

Three students progressed to the state finals at Madison, where Clarence DeBruin won a first place rating in serious declamation, giving "Rising of the Moon"; Mary Lu Vaneevoven received a second place rating for her humorous declamation, "Pygmalion," and Maurice Rostalait was given a third place rating in oratory, with "Americanism."

Winning places at the Shawano meet last week were Mary McGrath, humorous declamation; Thomas McCarty, oratory; Magdalena Otte, extempore speaking; Jo Ann McCarty, extempore reading; Pat Van Lieshout, humorous declamation.

Other letters go to Sherman Powers, who won second place in the Future Farmers of America district contest; Lynn Ankrevine, winner of honors in league subdistrict and district contests; and Lee Gifford and James McGrath, winners of second places in the league contest.

Coaches of forensic activities were Thomas Nolan, oratory; Miss Frances Corry, extempore reading; Miss Ethelwyn Handran, declamation; and Miss Mildred Feller, extempore speaking.

Nearly 200 Present at Quarterly Meeting of A.A.L. at Clintonville

Clintonville — A quarterly meeting of the Aid Association for Lutherans was held Tuesday evening at St. Martin's school auditorium. Nearly 200 persons attended.

The program included the showing of sound motion pictures of activities in the home office of the A. A. L. at Appleton by B. E. Mayerhoff, and several reels of motion pictures on the New York world's fair by Dr. Ernest Krueger, also of Appleton. Musical numbers included instrumental selections by the Kirchner brothers and vocal numbers by a male quartet comprised of Charles Mack, Ronald Fillnow, George Hafeman and Harold Mitchell. Entertainment was also provided by a "quiz contest" conducted by Gerhardt Uetzman of Appleton.

Winners in an essay contest for young people up to 18 years of age were: Vernell Lichtenberg; Marjorie Schmidt and Duane Rohde. The essays were written on a subject pertaining to life insurance.

The evening closed with the serving of a lunch. Special prizes were won by Edwin Westphal, Mrs. Gilbert Anton, Marjorie Schmidt and Leslie Sasse.

Because of Thursday being Ascension day, the monthly meeting of St. Martin Lutheran Ladies Aid society was postponed from May 2 to May 9.

8 Tables in Play at Clintonville Party

Clintonville — Eight tables were in play at a card party given by the Royal Neighbors Wednesday afternoon at the Odd Fellow hall. There were three tables of schafkopf with prizes going to Mrs. Paul Krueger and Mrs. Emmanuel Tate, both of Shawano. Contract bridge was played at three tables, honors being awarded to Mrs. J. W. Devine and Mrs. Joseph Kuester; and auction bridge was in play at two tables with Mrs. Harry Isaacson and Mrs. E. C. Thimke receiving the prizes. The games were followed by the serving of a lunch.

Mrs. Clarence Barker was hostess to a group of friends at her home Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Matt Dahm of Owen, Wis., a former resident of this city. A desert-luncheon was followed by an informal afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Kleider of Milwaukee is visiting this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Buchrens.

Mrs. Arthur Kaphingst of this city underwent a major operation Wednesday at St. Elizabeth hospital, Appleton.

roll call with a new prayer or verse. Mrs. Russell Weller presented the Bible history lesson on "The Descent of the Israelites from Egypt" and a paper on "The Parish and the Parish Priest" was given by Mrs. Abner Fredenbergh. The club will sponsor the motion picture, "The Light That Failed," at the Times theater on May 21 and 22. Proceeds will be used to buy books for the public library.

The Clintonville Lions club held its first meeting of the season Tuesday evening at the clubhouse on Long lake.

Kaukauna Eagles Lodge Names Edward Geske New President

Kaukauna — Edward Geske was elected president of Fraternal Order of Eagles as the group met last night at Odd Fellows hall, with Lloyd Romanesko named vice president. Other officers chosen were Simon Sigman, chaplain; Al A. Hartzheim, secretary; Jacob Rink, treasurer; John Burke, Jr., conductor; Gerald Smith, outside guard; Clarence Kastell, inside guard; and Joseph Hurst, trustee. Delegates to the Merrill state convention in June are Hartzheim, Geske, Leo Schmalz, Herman Maes and Cy Bern. A class of 12 was initiated, with the degree team composed of Hartzheim, Schmalz, Rink, Leroy Schuch, Martin Feldmann, Floyd Hartzheim and Kastell. A report on progress of a drive for the benefit of a dormitory the F. O. E. is building at Father Flanagan's Boys' Town was given by Ray Schmalz, chairman of the project.

St. Mary's senior CYO is planning to entertain St. John's CYO of Menasha at a joint meeting, here May 12, with Roman Berg general chairman. A program will be presented and lunch served. At Monday's meeting a 1-act play, "Romeo and Juliet," was given with Leo Weigman, Roman Berg, Norbert Becker, Luke Martin, Dolores Lan-dreman and Jerome Nyles taking part. Mary Schwab was program chairman.

Ten years of missionary work in Brazil were described by Mrs. J. W. Appling of Appleton last night as Women's Foreign Missionary society of Brookway Memorial Methodist church held an interdenominational potluck supper last night at Epworth home. Mrs. H. S. Cooke presided, with Mrs. L. F. Green, Mrs. S. M. Engholm and Mrs. Walter P. Hagman on the committee.

Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Frank Sellers and Mrs. Howard Cutting as Mrs. Paul Eppinger entertained friends at her Levee street home last night. Lunch was served.

lawn early that morning, and into the house, confident no one could find a speck of dirt.
In the living room they sat and became silent. Harold had disappeared. Great-aunt Hannah looked around, then said:
"Your Great-uncle Timothy's will states that no relative may visit you more than once a year, or remain longer than twenty-four hours at a visit. Therefore, I decided we should all come together to spend the allotted time."
Tommy gasped. "Oh, lovely," and indulged in mental gymnastics. How would she sleep fourteen people? Had she enough groceries to feed them? Why must there be a Sunday closing law affecting food stores?
Tommy introduced a grim and disapproving Mrs. Dougherty who promptly counted noses and sighed. Then Tommy was engulfed in talk.
She listened avidly. Never had there been such a trip. They had traveled on a beautiful new streamlined train. Such comfort, such food, such scenery.
Tommy smiled. Heretofore the family had thought the continent started at New York City and ended at Chicago. The girls hadn't been to New York since Captain Tom embarked for France. They had visited him at Garden City.
Tommy assigned them to rooms as best she could. She would bring their beds from the shed where she had had the extra ones stored. Then, while they toured house and grounds, she hurried to the kitchen to help the silent Doty prepare dinner.
A high, shrill scream broke the Sabbath stillness. Tommy rushed to the front porch to see Old Abe fishing Harold out of the goldfish pond. He applied a sharp cuff to the boy's ear.
"That'll learn you to catch Tommy's little heathen."
"Get off this property!" demanded the voice of Great-aunt Hannah and she sailed into view.
"Get off yourself!" spat Abe. "Who do you think you are, anyhow?"
"I!" proclaimed the woman, "am Hannah Toland!"
"Well, I'm Old Abe," he proclaimed in return. "And I was here first."
Tommy sped to the rescue. She soothed Abe and soothed her aunt, then sent Harold in to don dry clothing.
"Sit down," ordered Great-aunt Hannah.
Tommy sat on the bench she had occupied earlier that morning.
"I just want to tell you, I forbid you marring Allen Bartell."
Tommy wondered if she were going into hysterics. In a moment she was going to shriek with laughter. Desperately she controlled herself.
"Yes, Aunt Hannah," she murmured.
"That is all. Now I will go to my room. Now stay!" she explained.
Tommy looked at her aunt and something akin to pity welled up. The poor old honey. She was tired. Her eyes were bloodshot. She had probably absorbed every inch of scenery as long as there was day-

Kaukauna Mayor Tells Club of Tax Reduction Hopes

'There are Many Changes I'd Like to Make,' Gantner Says

Kaukauna — Reduction of the city's indebtedness and lowering of taxes are two of the fundamental aims of his administration, Mayor William J. Gantner told Kaukauna Rotarians at their meeting at Hotel Kaukauna yesterday noon.

"There are many changes I would like to make," Gantner said, "and they must be made to reduce taxes, the city's indebtedness and the large interest burden. I don't think we should borrow any money—we're going in the hole when we do it." Gantner said he was carrying a large responsibility as the city was in debt extensively. "I think it's bonded more than the law allows."

Gantner said he hoped to persuade one of the aldermen who voted against repeal of the single road district system to reconsider, and thus bring the old 2-district system back.

"I'm basing my economy program on the efficiency of every department, and the road district is one of the largest. I would like to have the citizens approach these aldermen and ask them to reconsider." An ordinance to repeal the single unit system adopted in 1938, was defeated by only one vote.

Expects Saving
The mayor said he had checked a little into the relief department, and that a saving must be made there. A lot of saving was expected from the board of public works, he added.

"I have a plan in mind to absorb all the city's unemployed," Mayor Gantner stated. "and another plan to take care of the aged people. In checking on the relief department I didn't like the setup, and there we expect to have a lot of money."

In his work with Governor Heil Gantner said he had come into contact with industries that had a lot of labor trouble, and that industries of this sort were the kind he was after for Kaukauna. Get them and taxes would be reduced, he said.

Gantner said he was going to be a candidate either for the assembly or the senate and thought it only right that he be sent back, as it would be a loss to the city to lose the experience he has gained in legislative affairs.

Aldermen Play Commission for Stulp Selection

Council Disapproves but Appointment of New Police Chief Stands

Neenah — Aldermen scored the board of police and fire commissioners for not appointing Assistant Chief Viggo Sorensen chief of the Neenah police department to succeed Chief C. H. Watts at a council meeting last night at city hall, and then the council went on record unanimously disapproving the appointment of Irving Stulp, Neenah, captain of the Winnebago county highway police force.

The board at a meeting Tuesday night at city hall named Stulp chief of Neenah police.

Several of the aldermen were vitriolic in their condemnation of members of the board, and Mayor Edwin A. Kalfahs also expressed his disappointment over the appointment.

Alderman Knud Larsen sparked the criticism against the board.

He said:

"When I learned today that the new chief had been appointed, I was stunned and surprised, and I'm wondering if some members of that board have a mind of their own or if they're listening to petty bills. There are nearly 12,000 inhabitants in this city, and they should be listened to, too. It was a dirty, rotten deal. They pick a man outside the force when there's already a man sitting down there at a desk who has been doing the work of the chief for years but hasn't been getting the chief's salary."

His remarks were applauded but councilmen and those in the audience.

Favors Sorensen

Alderman John T. Heigl stated, "That's the reason I squawked over the Frank Klinkke reappointment. I wanted to break up that board. Viggo Sorensen should have been given a chance. He's had 17 years of experience on the police force and he should have been given an opportunity to prove that he could do the work. If the council can do anything about that appointment, I'm in favor of doing it."

Alderman Heigl continued, "I have the utmost respect for the man they appointed. He's a fine man. I have nothing against him, but I do object to their not appointing Viggo Sorensen. The entire city is up in arms about this."

Mayor Kalfahs informed Alderman Heigl that Klinkke was one of the members of the board who was in favor of appointing Sorensen. Alderman Robert Martens said that if all the board members were like Klinkke, Viggo Sorensen would be the chief. He also said that "if it had been left to a vote of the people, Viggo would have received 90 per cent of the votes."

Appointment Stands

When questioned, City Attorney John W. O'Leary reported that there's nothing the council can do about the appointment.

Mayor Kalfahs said:

"It came as a blow to me. I have been sick about it all day. I'm not certain that the matter has been entirely settled."

Later during the session, Alderman Heigl moved that the council go on record disapproving the appointment and the motion was carried unanimously.

George MacDonald, 628 Jackson street, a former alderman, was named to the board of police and fire commissioners by Mayor Kalfahs with council confirmation. He succeeds William Bussan. Mayor Kalfahs told the council that Mr. Bussan said he didn't wish to be reappointed, and the mayor also informed the aldermen that "Mr. Bussan voted last night as I would have voted." The mayor pointed out that in selecting a member to the board, he chose a man from the Fourth ward, the only ward not represented on the board, and a labor representative. It is a 5-year term.

Rotarians Hear Talk On Paper Watermarks

Menasha—Joseph J. Plank, head of Joseph J. Plank and company, manufacturers of dandy rolls, Appleton, described water marking in paper at the Wednesday noon luncheon meeting of the Menasha Rotary club at Hotel Menasha.

The speaker pointed out the protective advantages of water marks and described how several forgeries were discovered by watermarks. He also described some artistic watermarks manufactured in paper in Italy.

Neenah Police Make 21 Arrests in April

Neenah—Neenah police during April made 15 arrests. They included charges of drunken driving, 2, vagrancy, 2, reckless driving, 6, speeding, 1, indecent liberties with a minor, 1, driving through an arterial 1 and drunkenness 2.

The Twin Cities office of the Appleton Post-Crescent for its editorial, circulation and display advertising departments is located at 510 N. Commercial street, and the telephone number is 4100. News items, copy or orders for display advertising and orders for subscriptions may be left at the office or telephoned. Orders for classified advertising should be placed by telephoning 543 in Appleton, and the cost of the telephone call will be rebated. The Twin Cities office closes at 7 o'clock in the evening.

NAMED CHIEF

Neenah—Irving Stulp, 421 Twelfth street, Neenah, captain of the Winnebago county highway police force, was named chief of police of the Neenah department by the board of police and fire commissioners Tuesday night. Stulp, who will succeed Chief C. H. Watts, will take office June 1. He has been captain of the county force since 1937 and a member of the department since 1927. He was graduated from Neenah High school in 1926.

Club Home Show Nets $667 Profit

Proceeds From Exposition Will be Used for Welfare Work

Neenah — Profits from the fifth annual Twin City Home show, which was sponsored April 11, 12 and 13 at S. A. Cook Armory by the Neenah Kiwanis club, totaled $677.78. Richard Bell, general chairman, announced the noon meeting of the club Wednesday at the Valley Inn.

Bell reported that income from the show totaled $1,382.15, while expenditures amounted to $704.37. There were increases in both items as compared to last year's show. Under income, the show realized $892 from booths, $103.60 from advertising and $266.55 from admissions.

All of the profits from the home show, Bell pointed out at the meeting, will be expended in Neenah and Menasha for the club's program of welfare work.

Norton J. Williams, chairman of the international relations committee, was in charge of the program yesterday noon, and the annual Canada and United States good will week was observed.

Neenah Pastor and Delegate to Attend Fond du Lac Parley

Neenah — The Rev. S. H. Roth, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, and C. J. Mack, lay delegate from the local church, will attend the annual convention of English Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest of the United Lutheran church of America at Fond du Lac Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The golden jubilee convention opens a year's celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Synod.

Among the business matters to be discussed will be consideration of the purchase of the C. S. Pillsbury mansion at Minneapolis for the future home of the Synod's Theological seminary and the inauguration of the jubilee celebration. During the coming year, rallies, special meetings and a drive for an endowment for the Northwestern Lutheran Theological seminary will mark the jubilee.

The Rev. R. H. Gerberding, Minneapolis, will preside at all sessions. The Rev. C. K. Lippard, missionary to Japan, who is to speak in Neenah Sunday will be guest speaker Tuesday evening, May 7, at foreign missions night. The Rev. F. H. Knutson, president of the fourth Lutheran church, will speak Wednesday night.

Schedule Hearing on Cost of Improvements

Neenah — The public improvements committee of the city council met last night at a council meeting at city hall and adopted preliminary assessments for installation of water mains and construction of curbs and gutters.

The hearing on the assessments will be at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, May 14, at city hall. Curbs and gutters will be installed on Van and Grove streets at a cost of 60 cents a foot and water mains on Cedar street at a cost of 50 cents a foot.

Neenah Grade Pupils To Have Field Days

Neenah—The annual grade school field day will be held Thursday and Friday, May 23 and 24, at the Neenah High school athletic field, according to Miss Genevieve Kronschnabel and Ole Jorgensen, physical education instructors. The field day for the third, fourth and fifth grade boys and girls will be on Thursday and for the sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils on Friday. Neenah High school girls and boys will assist the instructors in conducting the meets.

Two Cars in Collision On W. Forest Avenue

Neenah—Automobiles driven by Robert Killoran, 422 Twelfth street, and Henry J. Werner, 416 Eleventh street, were damaged slightly in a collision Wednesday evening on W. Forest avenue near N. Commercial street. The Killoran machine was pulling away from the curb and the Werner car was traveling west on W. Forest avenue when the accident occurred. The left front fender on the Killoran car and the right front fender on the Werner machine were damaged.

Council Acts on Street, Sidewalk Project Proposals

Aldermen Decide to Purchase Truck, Hire Shovel and Digger

Neenah — Street improvements in Neenah, embodied in resolutions and petitions for sewers, curbs and gutters and sidewalks, composed the principal business transacted at a meeting of the city council last night at city hall.

Resolutions were adopted for installation of water mains on John and Cedar streets and sanitary sewers on John and Riverside streets, and curbs and gutters on Elm, Grove and Van streets, Fairview avenue, Congress place and Park drive. Two petitions for sidewalks, one on the west side of Meyer avenue from Main to Whitlow streets and the other on the south side of Adams street from Lake street to Western avenue, were referred to the committee on streets, sidewalks and bridges.

The council also voted to advertise for bids for a new truck for the street department to be used in the improvement program as well as hire a power shovel and trench digger. The council voted, 6 to 3, for the purchase of the 24-ton truck.

Alderman Carl Loehning, chairman of the committee, who pointed out that the department had no truck, stated that it was cheaper to buy a truck than to rent one, while Alderman Knud Larsen contended it was cheaper to rent than to buy.

Hire Shovel, Digger

The council voted to hire a power shovel from Robert Ulrich at $3.25 an hour and a trench digger from the same man at 26 cents a foot.

The aldermen granted R. O. Thomas permission to use the city's alley off E. Wisconsin avenue for parking space for his gasoline station, and City Attorney John W. O'Leary was instructed to draw an ordinance making S. Pak avenue an arterial at the Fairview avenue intersection. The council authorized angle parking on the west side of Main street where it is permitted now on the east side.

A petition for a street light on Grove street and Laudon boulevard was granted, and the council instructed the street department to mark the pavement at street corners at bus stops to prevent automobiles from parking.

Total fines and fees assessed by justices of the peace were $252 last month, including $160.20 by Justices of the Peace Gaylord C. Loehning and $91.80 by Justice Elmer H. Raitke.

The council voted to appropriate $25 to finance the expenses of sending a member of the police department to the annual convention at Sheboygan May 20 and 21. The aldermen also granted the request for the use of the 100 foot frontage at the Fresh Air camp for docking of boats.

Cancel Playday For Neenah Girls

Neenah — Miss Genevieve Kronschnabel, physical education instructor at Neenah High school, announced today that this year's girls' playday, which was scheduled for Saturday afternoon, has been cancelled.

The playday was canceled, she explained, because of the weather and because of the lack of time to prepare for the event this year. The high school girls have completed in playdays this year at New London, Menasha and East Green Bay.

Miss Kronschnabel also reported that the high school girls' Athletic association and the Kimberly school G.A.A. could not hold banquets this year because definite dates haven't been selected.

Two Speakers Will Address Homemakers At Neenah City Hall

Neenah — Two speakers will address the Neenah Homemakers club at a meeting Monday afternoon, May 6, at the city hall auditorium. They are Leon C. Palmer, circuit instructor in industrial first aid of the Wisconsin Vocational schools, and Miss Lydia Bouressa, supervisor of the Visiting Nurse association.

Mrs. Florence K. Oberhelmer, gymnasium instructor, will direct dance skits by the grade school children from the pageant "Rhythm and Song in America."

Mr. Palmer will discuss first aid in the home, including poisoning, wounds, shock, artificial respiration, injuries to bones, joints and muscles, and burns and scalds. He also will talk on information on purchasing medications and drugs for first aid purposes.

Miss Bouressa will explain the work of the Visiting Nurse association in the community.

Mrs. Fred Bentzen, new president, will name the chairman and members of committees for next year, and a questionnaire on programs for next year will be distributed. The year's activities will conclude May 22.

Grant Permit for New Home on Fairview Ave.

Neenah — Herman Reddin, Neenah, was granted a permit this morning to build a home at 605 Fairview avenue at a cost of $2,500. The dwelling, which will be of frame construction, will be 24 by 30 feet and one story high. It will have an 8-inch concrete block basement.

Dr. F. Landskron, 543 Elm street, was issued a permit to build a garage at a cost of $200. It will be of frame construction and 14 by 20 feet.

Mothers' Task Goes Beyond Home, Banquet Speaker Says

Menasha — Whatever you have chosen as your life work, make that your vocation, the Rev. J. J. Ahearn, pastor of St. Patrick church, guest speaker for the parish Mother and Daughters' banquet Wednesday evening in the school hall, declared as he emphasized the task mothers have in trying to return their children to God as they were received. To accomplish that task, mothers must not only do their job well in the home but they must get out into society to know what their daughters and sons are being taught, what they are doing and with whom they are associating.

Father Ahearn urged the mothers not to forget that they were Christian mothers, to be honest and sincere and they would not lose out for God would guide them. Mothers must change with the trend of the times but not in fundamental principles, he said.

About 150 mothers and daughters of the parish were entertained at a 6:30 supper and program. Mrs. E. Crockett acted as toastmistress. Mrs. N. F. Verbrick presented three vocal selections "The Lamplight Hour," "A Brown Bird Singing," and "A May Morning" after which Mrs. Frank Brocken led the assembly in a song of devotion to the Virgin Mary.

Gives Welcome

Mrs. Frank Oberweiser, president of the Sanctuary society, welcomed the mothers and daughters.

Mrs. Louis Dubois, speaking of "When Mother was a Girl," told the group that in 1836, '37 and '38 the government was improving Wisconsin Rapids, the name by which Neenah was known in the early days. Father Vandenberg, Little Chute, celebrated mass in Neenah at that time. The first log church was built in 1849 and in 1853, St. Patrick parish came into being. The church was built on an acre donated by McLaughlin McKinnon. In 1857 the German speaking members of the parish left and started St. Mary's parish. The first school house of the parish was built in 1868, the building which is now used as a warehouse by the Jersid Knitting company. The Sisters of Notre Dame were in charge of the school beginning in 1877. In 1882 the church burned and in 1893 the present church was built. In 1898 the parish acquired the four lots west of the church.

Miss Rosemary Griffith gave a brief talk on "When We're as Old as Mother." Miss Ruth Dumeck, accompanied by Mrs. Franklin LeFevre, sang two vocal selections. Mrs. Sigrid Dudley, Menasha school nurse also spoke briefly.

Mrs. Oberweiser presented gifts to the oldest mother, Mrs. Joseph Chapleau, to the youngest mother, Mrs. Carl Hess; the mother with the most daughters, Mrs. F. M. Corry; to the oldest mother, Mrs. R. Lingenfelter, Fond du Lac mother of Mrs. Crockett; and the daughter who came the longest distance, Mrs. Albert Gosha, Kimberly.

Relief Bill for April Is $4,459

490 Persons Aided in Neenah, Menasha and Town of Neenah

Neenah—Relief expenses in Neenah, Menasha and the town of Neenah during April totaled $4,459.97, according to the monthly report of Harry M. Bishop, relief director.

Neenah's bill amounted to $1,986.22, while Menasha's total was $2,473.75. The town of Neenah's cost amounted to $469.29.

Included in Neenah's bill were the following items: food $827.41, shelter $330.34, clothing $38.25 public utilities $53.05, fuel $182.79, medical care $208, miscellaneous $29, other counties $125.49 and administration $192.29.

On relief rolls in the three units last month were 490 persons. There were 202 persons on Neenah's rolls. They composed 42 families of 177 persons and 25 single persons. There were 62 families of 282 persons and 20 single persons, aggregating 282 on Menasha's relief list. There was one family of six persons on relief in the town of Neenah.

The first relief meeting included card and sheephead as well as lawyers dogfish and garfish. State seining crews removed more than 4,000 pounds since 1935 while a contract fisherman employed by the department took an additional million pounds from the lake.

Spring operations on the lake basin this month with four state crews in action. While expert staff employes of the department man the boats and nets, WPA laborers handle the fish.

The conservation commission has centered most of its rough fish removal program in Lake Winnebago, because the local lake is one of the best and largest inland game fishing waters in Wisconsin. The aim of the program is to make the lake more habitable for game species.

Menasha Building Activity Shows Big Gain During April

Estimates for Six New Homes Top Total Figure for First Quarter

Menasha—Construction authorized in Menasha during April exceeded the total for the first three months of 1940, according to the monthly report of K. Ellingboe, city building and plumbing inspector. Permits for six new homes top the list of 19 permits issued during April totaling $34,123. The total for the first three months of the year was only $3,535.

Only one new home permit was issued previous to April, bringing the total for the year to seven at an estimated value of $22,800. New homes authorized during April included Joe Rhoads, Lisbon avenue, $4,800; Hugo Paver, Racine street, $4,000; Elmer Malchow, Manitowoc street, $2,000; Ben Weideman, Lisbon avenue, $3,000; Harry Stephens, Jefferson street, $3,000; Robert Schwartz, Edgewater drive, $3,000.

Commercial Jobs

Commercial construction also showed a decided increase with three permits totaling $9,700. Chief of those was one of $5,000 to School Stationers corporation for an extension to the firm's present factory. The expansion is the third in the last six years, according to Harry Williams, president of the company, and will result in substantial increases in volume of production as well as pay roll. The firm manufactures ruled forms and nationally distributed school paper and supplies.

Albert Peterson received a $3,200 permit for construction of a store building at the intersection of Appleton road and Seventh streets. St. Thomas Episcopal parish, 226 Washington street, received a $1,500 permit to construct a vestibule entrance to the parish house.

Six permits for additions and remodeling provide $4,256 in new construction. George Striegel, 738 Racine street, received a permit to remodel at a cost of $2,800. Floyd Acheson received a permit for a $1,000 addition to the dwelling at Third and Manitowoc road. The addition will be used as a store building.

Other permits included John Stanjak, 771 Racine street, $125; Steve Talarevsk, 349 Lisbon avenue, $25; Mrs. P. Schreiber, 716 Third street, $65; and Alex Laux, 353 Third street, $50.

Four permits were issued for garages and sheds. They included Chris Christensen, 732 Tawco street, $150; Mrs. Charles Blank, Lawson street, garage, $100; Ted Holowinski, 836 Manitowoc street, shed, $100; and Arthur Lux, 910 Third street, shed, $8.

Figures Show Removal of Garbage Is Man-Sized Job

Menasha — City collectors handle over 5,500 garbage cans a week, according to H. O. Haugh, city health officer, in removing garbage from Menasha homes. Free garbage and rubbish collection is provided through funds from the general tax.

Rubbish and garbage collection is conducted under the supervision of the board of health with a special truck operated by three men. Because of the spring clean-up activities, an extra truck has been borrowed from the street department to haul rubbish.

Garbage is collected twice a week from the residential district while in the business district there are three collections a week. The city is divided into districts for garbage collection as it is for rubbish collection. The entire city is covered once in every four weeks for rubbish collection.

During April the collectors hauled 30 loads of garbage totaling 751 tons. They also hauled 86 loads of rubbish totaling 301 tons. A total of 376 tons was hauled.

By May 13

(Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau)

Oshkosh — Circuit Judge Henry P. Hughes this morning ordered attorneys for the defense to file briefs by May 13 in a test case questioning the constitutionality of the state cleaners and dyers code. The state will be given 10 days from May 13 to answer arguments of the defense.

The state is suing the Menasha Cleaners and Dyers, operated by Frank Shemanski, the Richmond company of Oshkosh, which has branch offices at Appleton and Neenah-Menasha, and the Anton Groth Cleaners and Dyers of Oshkosh to restrain them from charging prices in excess of those established in the trade practice code.

Judge Hughes on April 2 denied the state trade practice division an order restraining them from cutting prices until the test suit had been settled.

The three cases are to be heard as one case as the alleged violations are the same. The defendants in their answer to the complaint aver that the code law is unconstitutional, claiming that it violates the 14th amendment of the federal constitution and Articles 1 and 4 of the state constitution. They also declare that the license fees are unreasonable, excessive, and discriminatory.

The defense contends that the law has never legally been put into force in Winnebago county because they claim a referendum of the people is necessary before the law can be put into effect.

Two Cars Damaged in Collision on Highway

Menasha — A blinding snow was blamed for an accident involving a car driven by George J. Resch, 813 Milwaukee street, Menasha, assistant chief of police, and one driven by A. D. Wilkinson, 608 E. Circle street, Appleton, on former Highway 41 on 10.15 last night. Both of the vehicles were going south. The rear of the Wilkinson machine and the front of the Resch auto were damaged. Occupants of the cars escaped serious injury.

Hire City Mechanic On Full-Time Basis

Menasha — Anton Jedwabny, 527 Fifth street, has been hired by the Menasha council as the city mechanic on a full-time basis. Formerly he was employed to service city trucks on an hourly wage scale. Jedwabny will have charge of up-keep and repairs for all city trucks. The council is considering the purchase of additional equipment and tools for the city garage.

Represent Economics Club at Convention

Menasha — Mrs. H. J. Rosenow, newly elected president of the Economics club of Neenah and Menasha, and Mrs. William Clifford represented the Economics club at the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Sixth district, Wisconsin Federated Women's clubs at the Hotel Law hotel, Fond du Lac, Wednesday. Mrs. Marvin Dubbe, Winnebago called the meeting to order.

Trades, Labor Group to Discuss New Building

Menasha — Plans for the building program of the Neenah-Menasha trades and labor council will be discussed tonight at the Labor temple. E. E. Schwartztrauber from the University of Wisconsin school for workers, will speak. The meeting is open to all delegates to the council as well as to union officers and interested union members.

Board Maps Health Program at Menasha

Menasha — The Menasha board of health discussed the program for the year's work at an organization meeting Wednesday night at the city office. H. O. Haugh, city health officer, explained the projects carried on by the board in the past.

Legion Will Nominate New Officers Tonight

Menasha — Candidates for office in Henry J. Lenz post No. 152, American Legion, will be nominated at the meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at Elks hall. A lunch will be served.

FLEA HUNT

Forest Grove, Ore. — Dr. C. Anderson Hubbard's 5-year itch for a flea is over. He caught it. The Pacific university biologist, noted for his contributions to the British museum flea collection, found an unfamiliar "skinner" on a deer mouse. It was there by some means of nature, so he decided to look for the original carrier. Five years later he found another on a mole shrew. Several moles, all carrying the same strange flea, indicated they were the true hosts. Hubbard named the new flea "corpsylla Jordani" in honor of Dr. Karl Jordan, famous flea authority and curator of the British museum.

IMPROVE CURB

Menasha — Street department employees have repaired the curb on Annapis street from Nassau street to Nicolet boulevard. Sunken blocks of the curbing were raised. The Gilbert Paper company requested improvement of the curbing at a recent meeting of the common council.

BOWLERS TO BANQUET

Menasha — The Commercial league will hold its annual banquet and distribution of prizes at the Pender Alloys tonight. Wesley Laecker, president of the league, will preside at the business session.

BOMBS HIT NORWEGIAN VILLAGE

This low-flying German warplane, according to British-approved caption accompanying this radio picture, bombed the village of Rena, on the Glomma river, in Norway. Smoke is rising from a house allegedly hit by a bomb. Later, the Germans captured Rena, which is north of Elverum in east-central Norway.

Neenah Woman to Speak at Mother, Daughter Affair

Menasha — Mrs. William A. Riggs Neenah, will be guest speaker at the Mother and Daughter banquet Thursday evening, May 9, at the First Congregational church. It was announced at the General Ladies society meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church social hall Mrs. Ralph Moon will be program chairman. Mrs. Oscar Johnson, kitchen chairman and Mrs. Hugh Strange, dining room chairman.

Mrs. Bertha Grant and Mrs. Harvey Benjamin will be hostesses at the May 8 meeting of Group 2 of the Ladies society of First Congregational church. It was announced at the potluck supper meeting Wednesday night in the church social hall. Twenty-nine members attended the supper meeting.

Comrades of the Way, junior high school young people's group, will meet at 7 o'clock Friday evening in First Congregational church social hall.

Women's Auxiliary of St. Thomas Episcopal church will meet at 6.15

New Insecticides Aid to Gardeners

Best to Fight Pests on Plants When Both
Are Young

Getting rid of the insects pests when plants are in their infancy and most vulnerable to damage is half the battle. No application of insecticide is so important for cucumbers or tomatoes, for instance, as the one made when plants are but a few inches tall.

In the last few years notable contributions have been made to the effectiveness of insecticides, although they are based on age-old practices, utilizing the dried flowers of pyrethrum which have been used for centuries for insect powder, and a substance called rotenone, which is obtained from the roots of a plant, an Asiatic plant which has long been used by savages to kill fish.

Considerable change in spraying and dusting methods have resulted from these two substances. Both are known as contact poisons, which means they kill what they touch, and they have the advantage of being harmless to man and domestic animals, while being death to insects of all kinds.

Prior to the development of these materials, a gardener was obliged to use a contact poison to kill aphids and other insects that drank plant juices; and a stomach poison for the leaf eaters. Nicotine was the most reliable contact poison and arsenic was used for the leaf eaters. A number of preparations are now offered under trade names which furnish all around protection, by combining both pyrethrum and rotenone in one spray.

Although it is possible to get each of these substances separately, they are usually prepared in a mixture which needs only a dilution of water. Rotenone, government experts say, is thirty times as powerful as arsenate of lead as a stomach poison, and fifteen times as powerful as nicotine as a contact poison. It is harmless to warm blooded animals, but keep it away from gold fish. Both pyrethrum and rotenone are inclined to be unstable, which means that they lose their power under certain conditions. In purchasing trade preparations of these materials inquire about this and be assured that your product will not lose its effectiveness before you get a chance to use it.

Nicotine and arsenic are still used in the garden effectively. A pound of arsenic powder to ten pounds of gypsum is probably still the best check of the striped beetle for cucumber and squash vines, or for other caterpillars and beetles. It will burn the leaves, however, if you apply too thickly.

Rental for Field To be 10 Per Cent Of Gross Earnings

the course, how much time do they want?" Alderman Knutli asked. Alderman Keller said: "I talked to four members of the park board today and they told me that they are proceeding. They are waiting for options on the land to expire so they can get their own options. We owe them our respect and cooperation. We should not censor them until they have had a chance to report."

Alderman Knutli told the council a building permit has been issued on Calumet street for land needed in the course. "It looks like they're waiting until this house is built so they won't have to buy the land," he said.

"I'll support this motion to table if we agree right now to table it for only two weeks," Alderman McGillan said. "We've waited long enough for the park board to come through. It's time they get started. If we want the course for next year."

Wettengel Talks
Fred Felix Wettengel, who says he has options for 200 acres of land, needed for the addition to the course, outlined the work he has been doing and said the park board refused to allow him to talk at a recent meeting. He asked the council to instruct the park board to contact Harry Sylvester, who intends to build on Calumet street, before work on the house is started. No action was taken on his suggestion.

When the contract for Spencer field was read, Alderman McGillan wanted to know who was going to pay for the lights at the field this year.

Alderman Bogan, chairman of the committee which talked to the baseball corporation, explained that the city could expect between $1,000 and $1,250 from the gross receipts and from $350 to $400 on the concessions.

"Tough Proposition"
"This has been a tough proposition and the committee was on the spot," he told the council. "We had to let baseball get a start."

Alderman Brautigam said: "We don't want the city to lose money. This team is driving a pretty hard bargain but we shouldn't sell the city short for the baseball team. They'll need $8,000 to $9,000 to get along and we shouldn't let the park get out of our hands. If this goes through, the city will be sold short."

An argument over the concessions issued and several aldermen charged that 10 per cent of the net receipts wouldn't amount to anything because the concessionaires "could work it so there wouldn't be any net."

Alderman Feavel asked: "Why view this with such alarm? This is only for a few months so why try to hamstring the team now?"

Interest of City
"You're an alderman and you should have the interests of the city at heart," Alderman Brautigam said.

Alderman Feavel replied that he was not representing the baseball club but was a representative of the taxpayer and that he did have their interests at heart.

Alderman VanderHeyden said that in the committee meeting he held out for a flat rate of $300 for the concessions but conceded the council should do something to get some money back from the investment in the field. He said transmitters at the field would cost about $1,700 but will cut the cost of lights in half.

"Just to get this thing going I'll favor the gate receipts contract," he said. "I'm not opposed to doing something to get the team started."

May Break Even
Alderman DeLand said the city has gone farther than it should for this season but "if the team draws crowds we'll break even."

Alderman Keller said the team very likely would be fair in its dealings with the city and Alderman Franke insisted the city didn't want a profit but should get maintenance out of the field.

Alderman Douglas maintained the field is a civic proposition and didn't mind if the city did lose some money this year. He wanted to see the team started.

Alderman Bogan explained that the 10 per cent on day games would make up any loss the city would suffer on night games. He said this year's experience could be used as a basis for a contract next year.

"The city should encourage baseball this year so that it will be a success and insure the future of baseball in Appleton," Alderman Thompson said.

Mayor Atrees
Mayor Goodland agreed that 10 per cent of the gross gate would be fair for this year but he suggested that the city ask for bids on the concessions.

The concessions proposal finally was referred back to the committee with instructions to advertise for bids on the same basis offered by the baseball corporation.

The council granted a permit to Orville J. Schmidt to do business in Appleton as the City Cab company, 212 N. Appleton street.

The Town Taxi and the Yellow Cab companies, represented by Attorney Alfred Bosser, opposed licensing the new cab company while Attorney Frank Wheeler represented Schmidt.

Wheeler guaranteed adequate financing, equipment and insurance and assured the council that competent drivers would be employed by the new company. Opposing the license were Alderman Franke, Brautigam, Kitter and Vander Heyden.

Fence Canvas
The Cunningham-Ortmayer company, Milwaukee, was awarded the contract to furnish fence canvas for the Spencer street athletic field. Posts, hooks, cables and other equipment will be purchased later by the board of public works. The firm's bid of $611.95 was low in a field of six bids.

Charles Goldbeck, Appleton, offered a bid of $225 for the rough plumbing work at the Spencer field grandstand and was awarded the contract.

HEADS ANACONDA

James R. Hobbins (above), who had been executive vice president, was named to the presidency of Anaconda Copper Mining Co., to succeed Cornelius J. Kelley, who had held the position for 22 years. Kelley was named chairman of the board.

grandstand and was awarded the contract.

Bids on paving part of Lawrence and Superior streets were referred to a public hearing scheduled for 7.30 Friday evening, May 10, in city hall. Holtz and Bass, Appleton, offered the low bid on concrete paving, $138,169. Other bids offered are: Koepke Construction company, $138,483; United Construction Service Inc., $137,878.05; Simpson and Parker, $14,373.36; and Charles Green and Son, $16,645.64. The Green company also offered bids of $18,123.74 each on hot sheet asphalt and hot asphaltic concrete.

Garbage Petition
A petition from 92 women asking free collection of garbage was tabled until another meeting is held between Mayor Goodland and Appleton's garbage collectors. The mayor has suggested improvements designed to clear up the garbage problem and will meet with garbage collectors next Wednesday to hear their decision.

The council voted to advertise for bids for a power flusser and eductor to replace the present horse-drawn flusser. The power flusser was recommended by Mayor Goodland in his annual address to the council, April 16.

The Motor Forms Corporation, Milwaukee received a contract to furnish metal curb and gutter forms on its low bid of $486.50 and the Little Construction company, Appleton on a low bid of 131 cents per square foot, was employed to build new sidewalks and raise old ones in Appleton this year.

Material Bids
The low bid of the Charles A. Green company of 9.09 cents for tar for road purposes was accepted and bids on ready mixed concrete were rejected. The low bid of the Quarry Products company, Neenah, for keystone for street purposes was accepted.

Rules Railroad Must Buy Truck Licenses

St. Paul — The Great Northern Railway company, Attorney General J. A. A. Burquist ruled yesterday, must buy Minnesota license plates for trucks licensed in Wisconsin which occasionally are used to haul railroad supplies from Superior into Minnesota.

The attorney general advised Mike Holm, secretary of state, that such railroad trucks could not be considered as coming under the reciprocity agreement which Minnesota has with Wisconsin, and under which trucks in either state that occasionally cross the state boundaries are not required to have licenses from the other state, as long as they do not carry merchandise for hire.

cepted. The firm's bid was $1568 per cubic yard.

The council voted to build a guard rail on Opechee street from the east end of the Pacific street bridge south 36 feet and authorized the construction of sidewalks on E. Grant street from N. Drew street east on the south side of the street. The engineer was ordered to prepare plans for the widening of the Oneida street driveway into city hall. He also was requested to notify all railroad companies to repair their crossings in the city.

An ordinance separating the engineering department and the street department and re-creating the post of street commissioner was ordered published and referred to the ordinance committee. The council will meet May 10 to set the salary of the commissioner and to elect a man to fill the position.

An ordinance changing speed limits in the downtown area from 20 miles to 25 miles per hour and in the outlying districts to 35 miles per hour to comply with the new state law, was ordered published and referred to the committee.

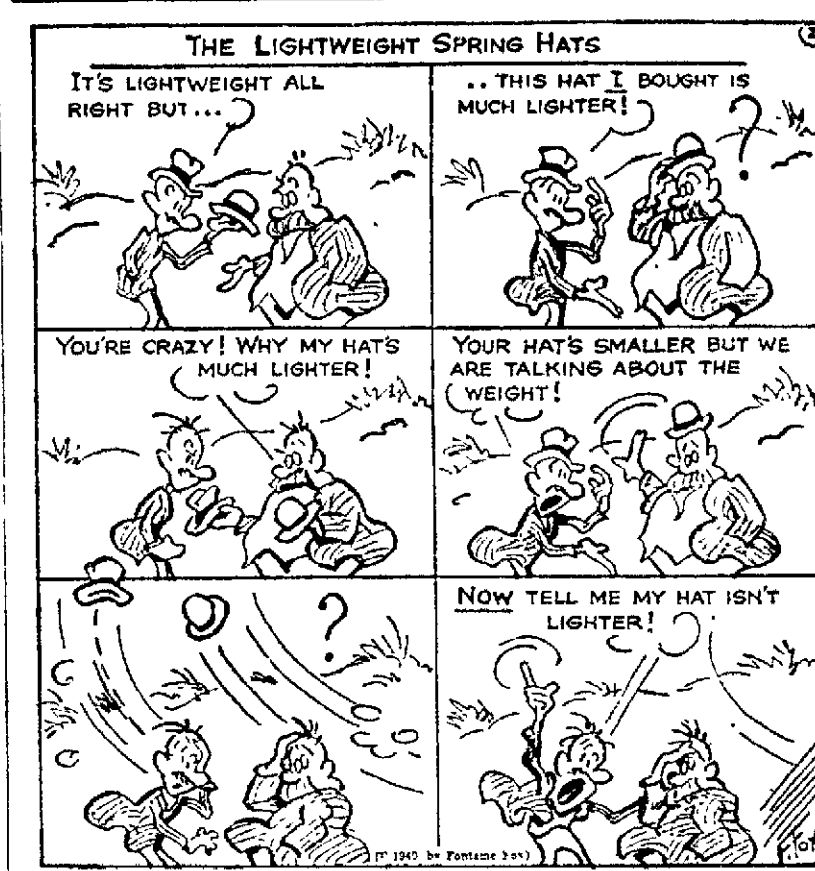

Aldermen voted to establish a lane traffic on College avenue and to permit parking on one side of the street only in front of churches during services. Grading of the boulevard on the four sides of Spencer field to permit angle parking also was authorized. An area 75 feet wide will be left at the main entrance for loading and unloading cabs and buses.

Safety Measures
Safety measures for the intersection of John and Newberry street because of increased traffic hazards since Telulah park was improved were authorized. A slow down sign will be placed on E. John street, a stop sign on Newberry street and parking will be eliminated on John street from Newberry street to the draw bridge. A pedestrian lane will be painted to concentrate pedestrian traffic at that point.

Other recommendations of the committee approved by the council are: Stop sign on N. Division street at Washington street; an official stop sign on Morrison street at Washington street; danger reflector signs at Oneida street draw bridge and the John street bridge; and 40 feet of space on Oneida street at the Zuehlke building for bus parking.

A water main on Lawrence street, east and west of Superior street, to connect water mains now in place, and on Superior street north to the

Canada Newspaper Mills Found to be Adequate

Montreal — (AP) — The Canadian newspaper industry is well fitted to supply increased demands likely to arise in the near future, according to E. M. Little, Quebec superintendent of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper.

"It is not necessary to build another newspaper mill in Canada to meet additional demand until all the latent capacity has been used up," he told the local branch of University of Toronto alumni.

"There is still possibly 10 to 20 per cent more capacity available which would bring our Canadian productive capacity close to 5,000,000 tons without building another mill," he said.

The 1939 output of the industry was 2,669,000 tons.

WHO SHOULD GET WINGS?
Denver — (AP) — Medical science still seeks an answer to the question of "what makes a good airplane pilot tick?"

"Is a tall, husky man a better pilot than a short, slender man?" asked Dr. Michael L. Mason of the Northwestern University Medical School at a Denver medical meeting.

Prague — (AP) — The old trademark "Made in Czechoslovakia" has been abandoned and a new one adopted for the labelling of merchandise manufactured in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia.

In fact, there will be three different stamps or origin on goods made in this country: "Made in Bohemia - Moravia" or "Made in Bohemia" for merchandise produced in the northern part of the Protectorate; "Made in Moravia" for those made in the southern province.

In each case the latter two trade-marks will be used only to make a distinction between products which are a specialty of either province.

Stop for Arteries

Throw a dollar out of the window

There's a certain amount of pleasure in throwing a dollar bill out of the window (we suppose — we've never tried it).... watching it float through the air... guessing where it's going to land... seeing it finally settle on a curbstone... and perhaps seeing some surprised individual pick it up.

At least, it's certainly more fun than throwing away a dollar bill by paying one hundred cents extra for something you're buying. Yet every year we all part with a goodly sum of hard-earned cash that we might otherwise save — IF WE KNEW HOW TO BUY!

The quickest, easiest, simplest way to learn how to buy is to read the advertisements in this newspaper. Know values. Know prices. Know quality. Start now to STOP throwing dollar bills away!

Oconomowoc Man Will Talk About Wisconsin Angling

Three Vaudeville Acts—Two Movies to Complete Program

WHEN the Appleton Post-Crescent's fourth annual Fishermen's Party program begins Tuesday evening at the Rio Theater, there will be plenty of entertainment, a few minutes of serious discussion of fishing, and then the awarding of the prizes in other words, there will be only one speech and a few announcements that will take more than five minutes.

The principal speaker of the evening will be O. W. "Outdoor" Smith of Oconomowoc, probably one of the best informed fishermen in the state. He is writer of many articles on fishing and some of them appear on the sports pages of the Appleton Post-Crescent under the heading "America Out of Doors."

Mr. Smith was born at Weyauwega and he often writes about the streams in that territory as he fished there years ago. In 1893-5 he was a student at Lawrence college and was obtained a Methodist minister in 1895. He is author of several books about trout fishing, catfish, and fly fishing and is an honorary member of numerous sportsman clubs throughout the country. He also is listed in Who's Who in America.

His subject here Tuesday night will be entirely on fishing and will concern things that every fisherman would like to know about Wisconsin.

There will be three vaudeville acts: one from Appleton, one from Milwaukee and one from Chicago. The Appleton act will be Miss Marie Zapp, Appleton tap dancer, who has appeared before local groups before.

From Milwaukee will come "Concertina Eddie" who was a sensation over Major Bowes' program a short time ago. The young man thumbed his way east for a tryout and before the evening was over had been assigned to a vaudeville engagement with one of the major troupes. He is credited with ability that will "bring down the house."

The third act is from Chicago and appeared at the New York world's fair last year. It is Louis Tops and his trained monkey, a number that has been sensational wherever it has been presented. Some of the newspaper comments on this act have been "Unsurpassed by any other animal act." "Kids squealed and grown up kids roared throughout the act," "Jimmy goes over with a terrific bang," and "Jimmy is offering Sally Rand keen competition with his fan dance."

And Movies, Too

The motion picture will consist of two numbers and will set the scene for the evening's talk. One will be "Marine Circus," a color picture taken in Maitland, Florida, where a wall has been put around part of the ocean for the benefit of people interested in ocean life. It permits study for the first time in history of the customs and habits of undersea denizens while they are on typical behavior. And being in color, it is truly a beautiful picture.

In "Marine Circus" thousands of specimens, from shrimp to sharks, are to be seen in their natural surroundings of coral reefs, sea weed and other ocean life. Outstanding among the specimens are the poisonous which weigh six and seven hundred pounds and are as playful as puppies. If bribed they will turn somersaults, chase their tails and do other tricks. Other specimens are sharks, manta rays and giant turtles.

The other reel will be "Fisherman's Pluck" in which the audience will be taken to a remote Oregon river where steelhead trout await the angler after he passes through miles of wilderness and down dangerous rapids. Ted Husing is the narrator.

While the crowd is being seated in the theater, Jack Cameron's orchestra will play just as it did last year. It is one of the letter dance bands in this section and will

Indianapolis Entry List May Exceed 50 Speedsters

INDIANAPOLIS—(P)—Forty-seven racing cars, capable of running anywhere from 110 to 150 miles an hour, and 31 of the nation's greatest drivers are entered official for the Indianapolis motor speedway 500-mile race May 30.

An additional entries, postmarked before the deadline last midnight will be accepted and it's possible the complete entry list may exceed fifty cars.

Eight of the 47 entries are foreign-built cars and they form the most serious threat to American supremacy on the 2½-mile track in many years.

One of them is the Italian-built Maserati which Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis drove to victory last year. Shaw, who won the race in 1937, also will be at the wheel of the Maserati again this year. The car is entered by Mike Boyle, Chicago sportsman.

Four other Maseratis and three Italian-made Alfa Romeos are entered.

Paul Risan, a South American, will drive one of the Maseratis and Mrs. Lucy O'Reilly Schell, an American resident of France, will enter two others. She said French drivers will pilot the cars if they can be released from the army.

Shaw and Kelly Pettito of Los Angeles are the only former 500-mile race winners entered. Pettito, victor in 1935 will drive his own car, an American-built creation.

Pettito, Rex Mays of Glendale, Calif.; Cliff Borge of Hollywood, Calif.; and Bob Swanson of Los Angeles will head the list of drivers in American cars.

Mays will be at the wheel of the eight-cylinder speedster in which Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif. led last year's race until within a few miles of the finish. Meyer, a three-time winner at Indianapolis, has retired from racing.

Berger, a movie stunt man in the off season, will drive the car in which Floyd Roberts of Van Nuys, Calif. the 1938 Indianapolis winner was killed last year. It is entered by Lou Moore of Los Angeles, a former driver.

Swanson will be at the wheel of a big 16-cylinder car entered by Alden Sampson. It was one of the fastest cars on the track last year but went out early and Swanson was driving relief for Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles when he was involved in the accident in which Roberts was killed. Hepburn also is an entry this year.

The Swanson car is the only 16-cylinder job entered.

Only 33 cars can start the race, so the slowest ones will be eliminated in qualifying trials which begin about 10 days or two weeks before race day.

Several of those entered also probably will not be ready to run in time to attempt to qualify—at least that has been the history of previous races.

Tickets Available For Civic Opening Day Baseball Dinner

Tickets for the civic dinner which will be a feature of the opening of Class D baseball in Appleton went on sale today.

The price is 60 cents and they are being sold at the following places: Pond Sport Shop, Valley Sporting Goods, Schlafer Hardware, Pettibone's basement, Schaefer Grocery, Checker Lunch, Oudenhoven's Tavern, Al Giesse's Tavern, Pete Van Roy's Tavern, Frederick's Barber shop and Campus Barber Shop.

The dinner will begin at 12 o'clock Thursday noon, May 9, and is scheduled to wind up about 1:30. An interesting program is being arranged. The number of plates has been limited to 250.

Milwaukee Sends Two More Players to Blues

MADISON—(P)—Stan Galle, shortstop, of Milwaukee, and John Schmitz, pitcher, of Wausau, have been optioned by the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball club to the Madison Blues, Three-I league farm, Mervyn (Bud) Connolly, Blues manager, announced today. Galle led the Class B league in fielding while playing with Bloomington, Ill., last season. Connolly said Schmitz, a left hander, was one of the most promising rookie pitchers in the American association circuit.

BALL TEAM TO MEET

The Adler Brau baseball entry in the Outagamie County league will hold a skull session at the Joseph Zickler shoe store on Walnut street at 7:45 tonight. Twenty members of the squad have been asked to report.

Seymour Battles Two Rivers Nine In League Opener

Larry Roeck, Former Sheboygan Hurler, Signed By Manager Row

SEYMOUR—With a 19 to 4 victory over Freedom under its belt, the Seymour baseball team is ready for the opening game of the league season on Sunday with Two Rivers playing here. In drawing Two Rivers for the opening game, Seymour was not very lucky as the pre-season dope is that Two Rivers is the team to beat for the pennant. However, it will be a good test for Seymour and if it is good enough to beat Two Rivers, baseball will look pretty easy.

Two Rivers is not leaving anything undone in order to have a winner. It has added several new men including two pitchers from Milwaukee. They claim that both are better than Lucy Alberts who pitched for them the past two years.

Seymour Signs New Pitcher

Weisgerber will draw the starting assignment for Seymour and if Dick is right, a pitcher's battle will take place. Plenty of relief pitching will be on hand as Simons, Neuman and Larry Roeck will all be ready. Seymour signed Roeck this week and as he is considered tops in the state the team feels as though it is set for the year. Roeck pitched for Sheboygan the past two years.

Mayor Groendahl has been invited to pitch the first ball and is busy practicing. He claims that he really intends to get the first pitch over the plate this year.

Ted Hawkins, director of the Seymour High school band, has promised the band will be on hand to furnish music for the opening game. The band will parade through town and to the ball park where a short concert will be played prior to game time. The game will be called at 2:15.

Wisconsin Rapids Manager Pleased With Squad of 33

WISCONSIN RAPIDS—Competition for positions on the Wisconsin Rapids ball club became keener today as Manager Frank Parenti announced plans for a series of intra-squad games starting Thursday.

About 33 players have been training at Lincoln field regularly since the spring drills opened last Saturday and the Rapids pilot reports he is well pleased with performance of candidates.

The 12 pitchers in camp started throwing to batsmen Monday and out of that lot the outstanding boys are Carl Hopp of Algonquin, Ill., Earl Harding of St. Louis, Bert Shepard of Clinton, Ind., Robert Brand of Chicago and Dick Elias of Des Moines, Ia. Hopp and Harding were obtained on assignment from the Waterloo club of the Three-Eye league.

Among the infielders, Felix Martignetti, shortstop from Blue Island, Ill., has been particularly outstanding. Others in the infield who have caught Manager Parenti's eye are Max Murr of Chicago, third baseman; Bill Scheske of Waukegan, Ill., second baseman, and Cliff Herman, first baseman from Dorchester, Wis. All have had previous experience in organized baseball.

Aiding Parenti in drills and player selection is Doug Minor, chief talent scout of the Chicago White Sox, with which club Wisconsin Rapids has a working agreement.

The Rapids pilot will start paring the squad in about a week. The team opens the league season at La Crosse on May 9.

Neenah Trackmen Lose to Kaukauna In Snow and Cold

NEENAH—Although a freak May blizzard with the temperature hovering near the freezing point isn't conducive to sports activity such as a track meet, trackmen from Neenah and Kaukauna high schools Wednesday afternoon bundled themselves with as much clothing as feasible and went out and raced in a dual meet at the Neenah athletic field.

The Kaukauna trackmen won the meet, defeating the Neenah squad, 66 to 47.

Needless to say no records were broken; in fact, there wasn't even an impressive mark posted. Kaukauna's eight firsts and a two-thirds share of another was the margin of victory. Neenah got four firsts and a one-third share of another, five seconds and as many thirds. Kaukauna got five seconds and as many thirds.

Doering, Alger and Swedberg of Kaukauna and Winkelmann of Neenah were the high point getters. Doering and Alger each counted two firsts.

Summary:

100 yard dash—Doering (K), first; Burtis (N), second; Mitchell (N), third. Time—10.8 seconds.

220 yard dash—Swedberg (K), first; Mitchell (N), second; Burtis (N), third. Time—25.8 seconds.

440 yard run—Cooper (K), first; Kalkoske (K), second; Myling (K), third. Time—57.9 seconds.

120 high hurdles—Hickstock (N), first; Doering (K), second; Winkelmann (N), third. Time—17 seconds.

220 low hurdles—Doering (K), first; Spice (K), second; Hackett (K), third. Time—29.9 seconds.

Half mile—Otte (K), first; King (N), second; Andrejcske (K), third. Time—2 minutes, 28 seconds.

1 mile—Meyer (N), first; Veltre (K), second; Peters (K), third. Time—5 minutes, 21.6 seconds.

High jump—Winkelmann, C. Kettering, B. Kettering, Calloway and O'Neil, all Neenah, tied for first. Height—4 feet, 10 inches.

Broad jump—Winkelmann (N), first; Spice (K), second; Stuber (K), third. Distance—17 feet, 7 inches.

Relay—Kaukauna, first; Neenah, second. Time—1 minute, 45 seconds.

Pole vault—Bloch (N), Swedberg (K), and Busse (K), tied for first. Height—9 feet.

Shot put—Alger (K), first; B. Kettering (N), second; Gordana (K), third. Distance—39 feet, 9 inches.

Discus—Alger (K), first; Gordana (K), second; Hoeselman (N), third. Distance—117 feet, 2 inches.

SEYMOUR CLUB IN NORTHERN STATE LOOP

Here's the Seymour baseball team which will meet Two Rivers Sunday in the Northern State league opener—providing the weatherman does something about the current snowfall. The club shows many of the men who performed last season when Seymour and Clintonville battled for the title. The new members are from last year's Green Bay team. The picture shows, seated, left to right, Harvey Hartjes, Howard Bowers, Hammy Powell, Jimmy Row, the mascot; second row, Al Neuman, Elmer Jacobs, Norm Clusman, Don Simons, Jack Lamers; top row, Manager Bill Row, Norman Eggert, Alex Nicodem, Gordon Zuidmuller and Dick Weisgerber. Jackie Hayes Is Working With Chicago's Pale Hose

NEW YORK—(P)—Bobby Feller has offers from two movie studios to make a series of shorts next fall. Umbrine Bill Stewart was behind the plate in the last two no-hitters in the National league. . . . Oddly enough, the same teams were involved. . . . Glad to report Jackie Hayes, sidelined for several weeks with an eye ailment, is working out with the White Sox again.

Feller Is Thinking More About Politics Than Selecting Wife

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—Fireball Bobby Feller has money in the bank, an automobile and fine prospects, but he's thinking more about politics than he is about getting married.

The 21-year-old Cleveland mound artist is one of baseball's most eligible bachelors, but even though it's leap year "I've no proposals yet," he acknowledged.

"And for the information of the girls," he said, "I'm not looking for a wife—not yet."

But politics intrigues the big right hander.

"You know I'm going to vote for president in the fall," he confided. "When President Roosevelt decides what he's going to do—well then I'll make up my mind."

Feller disclosed he nearly lost the use of his left ear through the accidental discharge of a rifle on a target range last winter.

"I can't hear so well out of it yet," he said, "but the doctors tell me it will be all right in time."

GETS SPORTS SCHOLARSHIP

MADISON—(P)—Ralph Moeller, of Watertown, has been awarded the Western conference medal for proficiency in athletics and scholarship at the University of Wisconsin.

Moeller, a senior, was named honorary captain of the 1939 football team.

Major League Season Gets Away to Screwball Start

CHICAGO—(P)—For a youngster less than three weeks old, the 1940 major league baseball season has established itself as one of the hottest, newest campaigns in the game's history.

From no-hit men to slugger battles and from occasional batches of flammable sunshine to snowstorms of floods, this infant season has been a feast of surprises for fans and owners alike.

The season opened April 16 with the greatest mass display of brilliant pitching in the game's history. Bob Feller of Cleveland hurled a no-hitter against Chicago's White Sox; old Lefty Grove of Boston, Kirby Higbe of the Phillies and Whitlow Wyatt of Brooklyn all pitched masterful games.

After that opening-day spurge the fans settled back, anticipating a few humdrum weeks of see-saw play in the National league and the quick building of an early lead by the New York Yankees in the American.

Dodgers Set Pace

What have they had in 'em? The almost unbelievable string of Brooklyn victories which sent the Dodgers far out in front of the National league race and Flatbush fans into hysterics; the Yankees' loss of their first 10 games, coupled with the puzzling leg injury which is keeping Joe Di Maggio out of the New York lineup; the first game in major league history washed out by a flood (at Cincinnati) and the phenomenon of a heavy, May-day snowstorm which froze out the Chicago-Boston National league game here yesterday or by a few hours after the game teams had enjoyed almost perfect weather in their series opening.

Brooklyn's feat in winning its ninth straight game Tuesday, combined with the fact that the Dodgers have won 10 of their last 11 games, has put them in a position to lead the National league in wins.

Dodgers Given First Loss, 9-2

Boston Red Sox Slug Out 12-4 Victory Over Chicago White Sox

Associated Press Sports Writer
THE real test for the Brooklyn Dodgers will start today. This isn't as ridiculous as it may sound, because an area in the lives of the darling Dodgers has just been completed—a miraculous era of nine consecutive victories ended by a no-hitter—and today they are just another strong contender in the National League.

The real test is whether they show the same proclivity for losing streaks they have for winning. Now that they are out of the stratosphere of the record books, the Dodgers are going to find that baseball after all is a rough and tumble pastime and not a motion picture.

The awakening—beaten 9-2 by Cincinnati—certainly was rude enough to shake any day dreams that may have afflicted the Brooklyn. Hugh Casey was going along pitching a no-hitter for three innings yesterday and the writers were wondering what superlatives they could say about a second no-hitter that they hadn't used the day before for Tex Carleton's remarkable exploit.

Boom, Boom, Boom
Then it was boom-boom-boom-boom so fast in the fourth inning that Manager Leo Durocher didn't have a chance to get Casey off the mound before the Reds had made six hits and scored eight runs.

Bill Werber and Ernie Lombardi were in the big boom. Werber started all the trouble in the fourth by leading off with a double and finished it with a home run on his second chance in the same inning. Then in the seventh he got in the way of a pitched ball and eventually scored from second on a single. Lombardi homered while the bases were jammed in the midst of the fourth.

In the meantime Buckly Walters held the Dodgers to six hits—one of them Pete Coscarart's third home run of the season—for his third victory without defeat.

The rest of the National League was rained out.

The slugging Boston Red Sox pushed the Chicago White Sox deeper into the American League cellar, combining three hurriers for 13 hits in racking up a 12-4 victory.

Eaves Chased
Valie Eaves started on the mound for the White Sox but lasted only three innings, during which he gave up six hits and three bases on balls.

Pete Appleton succeeded him and lasted two innings. He passed four men and was nicked for five hits. Bob Weiland finished.

The Red Sox scored four runs off Eaves, five off Appleton, four of them in the fourth inning, and the rest off Weiland.

The Chicagoans' runs were the result of home runs by Bob Kennedy and Joe Kuhel Jimmy Fox, of the Red Sox also hit for the circuit, raising his season's total to five.

The New York Yankees got back in the groove with a well-pitched five-hit game by Monte Pearson giving them a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

The Philadelphia Athletics stopped the Cleveland Indians, 5-1, on the effective seven-hit hurling of Nelson Potter, with Wally Moses and Bob Johnson lending helping home run hands.

The Washington Senators gave away a 10-7 game to the Detroit Tigers, who made four errors in trying not to accept the generous gesture. But Washington's four pitchers prevailed, giving 15 walks and 10 hits.

Verkuilens Win Three Games for Women's Pin Title

Puritan Ladies, Nitingales Tie for 2nd in Whirlwind Finish

LITTLE CHUTE—Final matches in the local Women's pin league were keeled Tuesday evening with three teams in position to win the championship. Verkuilen Furnitures and Nitingales were tied for the top with 50 wins and 31 losses while Puritan Ladies were right behind with 49 wins and 32 losses.

After the smoke had cleared away, Verkuilens were perched in first place as the result of a 3-game win over Main Street Restaurant, while Nitingales dropped two close games to Puritan Ladies. Puritans tied Nitingales for second place.

Rana Le Nobel showed high series of 540, followed by Anita Helf with 528 while Edythe Hammen led with 209 singletons, followed by Rana Jansen with 207 and Anita Helf with 205.

Puritans keeled 2430 for high team series followed by Nitingales with 2428, and Look's Meats team blasted a 858 team game and Min and Bills Tavern's 857.

Edythe Hammen led Ideal's with a 209 game and a 519 triple while Rana Le Nobel showed a 540 triple and a 207 game with the Taverns taking two games.

Helen Hinkens rattled a 513 triple and Maybelle Schommer a 183 singletons for a 2-game win for Look's Meats over Adler Brau Marg Peterson led the losers with a 176 game and a 483 triple.

Puritans and Nitingales hooked up in the grand finale of the season with a chance for the title, but Puritans managed to cop two games only and tied their opponents for second place. Marie Sanderfoot keeled a 515 total and Alma Kildonk produced a 190 singleton for the winners, while Anita Helf paced the losers with a 528 triple and a 205 high game.

A clear claim to the championship was made by Verkuilens Furnitures after a 3-game win over Main Street Restaurants, with Fannie Neihaus topping the winners with a 498 triple and a 173 game. Min Locassen showed a 481 series and a 183 singleton for the losers.

The loop will hold a banquet tonight at Hammen Hotel. Awards will be distributed and officers elected.

Team	W	L
Verkuilen Furniture	50	31
Nitingales	50	31
Puritan Ladies	49	32

Sticks For Sluggers Babe Ruth's 3½-Pound War Club Believed The Heaviest Ever Used

BY JUSTIN ANDERSON
Louisville—(AP)—Johnny Mize of the St. Louis Cardinals, 1939 National league batting champion, and Earl Averill, Detroit slugger, swing the heaviest bats in the majors—40-ounce war clubs. Joe DiMaggio knocked his way to the American league batting crown with a 35-ounce bat. The lightest bats are around 34 ounces and a flock of players use this weight stick.

Babe Ruth used the heaviest bat ball players can recall—a 56-ounce club. He gradually reduced the weight until in his final playing days he was using a 40-ounce bat. Ed Roush, the old Cincinnati star, liked a 48-ounce weapon but few now are over 38 ounces.

Rogers Hornsby, the old "Rajah of Swat," is the father of the present day bat, says Henry W. Morrow, probably the nation's No. 1 authority on bats.

40 Years of Experience
He's been making bats for 40 years. Morrow is supervisor for the Hillerich and Bradys plant here. This factory makes most of the bats used in organized baseball.

Morrow says most bats today, particularly among the younger players, are styled after Hornsby's big stick. They may be slightly heavier or lighter, a bit shorter, or with a larger or smaller handle or knob, but they still are a "cousin" of the "RH" model.

To the layman bats appear similar. But not so to the player. "Every bat has a distinct feel," says Morrow. "I can't explain it, but you'd know if you were a player."

Morrow believes that bats used by Hugh Duffy, Ty Cobb and finally Hornsby would serve as average models to show the development of bat styles.

Here are their measurements:

Handle	Barrel	Weight	Length
Duffy	2 7/8	3 1/2	34
Cobb	2 1/2	3 1/2	32-33
Hornsby	1 5/8	2 1/2	31-32

Before the Rajah's time bats had thicker handles, smaller barrels and were heavier. The length hasn't changed much. The veteran Al Simmons, because of his peculiar stance, (he stands far from the plate) uses the longest bat—38 inches. The great hitter Wee Willie Keeler used the shortest 31 inches. The shortest now used is 34 inches—by Crosetti of the Yankees. Hack of the Cubs and Werber of the Reds.

Use Dozens a Season
Jimmy Fox and Hank Greenberg have about the smallest handled bats because they have small hands. The diameter of their bats is approximately 1 1/2 inches.

The Hornsby model is still the best seller, with bats like those used by DiMaggio, Fox and Ducky Medwick next in line.

Most players use two or three dozen bats during a season. Babe Herman now playing on the Pacific coast, uses more than any other. He orders 18 dozen a year.

Joe DiMaggio looks over one of the bats made in the Louisville factory according to his special measurements.

Bimelich Gets Playful... Must be Kept at His Task

BY JUSTIN ANDERSON
Louisville, Ky.—(AP)—An ex-cowhand from Wyoming who first learned to ride in rodeo relay races has the momentous job of piloting favored Bimelich in the Kentucky Derby Saturday.

Jockey F. A. (Freddie) Smith, born in Cuba 26 years ago of an American father and a Cuban mother, has handled Colonel E. R. Bradley's unbeaten ace in all of his eight triumphs. Naturally he thinks Bimelich is the greatest race horse in the world.

But he has more to do than just sit in the saddle and let Bimelich run. "Bimelich is a very intelligent, free-turning colt," Freddie confided, "and almost anybody could ride him. He has one bad habit. If you would call it that. He is inclined to be playful and now and then I have to give him a good whack to keep him at his task."

Of the derby, Freddie said: "I'd almost be willing to ride for nothing just for the sake of winning."

Godoy Confident He Will Dethrone Joe in Next Bout
Leaves for New York to Begin Training for 2nd Crack at Title

BY TOM SILER
CHICAGO—(AP)—The big, broad-shouldered fellow tells you there will be a new heavyweight champion of the world seven weeks from today.

His name is Arturo Godoy and he says the new titleholder will be himself. Godoy tells you this with such simplicity and child-like faith that he almost has you believing it.

There apparently is little if any doubt in his mind that he will dethrone Joe Louis when they meet again June 20 in New York. But how? That is another matter and one which Godoy admittedly cannot discuss.

The 215-pound Chilean says only Al Weill, his verbose manager, can answer this question.

"I fight like my manager says," Godoy said, recalling his first battle with Louis, most of which he spent in a cautious crouch down in the general vicinity of Louis' knees. But he stayed the limit, although he lost the decision.

Godoy has picked up 15 pounds since that fight while making a vaudeville tour with his comely wife. But he says he can slice off those pounds in no time at all when he starts training. He planned to leave Chicago Friday for New York and begin preliminary training for his second chance at the title.

Max Hirsch May Have Horse That Can Stop Bimmie

Set-Up Is Similar to Upset Win of Bold Venture in 1936

BY SID FEDER
LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—The hunch player in the "best Bimelech" fraternity, bouncing around all over the place trying to keep warm and looking for something to stop "Mr. Big" in Saturday's Kentucky derby, put the finger right smack on Max the mystery man Hirsch today.

"Is it possible," the fraternity brothers wondered, "that Max has another bold venture to spring on the folks in his bit this year? Can history repeat so that Max pops up with another outsider from New York to knock off an odds-on hometown boy who's been making good in a big way?"

He did it against Brevity in '36 as you remember, and the set-up is similar this year, although Saturday's expected field of eight or nine is considerable short of the 14 who answered to "My Old Kentucky" come then. He did it on a fast track that day, too, and the weather man today said he reckoned it would be fair for derby day, despite the overcast-and-earmuffs touch of winter that hit town yesterday.

"People's Choice"
Of course, Colonel E. R. Bradley's sweet-stepping horse for a fifth derby win is still the "people's choice" in this derby village, which is rapidly busting out its seams with the crowds stampeding in for the 66th running of the blue grass classic. In every jammed hotel lobby and on every street corner, four out of five were willing to bet you cash, marbles or broken bottles that Bimmie is the lad.

But the fifth one in every quietest—and this cheering and chowder society included some of the most capable horse-trainers in town—wasn't so sure. And, oddly enough, it was because Bimelech won the derby trial Tuesday so easily that some of the boys and girls were willing to hem and haw a bit.

They're pooh-poohing for the simple reason that he ran the last quarter of that mile in the slow time of 25.5 seconds, compared with a first quarter in 22.4.

They feel that extra quarter in the derby isn't going to be just what the doctor ordered for Bimelech, and that the anticipated 80,000 or so fans looking on Saturday are going to be mighty surprised, to say the least.

Mystery Horse
Which brings us to Max Hirsch and Dit Max came down four years ago with Bold Venture, so lightly regarded he wound up paying $43.20 in the mutuels, longest price since old Mr. Bones Exterminator hit "omigo" at $61.20 back in '18. Brevity had won the Florida derby and a race corresponding to the then non-existent derby trial here. He went to the post odds on at 4 to 5.

So what happened? Well, Bold Venture led all the way down the last half-mile, while Brevity, knocked to his knees at the start finished second.

Dit comes down as a horse that's still a mystery. Owned by Arnold Hancer, he's been back east all spring, winning two races at Jamaica, including the Wood Memorial last Saturday. But in both he had things all his own way and, with no competition, didn't answer any questions.

"Now," Hirsch said today, "I won't exactly say he's another Bold Venture, but—"

State Has More Money but Not Enough for Lump Highway Aids

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau Madison — Although Governor Heil in a recent public statement assured the people of Wisconsin that the state is out of financial difficulties and has a healthy balance in the state treasury, there has been no change in the plan to pay out road aids due in July in installments. The payment of $4,400,000 in aids for county trunks will be paid over a period of four months after July, according to a plan formulated by the executive office several months ago in order to solve the problem of a budget deficit. The money is customarily paid in July in a lump sum. One explanation is that the treasury experts are still not certain that available revenues will meet budget needs. It has been pointed out that while the balance is now large, it represents in large part money due the localities as their fact that several counties are exercising pressure on the executive office to modify the highway construction curtailment plan for this year which involves the elimination of state highway construction allotments to about 26 of the 71 counties. That the final decision on the number or identity of the counties has not yet been made was intimated in official circles. At the same time it was discovered that the emergency board has given preliminary approval to budget cuts for the 1940-41 fiscal year corresponding to those ordered earlier for the present fiscal year. Total additional savings, if the half a million dollars a year. Although most of the cuts will affect operating budgets of the state departments, the administration also contemplates a curtailment of certain aids to localities, including the funds available for forest crop benefits and subsidies for local and county fairs.

"DIDN'T WORK" Altoona, Pa. — (P) — A magician entertained the school class of Thomas Seidle, 12, and Daniel Maslin, 8, by sticking wads of paper in their ears then blowing them out by "whistling magic tunes." Appearing at a hospital some time after school to have wads of paper removed from their ears, the youngsters reported "we whistled and whistled, but it didn't work."

JUST TRY THIS TASTY, TANGY LEMON PINEAPPLE PIE

Try the Spry way to make LEMON PINEAPPLE PIE

3 tablespoons cornstarch 1 lemon (grated rind and juice)
2 tablespoons 1 baked Spry pie shell
1 cup sugar 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt 2 cups canned pineapple juice
2 cups sugar 4 tablespoons sugar
2 egg yolks 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Combine cornstarch, flour, sugar and salt and mix well. Add ¼ cup pineapple juice and mix to smooth paste. Add remaining pineapple juice and cook until mixture begins to thicken, place over hot water, and cook until thick and smooth (15 minutes), stirring constantly.

Stir a small amount of mixture into beaten egg yolks, return to double boiler, and cook a few minutes longer. Add butter, lemon rind and juice, reserving 1 teaspoon juice for meringue. Cool and pour into baked pie shell. Beat egg whites stiff, beat in sugar gradually, add lemon juice. Pile lightly on filling. Bake in moderately slow oven (325° F.) 20 minutes, or until firm and delicately browned.

SPRY PIE SHELL

1¼ cups sifted all-purpose flour 7 tablespoons Spry
¾ teaspoon salt 3 tablespoons cold water (about 1 cup)

Sift flour and salt together. Add ¾ of Spry and cut in until mixture is as fine as corn meal. (This makes the crust tender.) Add remaining Spry and continue cutting until particles are size of a navy bean. (Makes crust so flaky!) Sprinkle water, 1 tablespoon at a time, over mixture. With a fork, work lightly together until a dough is formed. Roll dough ½-inch thick and prick with fork. Pinch dough in pie plate and let relax 5 minutes. Pat with ball of dough. Trim pastry ½-inch larger than pan and turn back edge. Flute rim. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) 15 minutes.

(All measurements in these recipes are level)

West Will Have Cancer Center

Institution Is Result of New Form of Radiation Treatment

San Francisco—Largely as the result of the discovery and development of a new form of radiation by the neutron ray, plans for the creation of a great cancer center at San Francisco in connection with the medical school of the University of California, have been announced by officials of that institution.

Already once cancer center exists in Washington for the centralization of information on bone tumors, but the one planned here will have a far greater scope and will serve all western states.

It is planned that every cancer patient in this section of the country may be brought here for treatment by the two forms of radiation, X-ray and radium, that are now the two principal weapons against the disease, as well as by the third—the new form of radiation by the neutron rays.

Rays From Atoms

This ray is generated by the atom-smashing cyclotron invented by Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, who received the Nobel prize in recognition not only for building the cyclotron but for opening new fields of science, including a possibly new form of treatment of cancer.

It has been demonstrated that the neutron rays have five times the potency of X-rays, but to what extent they may be effective in cancer treatment has not been established definitely. It is known, however, that they penetrate far more deeply than the X-rays and radium, and the creation of a cancer center here where the cyclotron is available will make it possible to determine their curative value.

Tests are already under way on animals and in addition it has been definitely established that the radio-active phosphorus which the cyclotron produces by breaking up atoms of various substances have a definite value in the treatment of leukemia and other malignant diseases.

Used For Leukemia

According to Dr. John Lawrence, brother of the inventor of the cyclotron, the use of the radio-active phosphorus in the treatment of leukemia had shown results comparable to those of the X-ray.

The plans provide for bringing to the new cancer center every available bit of information on every cancer patient west of the Rocky Mountains. Included would be X-ray photographs, biopsy material, microscopic slides, records of diagnosis, treatment and results, family records and similar information.

It is hoped that the creation of the center will constitute the most serious and extended effort that has been made to date in any part of the world to get at the very basis of the cause and treatment of cancer.

In Italy, where the best catgut is made, it was found that ill-fed, lean sheep yield the toughest gut.

Eighth Grade Visiting Day Is Held at Shiocton High School

Shiocton — Shiocton High school observed its annual eighth grade visiting day Thursday.

About seventy-five pupils attended. At 9 o'clock in the morning they were entertained by Briggs-Semon. The former drew pictures and the latter sang selections and played the piano. From 10 o'clock until 12 o'clock they attended classes.

At noon a lunch was served to the visitors and at 1 o'clock classes were resumed. Hugh Alberts, local agricultural instructor, conducted a seed judging contest. Thirty-three boys took part. Winners included Armon Fisher, Black Creek State Graded school, first; Norman Rietter, Black Creek State Graded school, second; and Irvin Schreih, Pershing school, third. While the judging contest was being held, Miss Karen Fosdal, local home economics instructor, conducted a style show in the home economics department.

The afternoon program was presented at 2 o'clock. Three selections were played by the high school orchestra. A boys' quartet comprised of Leo Erke, Bernard Helser, Ruel Falk and Warren Andrews, sang "Run, Rabbit Run," and a girls' trio, Ruby Last, Caroline Middleton, Mary Santkyl, sang "Alice Blue Gown."

The stunt program followed. "And the Lamp Went Out," presented by the juniors, who placed first; sophomores, second; the seniors, third.

The following boys received basketball awards: David Brooker, Earl Burton, Harold Conrad, Marilyn Schwandt, Wesley Poole, Frank Ziewarz, William Pluger, Robert Langman, Gordon Mantz, Maurice Conlon.

Boxing awards were presented to the following: Bryce Spoehr, George Brooker, Daniel McGlone, Durwood Stevenson, Robert Langman, Russell Lauer, Arnold Tennie, Donald Burmeister, Billy Falk, Gordon Poole, Jerome Winkler. For the last two years it has been a custom to give a trophy to the boy who shows the most interest in boxing. The title of "The Fittest Fighter" is bestowed upon him. This year the award went to Robert Langman.

The manager awards went to Marilyn Schwandt and Richard Fellner.

Persons taking part in forensics were given letters: Ruby Last, Betty Nelson, Mildred Hazen, Ardy Ames, Caroline Middleton, Nellie Lou Brooker, Bernard Helser, David Brooker, Stanley Schreih, Peterson, Bill Cummings, Donald Burmeister, Lorraine Poole, Mary Cummings, Rosan Herminath. Student activity awards went to David Brooker, Melvin Jarchow, Lorraine Poole, Rosan Herminath, Ruby Last, Caroline Middleton, Betty Nelson, Harold Conrad, Bernard

Complete Plans for Extensive Maneuvers

Madison — Plans have been completed for participation of national guard troops of Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia in the second army maneuvers to be held in central Wisconsin from Aug. 11 to 31, Adjutant General Ralph M. Imnell announced today.

General Imnell said arrangements for assembling 65,000 troops, the largest concentration in the middle west since 1918, had been made under supervision of second army headquarters in Chicago.

He explained the training period had been lengthened from the usual two to three weeks this year to permit target practice and training of smaller units in minor tactics and individual proficiency.

General Imnell appealed to employers of guardsmen in Wisconsin to make possible full time participation in the three week training program.

"Now that's what I call good coffee"

How pleasant it is, when you are entertaining at a buffet supper and you are wondering if everything is going "just right," to overhear one of your guests say...

"NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL GOOD COFFEE!"

"Hills Bros. Coffee produces delicious beverages in any type of maker. Just follow the directions that appear on the side of every Hills Bros. Coffee can and The Correct Grind will give perfect results."

TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE. Carefully observe timing for each method. Measure 2 level tablespoons of coffee to each cup of water. Vary water slightly for exact strength desired. Keep coffee-maker clean. IMPORTANT. Do not grind Hills Bros. Coffee. Regrinding results in a loss of flavor, aroma, and freshness.

"Hills Bros. Coffee is marvelous made by the DRIP METHOD. But the water must take from 6 to 8 minutes to drip through to the lower section. If the water drips through too fast, the coffee is weak."

"You should taste Hills Bros. Coffee made in my GLASS VACUUM-MAKER! I put the upper bowl on after the water boils and keep the water in contact with the coffee for a total of 5 to 7 minutes."

"You can't beat my OLD-FASHIONED COFFEEPOT for making perfect Hills Bros. Coffee. I bring the coffee to a boil, stir well, add a little cold water and move the pot aside to settle for 5 minutes."

"Let me tell you how to make grand coffee by the STEEPING METHOD. Pour boiling water on Hills Bros. Coffee. Stir well. Cover. Stir again in 5 minutes. Then cover and steep 10 minutes more."

"Hills Bros. Coffee never fails to bring praise when made in my PERCOLATOR. I start with either hot or cold water and then let it perk slowly 7 to 10 minutes after steady perking starts."

Hint of the week

Keep the coffee-maker clean. Coffee oils tend to cling to the inner surface of utensils and eventually impart an undesirable flavor to the coffee. Therefore, it is essential in making good coffee to use a coffee-maker that has been thoroughly washed and "aired."

British Admiralty Announces Loss of Sloop in Air Attack

London, (AP)—The admiralty announced today the loss of the sloop H. M. S. Bittern. A communiqué said.

"The secretary of the admiralty grets to announce the loss of H. M. S. Bittern, a sloop of 1,109 tons, eutnant Commander R. H. Mills. This ship was repeatedly attacked by enemy aircraft and after prolonged fighting, in which one aircraft was shot down in flames and others severely handled, was set on fire.

"Efforts to extinguish the fire were unsuccessful and the crew were taken on board another warship. H. M. S. Bittern was finally by our forces in order to avoid becoming a danger to navigation. No casualties have yet been reported."

The Bittern, completed in March, 1938, cost £223,668 (currently about $3,000,000) and was a sistership of the admiralty yacht Enchantress which took King George VI and Queen Elizabeth to France in 1938.

J. Norman Lodge, Associated Press correspondent on the Norwegian front at Namsos, yesterday reported the destruction of the Bittern in the fjord off Namsos Tuesday.

Observers said they watched Nazi warplanes try for six hours to hit the little warship and then sacrifice two of their bombers to get her by a time-worn ruse.

The Germans put the sun at their backs so that anti-aircraft batteries peppering them did not see one streak away and make a sudden power dive on the Bittern. The trick worked, but the witnesses said two Nazi planes were lost.

The German high command had announced in Berlin earlier that a British cruiser, a destroyer and five transports were sunk by air attack off Namsos and another cruiser and five transports damaged.

Of similar appearance to a destroyer, but slower and less heavily armed, the Bittern is classified in Jane's Fighting Ships, authoritative register of war vessels, as an "escort vessel." She normally carried 125 men.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST
Baltimore—(AP)—A brewery labored long to produce a super superb ale.

But complaints of "too cloudy" and "a funny taste" poured in when it was marketed.

The trouble, said the brewer masters, is that people today just don't know a superlative ale when they taste it.

So sales were halted, and the ale saved for banquets of appreciative gourmets.

SPRING "LOST"
Richmond, Va.—(AP)—The Virginia Highway Department would like to find a "lost" spring.

Commissioner Henry G. Shirley said the spring disappeared after the department had made improvements on a secondary road nearby.

The property owner, claiming that blasting by the highway department caused his spring to dry up, has brought suit for damages.

"Maybe if we found the spring it would help," Shirley said.

OIL RIG SET
San Angelo, Tex.—(AP)—An oil-stained oil well rig soon is to have a prominent place on the University of Texas campus at Austin.

It is the derrick from the Santa Rita No. 1 well near Texon where oil first was discovered in that field. Since that day, May 23, 1928 more than $25,000,000 has flowed into the permanent endowment fund of the university from oil royalties.

The Big Lake Oil Company has presented the rig to the university as a symbol of the relationship between the oil fields and the university.

LADY OF LITTERS
Mercedes, Texas—(AP)—Forty-one pigs in the first three litters is the record of "Lady Rio," a registered Duroc Jersey sow.

She started her farrowing career with a litter of eight when eight months old, increased her second litter to fifteen, and the third, born a few days ago, to eighteen. J. C. Lear, owner, said he had no regrets that he forsook a political job for farmer.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

OSLO

When I was a boy, my school geography listed the capital of Norway as "Christiania." That was the right name, but a change was made on Jan. 1, 1925. On that date the city took back its very old name—Oslo.

Henrik Ibsen famous Norwegian writer.

Oslo was given a charter as a town almost 800 years ago. It grew until it became one of the country's leading cities.

Then came a great fire which just about swept it away. Ashes were left, but little more.

The fire took place in 1624. Next year a new city was started near the scene of the fire. It was named Christiania in honor of Christian V, who was the king of both Norway and Denmark. What was left of old Oslo was taken in as a suburb of Christiania.

Fifteen years ago, the name was changed back to Oslo, and that is what people call it today. With a population of more than a quarter of a million, it ranks as the largest city in the country. It was the capital until it was seized by the German army.

In times of war the capital of a country can be moved from place to place. The king and the law-makers can go where they choose, and "take the capital with them."

In a trip from Bergen to Oslo I traveled by railway train. The train crossed high mountains, and at one point we passed a glacier. The train stopped so passengers could get off and obtain a closer view of the glacier. It was mid-summer, but I found it chilly in the field of snow and ice.

Until touched by the harsh blows of war, Oslo was one of the most pleasing cities of Europe. The streets were kept clean, and visitors enjoyed the friendly good cheer of the people.

Oslo folks make merry in the winter months. They do a great deal of skating and skiing.

During my visit in Oslo, I saw two long boats which are on display in a museum. They are about 1,100 years old.

Those long boats were used by Norsemen who lived between the years 800 and 900. Each was fitted with a place for a large sail, and with places for oars.

Norway has produced a strong list of great men. Among these are Ibsen, the writer, and Grieg, the musician.

(For Travel section of your scrapbook.)

A leaflet called "Famous Music Masters" may be had by sending a 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of this paper.

While gains for a few favored stocks ran to 2 points or so at the best, most advances were in small fractions and top quotations in many cases were reduced at the close.

Lack of volume on the comeback was a fly in the more cheerful market ointment. Transfers for the first hours were around 650,000 shares.

Conflicting European war dispatches continued as a speculative handicap, brokers said, but signs of more stubborn resistance by the allies in Norway helped stiffen Wall Street sentiment. Business here still was hopeful in spots and served to minimize selling.

55 Students From New London Will Play in Festival

Soloists, Ensembles Will Perform at Kaukauna Saturday

New London—Fifty-five students from New London Public schools will take part in the district music festival for soloists and ensembles at Kaukauna Saturday. These students will participate in 52 entries between 8:30 in the morning and 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

All contestants will be placed by judges in one of three award groups as follows: Group 1 for superior performance, Group 2 for average performance, or Group 3 for below average performance. No championship or individual winners are determined, but each judge will select an outstanding soloist or ensemble to appear on the evening program.

Instrument soloists will compete in Classes A, B or C according to the experience of the performer. Class C is for up to 2 years, Class B from 2 to 4 years, and Class A over 4 years. No experience is counted below the seventh grade. Ensembles compete in Class B if average experience is under 30 months or Class A if average is over 30 months, except string ensembles.

2 Solo Divisions
Vocal solos are divided into two classes, Class A for those who have won a first group rating in a previous contest and Class B for those who haven't. Vocal ensembles are not classified. Piano soloists will be required to play scales and technical exercises in addition to the solo selected.

The following students will take part in addition to those who participated in the school contest last week: Jean Gaddis, Class C clarinet solo; Richard Demming, Class A flute solo and Class C twirling solo; June Vandenberg and Richard Demming, Class A clarinet and flute duo; Robert Vanderveer will replace Lina Kellogg in the clarinet sextet because each student is allowed only two entries on one instrument.

New London students who perform in the morning will leave by bus at 8:15 and will return at 11. Those who do not play until afternoon will leave at 12:15 and will return at 6 o'clock. At Kaukauna with the group will be music directors M. S. Zahrt and Miss Mary K. Donohue and accompanists Mrs. H. B. Cristy and Mrs. H. P. Rekstad.

Boy Scouts, Men's Club Hold Anniversary Party

New London—Around a 1-cupped birthday cake, Scouts of Troop 7 and the Methodist Men's club celebrated the first anniversary of the sponsorship of the troop at a joint party at the church parlors Tuesday night. Talks were given by the Rev. R. H. Halliday, pastor; Frank Beckman, chairman of the troop committee; and W. T. Maxted, scoutmaster. Norbert Humblet responded for the boys.

Games were played and a lunch was served by the men.

At the regular scout meeting preceding the party, Norbert Humblet was elected quartermaster for the ensuing year. The approaching camporee at Brillion also was discussed.

Bad Weather Forces Track Postponement

New London—The track meet scheduled for New London High yesterday was postponed because of the cold weather. The meet will be held next Tuesday on the high school track. Because of incomplete facilities the pole vault and high jump will be eliminated, according to Coach G. M. Charlesworth.

Weather permitting, the New London squad will hold its triangular meet here Friday afternoon with Weyauwega and Manawa. Competition will begin at 3:30. Due to unfavorable weather, workouts have been ragged this week.

New London Group at Recognition Service

New London—Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Woodruff and the Rev. and Mrs. H. P. Rekstad represented the New London Congregational church at a recognition service for the new pastor at the Union Congregational church at Berlin Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Humblet moved this week from their former home at 1524 Division street to 516 E. Washington street.

SEE NO EVIL
Memphis, Tenn.—(P)—Police figure betting on baseball games won't flourish so much this season if idlers can't know the scores.

The order went out that no telephone wires for ticker service would be allowed in places of amusement such as pool halls, drug stores and the like.

NEW LONDON OFFICE

News and Circulation departments of the Appleton Post-Crescent are represented in New London by Alvin J. Brault, 203 E. Cook street. News items and orders for subscriptions may be left at that address or may be telephoned by calling 18. Papers missed by carriers will be delivered if complaint is made before 7 p. m.

HOME ECONOMICS TEA HOSTESSES

New London—When freshmen, sophomore and junior home economics classes of Washington High school entertained their elders at their annual spring style show at Washington High school gym Tuesday afternoon, Miss Marie Harman and Miss Verna Neumann, above, were head hostesses and were kept busy at the tea table pouring for the 200 guests who attended. The two hostesses are seniors and have completed the home economics courses. Guests were seated at 50 tables spread under the decorations of last week's prom and 160 girls modeled 250 dresses. Music was furnished by the high school orchestra. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Valley Association of Past Matrons, Patrons to Convene

New London—About 100 visitors are expected to attend the annual banquet and business meeting of the Fox River Valley Association of Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the Order of Eastern Star here Friday evening. Chapters of Waupaca county, New London, Waupaca and Manawa, will be hosts to the association.

A 6:30 dinner will be held at the Elwood hotel, followed by a program and business meeting at the Masonic temple.

At the banquet the welcome will be extended by the New London worthy patron, Harvey Steinberg, and community singing will be led by Mrs. H. P. Rekstad.

High school talent will feature the program at the temple. The dramatic class under Victor Gimmesdahl will present its play, "Sweet Clean Off Her Feet." Patricia Egan, outstanding vocalist, will sing a solo. Alice Stanley, winner of state forensic honors, will give a reading; and the girls trio with Jean Ullrich, Ethel Knapstein and Stanley will sing.

Mrs. H. P. Rekstad will render a vocal solo. Mrs. Mary K. Donohue will accompany the local soloists. Persons from out-of-town contributing to the program will be Miss Brenna Gibson of Waupaca, who will play a piano solo, and Mrs. M. S. Zahrt.

Motorist Fined for Speeding in Village

Kimberly—Daniel Van Linn, 719 N. Fair street, Appleton, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of speeding when he appeared before Justice of the Peace Gus Hanges Monday. Van Linn was arrested Sunday by Police Chief John Bernady who charged the motorist exceeded the speed limit on Sidney street and Kimberly avenue.

Story of Norwegian Explorer Among New Books at Library

New London—With Norway, one of the foremost countries in the news today, the New London Public library offers among its new books this week a story of one of her most famous sons. "Nansen" by Anna Gertrude Hall tells the story of the famous explorer, his life of action, danger and courage, a scientist during the polar ice in a ship of his own design.

Kate Seredy writes an interesting story of old Hungary in the days of the World War in "The Singing Tree," which centers around the young family of a man called to the colors.

Boris Petroff, adventurous Bulgarian, tells an exciting story of his own boyhood in "Son of the Danube."

The 1939 Newbery Medal book, "Thimble Summer," by Elizabeth Enright, is available for older children in the juvenile department. It is a story of Wisconsin and Garnet Linden and a lucky silver thimble.

An adventure book for boys is "Government Hunter" by Montgomery M. Atwater, in which a forest ranger is involved with city gangsters and becomes a G-man of the wilderness.

Other recent additions are "Dandelion Cottage" by Carroll W. Rankin; "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew," and "Five Little Peppers at School" by Margaret Sidney. For younger children are "Simsi and the Little Gypsy Coat" by Chesley Kahmann, "The Youngest Camel" by Kay Boyle, "The Great Gepp" by William Pene Du Bois, the story of a remarkable horse that speaks English and can do all sorts of astonishing things.

An amusing story for the whole family is "Ben and Me," life story of Benjamin Franklin as told by his Good Mouse Amos and written by Robert Lawton.

High School Will Arrange Programs For Rural Visitors

New London—Friday, May 10, was set this week as rural visiting day at Washington High school, it was announced by Superintendent H. H. Helms. Eighth grade pupils from 35 surrounding rural schools will be invited to visit the school on that day. L. M. Warner, agriculture instructor, and Miss Mabel Neck, home economics instructor will arrange the day's activities.

The guests will visit classes until 2 o'clock in the afternoon after which there will be a program in the auditorium. Short talks will be given by students on the activities of the school, there will be musical entertainment, demonstrations and motion pictures. After school a program of outdoor games will be arranged.

Two films, "The Black Scourge," dealing with grain diseases, and "Pig Projects for Profit," were shown at a social meeting of the New London Future Farmer chapter at the high school Wednesday noon.

CONTEST WINNER

Glenn Krause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krause, E. Fifteenth street, Clintonville, was awarded first place in extemporaneous speaking at the state forensics contest last Saturday. He will be graduated this year from Clintonville High school.

Second Citizenship Class Conducted at Library at Waupaca

Waupaca—The second citizenship class for new voters in this community, sponsored by the Monday Night club, was held Tuesday evening in the school library, with four additional members enrolled. Richard Johnson spoke on taxation.

Those enrolled thus far include Eva Gudmanson, Manie Saranowski, Rosina Ginnetti, Regina Groholski, Fern Bender, Lois Holman, Florence Stange, Jessie Anderson, Carroll Ayres, Clayton Knight, Frances Vandenberg, Wesley Mason, Albert Holly, Stanley Budke and Charles Griffith.

The American Lutheran Aid Society of Our Saviour's Lutheran church will hold its quarterly meeting Wednesday at the church parlors. The program will consist of devotionals by the Rev. Leo Anderson, spiritual readings, musical numbers and reports. A lunch will be served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville F. Peterson celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Wednesday evening by entertaining 24 guests for dinner at 7 o'clock at the Dobbins hotel Weyauwega. The hosts and their guests then returned to Waupaca to play cards at the Peterson home, 333 W. Union street.

WORK DIDN'T HURT HIM
Los Angeles—(P)—The career of Kasper Kerkorian, who has died at the age of 115, indicated he thrived on hard work. Up to the age of 103 he actively farmed his own land.

Polaski Defeats Singles Champion

Last Season's Pin Title Holder Is Eliminated From Tournament

New London—Clem Polaski, former city singles bowling champion, ousted Art Gottschalk, last year's champ, from this year's competition in first round eliminations at Prah's alleys last night. Polaski took three games straight but the last hung on two pins. When both keggers ended the game tied at 170, they rolled it off by frames. They kept pace, strike for strike, for two frames and then Polaski smacked ed a third while Gottschalk left two pins standing.

Les Werner eliminated Lawrence Miller three out of four, Bob Houk beat Ralph Impelman three out of five, Carroll Jeffers took Lowell Dent three out of four, and Lewis Bellile won out over Jack Seering, three out of four.

Another series of first round pairings are scheduled for 8 o'clock Friday night.

Last night's scores:
Gottschalk (0) 186 118 170 (28)
Polaski (3) 191 162 170 (30)

Be A Careful Driver

Native of New London Dies at Fond du Lac

New London—Mrs. E. H. Ramm, 85, pioneer president of New London, died Wednesday afternoon at Fond du Lac, where she made her home the last 3 years, after a 2-day illness. Mrs. Ramm was born in New London and lived here about 6 years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. D. V. Meiklejohn, Fond du Lac; Mrs. W. B. Wallace, Silver Spring, Md., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Friday morning at the Cline and Learman Funeral home by the Rev. Harold P. Rekstad. Burial will be in Floral Hill cemetery. The body may be viewed at the funeral home after 6 o'clock this evening.

2 For 1 Tire Sale

Here's a Great Money Saving Tire Deal!

One of the most sensational tire deals ever offered by Gamble Stores! These tires were purchased from one of the leading tire factories, before price advances, during the factory's slow season. These factors, plus our tremendous volume order and distribution savings make it possible for us to offer these low prices without sacrificing one bit of quality in these tires. Regent tires have modern, center traction, deep, non-skid, tough wearing tread and fine quality cord with expert workmanship that is second to none. INSTALLED FREE!

a Waverly BONDED Fabric

What bonded means to you! If this material fades or shrinks it will be replaced free together with our workmanship.

Popular with decorators for bedspreads, draperies and slipcovers, Glo-Sheen is a silky finished material with a luxurious satin effect, smooth and rich to the touch and a sight of beauty to the eye.

Comparable to expensive imported fabrics, and yet durable beyond belief, it is sun, tubfast and will keep fresh, crisp and new long after ordinary fabrics have worn and faded.

The designs are smartly original in all the wanted colors. Glo-Sheen will make your old furniture into new and redecorate your entire house from top to bottom at a low cost!

Choose the patterns and colors you desire then phone us to have measurements taken, or if you have a particular problem come in and let us solve it for you. No charge for this extra service.

A WIDE RANGE OF COLORS

DELPHINIUM — Large floral bouquet on solid ground.
AVON STRIPE — Wavy floral rows running vertically on solid ground.

GARDEN PINKS — Scattered dainty floral nosegays.
QUEEN ANNE SHELL — Large flower groups set in graceful shell.
